University Senate meeting, Feb. 17, 1983

The Social Concerns Committee will propose the following amendment to Item VI of the agenda for the University Senate (deletions have line running through them; additions are underlined):

VI. SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE
STUDENT FINANCIAL AID, DRAFT REGISTRATION
(5 minutes)

MOTION:

That the Senate approve the following resolution: That the University Senate finds the Military Selective Service Act of 1982 to violate the Constitutional protections and academic freedoms of students, and hereby declares its opposition to this law and its enforcement.

MOTION:

That the Senate approve the following resolution: That the University Senate <sup>commends</sup> ~~urges~~ the University administration ~~to take legal action~~ <sup>for taking</sup> against the enforcement of this law.

INFORMATION:

In fall 1982, Congress passed a bill, the Military Selective Service Act (Section 1113a, Section 12), which requires all male applicants for financial aid to declare whether they have registered for the draft; if not, they shall be ineligible for any Federally-based financial aid. This law takes effect July 1, 1983.

COMMENT:

Whereas, this law violates students' rights of due process because it presumes guilt and provides no opportunity for a jury trial, and

Whereas, this law violates students' Fifth Amendment right to refuse to incriminate themselves, and

Whereas, this law ignores the Constitutional protection of attainder which prohibits one body from being both legislative and judicial bodies of government (Congress in this case is acting in both capacities), and

Whereas, this law discriminates against those students whose economic background dictates a need for financial assistance for their education, and targets them for punishment, and

~~Whereas, this law violates students' basic rights to privacy, because their age, sex, - and registration status shall become public, -~~

Therefore, the Social Concerns Committee presents the above resolutions to the University Senate for action.
