Dear Friend:

You are invited to hear Gail Feldman Berkove from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, talk on "The Problems and Successes of Women Returning to School" at noon on Monday, June 20th at the Campus Club, Coffman Memorial Union on the Minneapolis Campus.

After a seven year drop-out from school, Ms. Berkove returned to graduate school at Michigan in the combined program of Education and Psychology. Her doctoral research, funded by a dissertation grant from the United States Department of Labor, Manpower Division, is concerned with the psychological effects of women returning to school on the women and their families. She has presented papers and delivered lectures on related subjects throughout Michigan, Ohio, Arizona, New York and Indiana. We think you'll enjoy her.

The East Wing of the Campus Club has been reserved for us. Ms. Berkove will be with us for lunch and will speak at one o'clock. If you are not a member of the Campus Club and wish to eat lunch, you may go through the regular Campus Club line, use my name, ask the price of your lunch, and pay me later.

Sincerely,

Edith E. Mucke, Director
Continuing Education for Women
