Closing Remarks

Dean Bruininks

Hail! Minnesota

The audience will rise and join in singing the University's alma mater:

Minnesota, hail to thee!
Hail to thee, our college dear
Thy light shall ever be
A beacon bright and clear;
Thy sons and daughters true
Will proclaim thee near and far;
They will guard thy fame
And adore thy name;
Thou shalt be their Northern Star.

Recessional

The audience is requested to remain seated until those in the academic procession have marched out.

Reception

A reception for graduates will be held in the foyer and on the plaza of Northrop Memorial Auditorium. Graduates, guests, and faculty are invited to attend.

Special Recognitions

Honors Presented at Commencement

Distinguished Achievement Award

For an individual who has made extraordinary contributions to the field of education or has demonstrated achievement and leadership in public service. Presented to Nils Hasselmo, Ph.D., President of the University of Minnesota.

Honorary Degree

For distinctive achievement that has added materially to knowledge and to the betterment of society. Presented to Marian Wright Edelman, LL.D., President of the Children's Defense Fund.

Preparing Leaders in Education and Human Development

The mission of the College of Education and Human Development is to generate knowledge about teaching, learning, and human development and to apply that knowledge to improve education for all individuals. Consistently ranked as one of the most productive professional schools of education in the country—public or private—the college is a state, national, and international leader in teaching, research, and outreach. Several of the college's academic units are ranked in the top five nationally.

The college is organized into six academic units and more than 20 research and service centers, with an emphasis on interdisciplinary, collaborative approaches to addressing critical issues in preschool through postsecondary education, lifelong learning, and human development. The name of the college reflects the broad scope and impact of the college's teaching, research, and outreach mission and our deep commitment to improving the well-being of children, youth, families, and communities.
