O, say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Thy light shall ever be	Minnesota, still for thee
A beacon bright and clear;	Thy sons are strong and true;
Thy sons and daughters true	From thy woods and waters fair,
Will proclaim thee near and far;	From thy prairies waving far,
They will guard thy fame	At thy call they throng,
And adore thy name;	With their shout and song,
Thou shalt be their Northern Star.	Hailing thee their Northern Star.

The audience is requested to remain seated until those in academic costume have marched out.
