Graduation Speaker

Robert M. Brandjord, D.D.S.,
President, American Dental Association

As president of the American Dental Association, Dr. Brandjord leads the 152,000-member organization's efforts to protect and improve the public's oral health and promote advances in dentistry, while focusing on improving access to dental care for underserved patients.

While maintaining his practice as an oral and maxillofacial surgeon in Burnsville, Minnesota, Dr. Brandjord has been a leader in the profession. He served on the ADA's board of trustees, was a past president of the Minnesota Dental Association (1997-98), served as chairman of the MDA University Relations Committee and on an Ad Hoc Committee on Health Care, and was a former instructor at the U of M Dental School in the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery.

Dr. Brandjord is also a past president of the Minnesota Society of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons and a Diplomat of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. His hospital staff affiliations include serving as Department of Surgery Chief at Fairview Ridges Hospital in Burnsville, Minnesota. He has written and lectured widely and is known by Minnesota legislators who specialize in human services and health care.

Dr. Brandjord and his wife Pamela, reside in Eden Prairie, Minnesota.

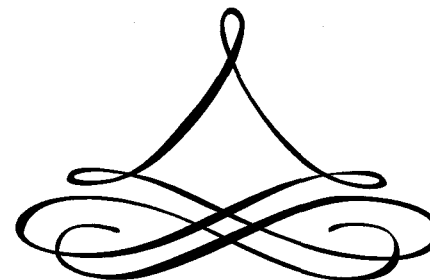

Academic Costume

The cap, gown, and sometimes hood, may be worn by anyone with a college degree or by a candidate whose degree is soon to be awarded.

The graduating dental hygiene students are wearing the black bachelor's degree gown and cap with a lilac tassel, the color designated for dentistry; those dental hygiene students with gold tassels have been elected to Sigma Phi Alpha, the national dental hygiene honor society.

The graduating dental students are wearing the black doctor's degree gown with lilac velvet front facings and sleeve crossbars and a cap with a lilac tassel; those dental students with gold tassels have been elected to Omicron Kappa Upsilon, the national dental honor society.

The faculty are wearing gowns and hoods indicating their highest degrees and caps with black tassels.

Acknowledgement

The School of Dentistry graduates express their appreciation to their families and friends for their support throughout their dental/dental hygiene education. With sincere gratitude the dental hygiene and dental graduates recognize the dental community for financial support of their graduation apparel. The 2006 classes thank the School of Dentistry Alumni Society for its commitment to making their graduation a very memorable occasion.

Music provided by the Summit Hill Brass Quintet
[Gwen Anderson, French horn;
Scott Anderson, tuba; David Baldwin, trumpet;
Pam Humphrey, trumpet; David Stevens, trombone].
