H. BREWSTER ATWATER, JR.

It is indeed a pleasure to have one of the Twin Cities' outstanding business leaders, H.B. Atwater, speak at our commencement ceremony.

Mr. Atwater was elected President of General Mills in January, 1977, and Chief Executive Officer in April, 1981. He was elected Chairman of the Board in January of 1982.

Bruce Atwater became chief executive of General Mills after a 23-year career which began in the company's sales organization in 1958. He subsequently served in a variety of marketing assignments before being named general manager of the Grocery Products Division. He was elected executive vice president in 1970, and to the General Mills Board of Directors in 1971.

A 1952 graduate of Princeton University with a Bachelor of Arts degree, Mr. Atwater received a Master's degree in Business Administration from the Stanford Graduate School of Business in 1954. He is a veteran of three years' active duty in the United States Naval Reserve.

Mr. Atwater serves on the Board of Directors of Honeywell Inc. and the Norwest Corporation. He is on the Board of Trustees of Princeton University and a member of the Advisory Council, Stanford University Graduate School of Business. He also is a member of the Business Roundtable and Business Council, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Committee for Economic Development, and a Director of the Walker Art Center, Minneapolis.

The School of Management is proud to welcome one of Minnesota's leading citizens -- Mr. Bruce Atwater.
