GOLDEN GOPHERS TO HOST WISCONSIN SATURDAY

Minnesota's Golden Gophers hope to rebound from two straight losses when playing host to rival Wisconsin Saturday in the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome at 7:00 p.m.

Coach Lou Holtz saw his club dip to 5-3 overall and 3-2 in the Big Ten Conference when dropping a 31-26 decision at Michigan State last weekend.

It was the second consecutive heartbreaking setback for the Golden Gophers and second time in a row that Coach Holtz felt his youthful contingent was going to pull out the decision right up until the last play.

"Even though we were down, I felt at the half that we still could win," Holtz said after the game. "When we scored again with two minutes to play, I really thought we were going to win it. We had our chances, just like we did the week before against Ohio State. We just fell short."

Minnesota went through the Michigan State contest....a game that saw the host club jump off to a 17-0 lead and 31-10 halftime bulge....without the services of stalwart quarterback Rickey Foggie who suffered a pulled groin muscle the week before.

Alan Holt, redshirt freshman who got the nod as Foggie's replacement, accredited himself well, however, and had 18 completions in 31 passing attempts without an interception for 275 yards. And he threw for one TD. In addition, Holt rushed 22 times for 51 yards and two more tallies.

"We just were two different teams against Michigan State," Holtz analyzed after the loss. "For the first 26 minutes we were as poor a football team as I've seen. We made every mistake possible. In the second half we came back strong. Our defense played especially well and shut Michigan State down the final two periods."

Mark Dusbabek, junior defensive end, led the Golden Gophers' second half surge with an outstanding effort and finished the afternoon with 16 total hits.... 10 solo tackles and six assists. Four of his tackles were for losses of 18 yards, and he was credited with one quarterback sack for minus 12 yards. He also had a fumble recovery.

Despite those individual heroics, it was still a setback for Minnesota and dropped the Golden Gophers into fifth place in the Big Ten Standings.

It also sets the stage for Minnesota's final three outings of the 1985 season, games which Coach Holtz has labeled..."To the victors go the spoils"...games in which Minnesota will be playing for three traveling trophies....Paul Bunyan's Axe this week against Wisconsin (the Badgers are 4-4 overall and 1-4 in the Big Ten after whipping Indiana 31-20 last Saturday), the Little Brown Jug next week against Michigan and Floyd of Rosedale in the finale at Iowa one week later.

"We'll find out about ourselves now," Coach Holtz said. "This thing isn't over yet. We just have to go on from here." With Foggie, and the rest of the Golden Gophers back in harness, Minnesota fans expect it to get interesting.

QUOTING COACH LOU HOLTZ....

On the subject of Minnesota being two different teams at Michigan State when it spotted the Spartans to a 17-0 lead but came back to have a chance to win at the end of the game, Lou Holtz said.... "The second half was the type of team that we expected to put on the field in the FIRST half!"

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of Minnesota being solid in earlier games in the turnover ratio yet losing three fumbles at Michigan State, Lou Holtz said.... "When you have a new quarterback, the timing and confidence have to be gained under game-like conditions. The turnovers did not occur because our players involved did not try."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of Minnesota's defense making adjustments at the half and then shutting Michigan State down for the final two periods, Lou Holtz said.... "The fine defense we played in the second half is a real tribute to our assistant coaches and to our players."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of Michigan State being able to convert so many critical third-and-long situations in the first half, Lou Holtz said.... "When you get a team into a third-and-long situation, it is disheartening to allow them to convert them. This negates the fine plays made by the defense on the two previous downs."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of the individual effort put forth by defensive end Mark Dusbabek at Michigan State, Lou Holtz said.... "Mark played a great game. It is unfortunate that he could not be recognized for his efforts as would be the case after a win."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of the play of Alan Holt, making his first collegiate start at quarterback, Lou Holtz said.... "Alan did very well. He is only going to get better. He got off to a shaky start, but once he settled down he did well."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of this week's opponent, the Wisconsin Badgers, and playing for Paul Bunyan's Axe, Lou Holtz said.... "Wisconsin will really be aiming for us. We butter button up our head gears for this one."

ICERS HEAD EAST, FACE LOWELL

Minneapolis, MN---Minnesota's hockey Gophers hope to begin anew this weekend by heading back on the road for games Friday and Saturday against Lowell University of the Hockey East Association (HEA).

Both games from Lowell, MA, will be aired live in the Twin Cities on KMFY-980 AM radio beginning at 6:30 p.m. CST.

The rebound portion of this trip for coach Doug Woog and his charges amounts to trying to break a three-game loss string.

After dropping the second of two games in Duluth two weeks ago, the Gophers last weekend went down both nights at Mariucci Arena to a vastly improved University of Denver Pioneer team.

Denver defeated the Gophers 4-2 Friday after building a 4-0 margin early in the final period. A pair of late Gopher goals by Corey Millen and Tim Bergland, the latter with just 17 seconds remaining, did little to ease the loss.

On Saturday the Pioneers again built a lead, this time 4-1 in the second period. But Minnesota simply refused to lay down and concede.

Sparked by sophomore center Paul Broten, who actually played right wing in his first appearance of the season, the Gophers all but pulled even.

Broten scored his second goal of the game at 9:49 of the third period to make it 4-2 Denver, before senior wing Wally Chapman banged one in from the right boards at 13:05 and the Gophers were right back in it.

But Denver center Dwight Mathiasen got was proved to be the winning goal at 16:42 by connecting on a rebound. Just 17 second later Jay Cates smacked in a rebound of Broten's shot at 16:59 to make it 5-4. But that was it.

Even though coach Woog pulled Gopher goalie Frank Piagrangelo with 1:02 remaining, the Pioneers withstood several strong assaults on goal to conclude the series sweep.

Not only was Friday's win the first for a Denver team on Twin Cities ice since 1978, but the sweep of Minnesota was their first here for the Pioneers since the 1971-72 season.

The wins vaulted Denver into a first place tie in the WCHA standings with Wisconsin. The Badgers also surprised many by defeating Minnesota-Duluth twice at home, 5-3 and 4-3. Both teams are now 5-1-0 in the standings.

The Gophers fell into a three-way tie for third place with UMD and Northern Michigan at six points apiece. UM and UMD are 3-3-0 and NMU is 3-1-0.

Broten was the only Gopher to score more than one goal on the weekend, His assist on the final UM goal tied him with Cates and Steve MacSwain for top Gopher scoring honors for the weekend at three points apiece. Cates had a goal and two assists and MacSwain three assists.

For the second straight year, games against HEA teams count in the WCHA standings, so Minnesota is not about to take the Lowell series lightly. Last year Minnesota defeated Lowell twice on home ice, 6-3 and 5-3.

Two weeks ago Lowell dropped a pair of hotly contested games at home to Wisconsin, 5-3 and 6-3. More than 100 minutes in penalties were called in the latter series.

Minnesota will be on the road again next weekend, Nov. 15-16, at North Dakota, and next play in Mariucci Arena Nov. 22-23 against Illinois-Chicago.

BREAKFAST WITH THE GOPHERS ON TAP SATURDAY

from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455

Breakfast with the Golden Gophers on Saturday, November 16, will signal the wrap-up of pre-season preparations for Coach Jim Dutcher and his 1985-86 University of Minnesota basketball team.

Williams Arena will be the scene of that festive event, with coffee and donuts served free to fans through the concessions stands prior to the Golden Gophers' intra-squad scrimmage which is slated to begin at 9 a.m.

For the scrimmage, Dutcher has indicated that he will divide his squad into a Gold team and Maroon team, with the Gold contingent featuring what currently is considered Minnesota's top unit.

Following Saturday's scrimmage, Minnesota will hit the road....or airways.... to participate in the United Airlines Ala Moana Americana Hotel Brigham Young-Hawaii Basketball Classic November 22, 23 and 25.

In that tournament, Minnesota will take on host Brigham Young-Hawaii in the opener, Middle Tennessee University in the second game and West Virginia State College in the finale.

Then the Golden Gophers will return to Williams Arena to open their 17-game home slate against San Francisco State on Friday, November 29. In all Minnesota will play eight non-conference games at home during the months of November and December before beginning a nine-game Big Ten Conference home slate in January.

GOLDEN GOPHERS HOST MICHIGAN IN JUG BATTLE

For the second straight week, the University of Minnesota football team will be battling for a symbolic trophy. And for the second straight week, that battle will take place in the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome.

Saturday at 11:38 a.m. Coach Lou Holtz' Golden Gophers entertain the University of Michigan in a Big Ten Conference showdown, and the winner will own one year's rights to the Little Brown Jug.

The invading Wolverines will bring an impressive 7-1-1 overall record into that outing and a 4-1-1 Big Ten mark. Michigan is in third place in the current standings and ranked in the nation's Top Ten.

"Michigan is an outstanding team," Holtz said earlier this week. "They have an outstanding defensive team, and their defensive record against nine opponents shows it."

A week ago, for example, the Wolves blanked Purdue 47-0 and it marked the third time this season that Michigan had held an opponent scoreless. In two other games, it's foes were held to single field goals, and thus far this year, Wolverine opponents have scored only 51 points....an average of 5.7 per game.

Minnesota, meanwhile, making its final home appearance of the 1985 campaign in the Golden Dome, will risk a 6-3 overall record and a 4-2 Big Ten standard....a mark which puts the Golden Gophers all alone in fourth place in this week's standings.

"It's now a four-team Big Ten race," Holtz told his squad after last Saturday's 27-18 victory over Wisconsin. "By beating Wisconsin we assured ourselves a winning season. I'm happy for the seniors, and now we will see how big a winner we can really be."

Winning over Michigan....and Iowa a week later in Iowa City....will be a difficult assignment for Minnesota. Historically, the Wolverines have held the upper hand. In a series dating back to 1892, Michigan has built up a commanding 50-22-3 edge. In fact, Minnesota's most recent win in the series was 16-0 in 1977. A year ago in Ann Arbor, the Wolves posted a 31-7 triumph.

But Minnesota is a better football team than it was a year ago, and while it did not play a total, complete game in last week's tune-up against Wisconsin, it did do some impressive things.

"We got some big plays," Holtz pointed out, "and we do have some big play people. We had some trouble with turnovers, and our timing was off a little offensively, but our defense played well. It did a super job."

Health-wise Minnesota does have some concerns, especially after losing Mark Dusbabek, junior defensive end, with a sprained knee. But Rickey Foggie, sophomore quarterback who missed all of the Michigan State game with a pulled groin muscle, returned against Wisconsin...and he should be 100% for the invading Wolverines Saturday.

QUOTING LOU HOLTZ. . . .

On the subject of winning number six last week against Wisconsin and being assured of a winning season, Lou Holtz said...."I'm happy for our seniors. This was our first object for the year. I hope this is the start of a long string of winning seasons for the Golden Gophers."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of Minnesota's solid kicking game against Wisconsin (despite having one clipping call on a kick and fumbling one punt) Lou Holtz said.... "Wisconsin has a fine kicking game, and our players knew that if we were to win we would have to excell in this area. Adam Kelly and Chip Lohmiller were outstanding. Our punt and kick coverage was as good as I have seen. Our punt and kickoff coverage is much further ahead of our punt and kickoff return, and that is what has kept our total kicking game from being very good."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of turnovers hampering Minnesota for the second consecutive week, Lou Holtz said...."We have to give credit to the opposition because they have played well. However, we have made a couple of poor decisions which is only human. Only an average person can always be at their best."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of Minnesota making the big plays against Wisconsin, Lou Holtz said...."We made a lot of big plays that swung the tide our way, but we can't afford to rely on them if we are to win consistently. We need to become more consistent which will allow us to control the ball and the tempo of the game."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of Minnesota not being able to gain or maintain field position during much of the Wisconsin game, Lou Holtz said..."Wisconsin did a great job of giving us the ball deep in our territory. Then they did a better job of keeping us there."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of winning Paul Bunyan's Axe and now playing for the Little Brown Jug, Lou Holtz said...."The Little Brown Jug is important to us, but obviously means a lot to Michigan, too, as they have won it most of the time."

G-O-P-H-E-R-S

On the subject of this week's opponent, Michigan, and the Michigan defense which Minnesota must face Saturday, Lou Holtz said..."Michigan has a great team. Their defense is incredible and has overshadowed the fact that it has an excellent offense and sound kicking game."

BREAKFAST WITH THE GOPHERS ON TAP SATURDAY

from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455

Breakfast with the Golden Gophers on Saturday, November 16, will signal the wrap-up of pre-season preparations for Coach Jim Dutcher and his 1985-86 University of Minnesota basketball team.

Williams Arena will be the scene of that festive event, with coffee and donuts served free to fans through the concessions stands prior to the Golden Gophers' intra-squad scrimmage which is slated to begin at 9 a.m.

This sequel to Midnight Madness again will feature participation by the University of Minnesota cheerleaders, Danceline and the Golden Gopher mascot.

Commemorative buttons will be distributed free to fans who attend what Coach Dutcher has termed "Our final major scrimmage before we leave for Hawaii and the opening of our 1985-86 season."

For the scrimmage, Dutcher has indicated that he will divide his squad into a Gold team and Maroon team, with the Gold contingent featuring what currently is considered Minnesota's top unit.

Following Saturday's scrimmage, Minnesota will hit the road....or airways.... to participate in the United Airlines Ala Moana Americana Hotel Brigham Young-Hawaii Basketball Classic November 22, 23 and 25.

In that tournament, Minnesota will take on host Brigham Young-Hawaii in the opener, Middle Tennessee University in the second game and West Virginia State College in the finale.

Then the Golden Gophers will return to Williams Arena to open their 17-game home slate against San Francisco State on Friday, November 29. In all Minnesota will play eight non-conference games at home during the months of November and December before beginning a nine-game Big Ten Conference home slate in January.

Season tickets remain on sale for $153.00 through the Athletic Ticket Office located in the Bierman Building at 516 15th Avenue SE, Minneapolis, MN 55455 (phone 612-373-3181).

Minneapolis, MN---Sometimes it takes a road trip, its takes playing in foreign surroundings to produce different results for a team that may be struggling.

It was a road trip to Lowell, MA, last weekend that provided the proper medicine for Minnesota's hokcey Gophers. Minnesota broke a three-game loss string by defeating the Lowell Chiefs 3-1 and 2-1.

The wins lifted the Gophers into sole possession of third place in the WCHA standings with a 5-3-0 record good for 10 points. Minnesota is only two points behind co-leaders Northern Michigan and Wisconsin, each at 6-2-0, 12.

Minnesota may be seeking a second perscription this weekend, but one is considerably harder to swallow. At task are games Friday and Saturday in Grand Forks against the U. of North Dakota.

The Sioux (4-4-0) last weekend cured some of its own problems by sweeping the series at New Hampshsire (4-2, 7-4).

"North Dakota will be a lot hungrier than Lowell was," says first year Gopher head coach Doug Woog. "I'm certain their wins at New Hampshsire boosted their confidence in getting their act together.

"But our players tell me they really enjoy playing up there, so I expect to see quite a series. Minnesota and North Dakota own a long heritage of some great hockey series down through the years. I believe that spirit will be kept alive this weekend."

Asked about his team's performance in the Lowell series, Woog replied, "Naturally we would have liked to score more goals than we did, but looking at the positive side we were able to cut down on our goals against.

"We even had three clear breakaways Saturday, but missed each try. We are starting to get more quality scoring chances and I believe the goals will come.

"I also believe many of our men are concentrating much, much more now on the small but important components of defensive areas, and that sometimes takes away from your offense. But defensive play has come into a special meaning for our players.

"They really appeared proud that we could work well in our defensive areas and shut an opponent down. Protecting a slim lead by playing smart hockey is a real booster to our people.

"In addition, both our goalies, John Blue Friday and Frank Pietrangelo Saturday, played soundly. Lowell's goals in each game came on the power play.

"And speaking of the power play, we are simply not coming through in this area. But then, we are not getting as many opportunities as our opponents, either. We do need additional work in this area to improve our scoring chances."

Woog offered praise for freshman center Dave Snuggerud (Minnetonka) who played in his first games for Minnesota. Woog said Snuggerud fit in well as all four of Minnesota's lines scored at least one goal in the series.

It is also hoped, says Woog, that junior defenseman Eric Dornfeld can return to action this weekend. Dornfeld has missed the last three Gopher games with a shoulder injury. The coach added that freshman wing Tom Chorske could also be back in the Gopher lineup for the North Dakota series, too.

GOLDEN GOPHERS END REGULAR SEASON PLAY AT IOWA

Minnesota's Golden Gophers will conclude regular season play on Saturday when invading Iowa City, Iowa, for the Big Ten Conference finale with the University of Iowa.

Kickoff for that tell-tale encounter with the league's number one club is 11:38 a.m., and the outcome will determine the bowl fate for several conference football teams.

By winning, Iowa would capture the 1985 Big Ten title and represent the conference in the Rose Bowl. By winning, Minnesota could get an invitation for post season play as well.

It appears that Minnesota, win or lose, will be invited to the Independence Bowl, but a victory for the Golden Gophers might prompt other bowls to extend invites as well.

Chances of Coach Lou Holtz' contingent pulling that kind of upset over the Hawkeyes logically would not be very strong. But when Minnesota and Iowa meet, logic goes out the window.

Even when considering that The Golden Gophers were stunned by red-hot Michigan 48-7 at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome last weekend. That loss dropped Minnesota's overall record to 6-4 and 4-3 in the Big Ten.

Iowa, meanwhile, slipped by Purdue 27-24 last Saturday and in the process ran its record to 9-1. The Hawkeyes lead the Conference with a 6-1 mark.

Minnesota's loss to Michigan was a stunner. "I never envisioned getting beat by that score," Coach Holtz admitted after the game, "But we must give Michigan credit. We knew they were awfully good. They play well together, and they are just a great defensive team."

Even so, mistakes gave the Wolverines the upper hand. "There were three distinct keys to our lack of success," Holtz analyzed, "our turnovers, our breakdowns in the kicking game, and our inability to stop Michigan on so many third-and-long situations."

The turnovers were costly, and an early fumble and interception led to Michigan scores. In the kicking game, Minnesota had one punt blocked and then let the Wolverines return another punt for a touchdown. And Michigan's third down conversions were almost too numerous to count."

Holtz is hopeful, however, that his Golden Gophers can put that loss behind them. "We've got to hold up our heads," he stressed. "It's not like we have leperacy. We may be discouraged, and we may be disappointed. But I have great respect for this Minnesota team. I know they will play hard right to the end."

Over the years, Minnesota and Iowa have met 78 times, and going into Saturday's contest, the Golden Gophers lead 52-24-2. A year ago, Minnesota retained possession of Floyd of Rosedale by prevailing 23-17 at the Metrodome. They'd like to keep the "hog" with another win Saturday!

ICERS FACE ILL-CHICAGO AT HOME

Minneapolis, MN---After gaining a key road split at North Dakota, the Minnesota hockey Gophers take a weekend off from the WCHA wars to host the University of Illinois-Chicago Friday and Saturday at Mariucci Arena. Both games begin at 7:35 p.m. CST.

Minnesota rebounded from Friday's crushing 7-4 loss to North Dakota to take a tight 3-2 win Saturday. The split dropped Minnesota into a tie for third and fourth place in the WCHA standings with Northern Michigan.

The Gophers are 6-4-0 for 12 league points while Northern, which swept Maine at home, is 6-2-0. Both teams trail league-leading Denver (8-2-0, 16), and second place Wisconsin (7-3-0, 14) in the WCHA race.

Illinois-Chicago comes to Mariucci Arena following five consecutive weekends in which the Flames have recorded series splits. Last weekend UIC won 6-4 at Michigan only to lose 7-4 the next night. The Flames are 5-7-0 and in fourth place in the CCHA standings.

It wasn't until the second period Saturday of the North Dakota series that Minnesota gained its first lead of the weekend. North Dakota had its own way Friday building a 7-1 lead before Todd Okerlund, Tom Chorske and Tim Bergland scored in the last 2:40 for the Gophers. It was freshman Chorske's first collegiate goal. A total of 34 penalties were called Friday.

On Saturday things started out the same way with North Dakota gaining the lone goal of the opening period, a period which saw 23 minor infractions called. Then the teams settled down to playing ice hockey and Minnesota prevailed.

Steve Orth and Pat Micheletti put the Gophers ahead with second period goals before David Grannis got the game winner unassisted at 15:29 of the final stanza. Brian Williams scored for ND at 18:12, but it wasn't enough.

Senior goalie Frank Pietrangelo was in the Gopher nets Saturday making 43 saves while at the other end, ND goalie Scott Brower stopped 42 chances.

Pietrangelo, who has split every Gopher series this season, was sensational, particularly in the final period, and held Minnesota in the game. Both he and sophomore John Blue now own 3-2-0 won-lost records.

MINNESOTA CAGERS HEAD FOR TOURNEY IN HAWAII

An ambitious three-game tournament in Hawaii will signal the tip-off of the 1985-86 basketball season for the University of Minnesota this weekend.

Coach Jim Dutcher's Golden Gophers are scheduled to play in the United Airlines Ala Moana Americana Hotel Brigham Young University-Hawaii Classic on Friday, Saturday and Monday.

In the opening round, Minnesota will face the host school, Brigham Young University-Hawaii at 8 p.m. on Friday. On Saturday, the Golden Gophers will take on Middle Tennessee State University in the 6 p.m. contest, and then on Monday Minnesota will wrap up action with another 6 p.m. assignment against West Virginia State College.

Dutcher could be expected to do some experimenting with his lineup in that tourney, and he's almost certain to give some of his new players a good look.

Of the veterans, John Shasky, a 7-0 senior co-captain, could play extensively at center although 7-0 sophomore Dave Holmgren also will get his chances.

In the backcourt, 5-11 sophomore Todd Alexander and 6-1 senior co-captain Marc Wilson have been tabbed as the starters, but newcomer 6-2 freshman Ray Gaffney also will see action.

The same holds true for Terence Woods, a 6-5 junior who could swing between guard and forward. That's also the case with letterman Tim Hanson, a 6-5 sophomore.

Other forwards making the trip will be Mitch Lee, 6-9 sophomore letterman; newcomer Kelvin Smith, a 6-7 freshman; and George Williams, a 6-9 sophomore letterman.

"The tournament will be a good test for us," Coach Dutcher said, "but we hope people will not judge our strengths on what happens in Hawaii. I feel better about this team than any we have had since our 1982 championship squad, but we will not be at full strength for the Hawaii tournament."

Upon returning to Minnesota, the Golden Gophers open their 17-game home slate at Williams Arena by entertaining San Francisco State on Friday, November 29.

That home opener marks the start of a six-game Williams Arena stand covering only 16 days. Four more non-conference games also are on tap during December.... two at home and two on the road....to make it an ambitious and demanding month for the Golden Gophers.

"Lou Holtz and I have met several times and have reached the mutual conclusion that Lou be relieved of his duties as Head Football Coach at Minnesota immediately, so that he can devote full time to his new position at Notre Dame.

I have met with Lou's current coaching staff and despite the void left by his departure they have indicated they are going ahead with preparations for the Independence Bowl game with Clemson with every intention of winning.

Meanwhile, the search for a new football coach continues with excellent candidates from both within and outside our program. We feel confident that a new coach will be named before the Independence Bowl. If that person comes from outside our current program, we would hope that he would be present on the sidelines that day. If the coach comes from inside the program, we would expect little disruption as we prepare for the game.

We know that the Independence Bowl committee was counting on Lou Holtz, but we remain very excited about the Independence Bowl, and we look forward to Shreveport with great enthusiasm, and the expectation our team will make an outstanding showing.

We are extremely grateful to Lou Holtz for the fine job he has done here these past two years, and we wish him every success at Notre Dame.

ICERS AT RED HOT NMU

Minneapolis, MN---After taking a week off from the rugged WCHA race, the Minnesota hockey Gophers this weekend travel to Marquette, MI, to meet the second place Northern Michigan University Wildcats.

Last weekend Northern surprised more than one hockey follower by sweeping the No. 1 team from the Hockey East Association, Boston College. NMU took the Eagles 4-3 and 8-5.

(OVER)

While the Wildcats (8-2-0, 16) stayed hot on the trail of league-leading Denver (10-2-0, 20), Minnesota dropped from fourth to fifth place in the WCHA standings even though the Gophers defeated Illinois-Chicago 5-3 and 7-2 at home in non-conference action.

Besides trailing Denver and Northern Michigan, Minnesota is also in back of Wisconsin and Minnesota-Duluth, teams who also scored league sweeps.

The Gopher again received solid goal tending from sophomore John Blue Friday, and senior Frank Pietrangelo Saturday. This sturdy duo has split every series for Minnesota this season, and is expected to do the same this weekend at Northern Michigan. Both are 4-2-0 on the season and sport identical 2.83 goals allowed averages.

While Blue and Pietrangelo were doing their thing, Gopher skaters finally broke from their scoring slump. The 12 goals against Illinois-Chicago marked UM's highest series output of the season.

Winger Steve MacSwain powered the Gopher offense Friday by scoring his first collegiate hat trick. His final goal went into a vacant net as the Flames pulled their goalie with a minute remaining attempting to forge a 4-4 tie.

MacSwain's center, Corey Millen, got the other two Gopher goals with both coming on the power play.

On Saturday freshman defenseman Todd Richards stole the show by scoring two goals and added a pair of assists. His first goal in the opening period put Minnesota ahead to stay.

MacSwain also scored a goal Saturday giving him a team high four on the weekend. Pat Micheletti led all scorers with a goal and five assists while another winger. Wally Chapman, had a goal and three assists and Millen added two assists to his pair of goals.

Last season Minnesota met Northern Michigan four times in Mariucci Arena, the latter pair in the first round WCHA playoffs. UM won the regular season series by scores of 7-1 and 3-0. In the playoffs NMU took the opener 4-3 with Minnesota coming back to win 6-4 the next day and take the two-game, total-goal series 9 goals to 8.

"There was nothing negative for us about playing non-conference games last weekend, Gopher head coach Doug Woog said Monday. "Our men had the chance to play two more games and any kind of wins never hurt.

"But going to Northern Michigan is something else. They are playing excellent hockey and really have a super line leading their offense.

"Northern's rink is not an easy splace to play. Ask Boston College. The Eagles went into Marquette last weekend ranked number one in the nation. You know what happened.

"Northern Michigan came into this season expecting to be good. So their performance is really no surprise. I believe last year was a season of adjustment for Northern coming into the WCHA the first time. It's also evident they have made that adjustment and are a team to be watched.

"One thing we have to start doing is coming out of the chute better. We have been getting off to slow starts in recent series and that has hurt us.

"Our goals for and against show a negative balance in the first period this season. At the same time it appears we are certainly in good shape as we are outscoring our opponents in both the second and third periods."

GOLDEN GOPHERS TO PLAY IN INDEPENDENCE BOWL

The University of Minnesota will make its first post season bowl appearance since 1977 when taking on Clemson in the Independence Bowl at Shreveport, LA, on Saturday, December 21.

Coach Lou Holtz' Golden Gophers finished regular-season play with an overall record of 6-5. They were 4-4 in the Big Ten Conference and wound up in a tie with Michigan State for fifth place.

It was the best record for a U of M contingent since 1981 even though it dropped the regular-season finale 31-9 at the University of Iowa last weekend.

Holtz indicated that despite losing to Michigan and Iowa in its two most recent assignments, it was a plus for Minnesota to be invited to participate in a bowl game.

"I'm happy for the seniors," Holtz said, "and I feel that going to a bowl is a step in the right direction. It gives us additional practice time and will be the best thing for the future of our football program at the University of Minnesota."

The Golden Gophers had jumped off to an extremely impressive start, going 5-1 through their first six games. But then injuries and a lack of depth caught up with Minnesota.

"We were a tired and worn out football team the last few weeks." Holtz admitted, but a short break over the Thanksgiving weekend should help mend those wounds and enable Minnesota to begin preparations for their post-season assignment.

Pitted as the U of M opponent in the Independence Bowl will be Clemson of the Atlantic Coast Conference which finished 6-5 overall after nudging South Carolina 24-17 in the regular-season finale last weekend.

In Minnesota's final-game loss at Iowa, Coach Holtz' contingent had some chances early to make a battle out of it, but eventually the Hawkeyes wore down the under-manned visitors.

"We just got beat by a good solid football team," Holtz admitted. "I thought our offensive line played pretty well, and I certainly could not fault our effort. We just needed some big plays, and when opportunities presented themselves, we simply were not able to take advantage of them."

Individually, David Puk led Minnesota's rushers with 61 yards in 13 carries. Rickey Foggie was six of 13 through the air for 69 yards and Rocky Gailord was the top Golden Gopher receiver with three grabs for 57 yards.

But the Iowa game now is history, and all thoughts are on December 21 and the Independence Bowl where the Golden Gophers will take on the Tigers.

"We're proud to be going to a bowl game," Holtz emphasized. "I think we are a good football team, and we are promising to take a good football team to Shreveport."

GOPHER TALES--This will mark the fourth time in history that the University of Minnesota has participated in post season play. The Golden Gophers fell 17-7 to Washington in the 1961 Rose Bowl, but a year later avenged that loss with a 21-3 win over UCLA. Then in 1977, Minnesota lost to Maryland 17-7 in the Hall of Fame (now All-American) Bowl.

Valdez Baylor finished the season as Minnesota's leading rusher. He netted 582 yards in 99 carries for an average of 5.9 per try. He scored five touchdowns, and his longest run was 45 yards.

Foggie capped off his sophomore season with 65 completions in 141 attempts for a .461 mark and 1,370 yards. He threw for seven touchdowns, and he had four intercepted.

Mel Anderson wound up as the top Golden Gopher receiver. He had 22 catches for 520 yards and an average of 23.6 per grab. He had two TD's, and his longest gain was 89 yards.

Adam Kelly turned in another solid punting season for Minnesota. He had 48 boots, and he averaged 41.8 per kick. His longest was 61 yards.

Chip Lohmiller led Minnesota in scoring during regular season play. He booted 28 of 29 conversion attempts and connected on 13 of 16 field goal tries to wind up with 67 total points.

Final defensive stats showed Peter Najarian topping Minnesota for the third straight year. He had 58 unassisted tackles and 75 assists for a total of 133 hits.

At Monday night's U of M awards banquet, Foggie was tabbed as Minnesota's Most Valuable Player and the Bronko Nagurski Award winner. Najarian won the Carl Eller Award as the best defensive player while Ray Hitchcock copped the Bruce Smith Award as Minnesota's top offensive player.

Andy Hare was named the Butch Nash Award winner as the Golden Gophers' most competitive player, Lohmiller the Bobby Bell Award as the best special teams player and Puk the Paul Giel Award winner as the most unselfish player.

Puk also was honored recently for being named to the first offensive team as a runningback on the 1985 District Five University Division All-Academic Team. As such a selection, Puk becomes a candidate for similar honors on the All-America level.

U OF M CAGERS OPEN HOME SEASON THIS WEEKEND

Coach Jim Dutcher brings his 2-1 University of Minnesota basketball team home from Hawaii this week to pen its 1985-86 Williams Arena slate against San Francisco State on Friday and South Dakota on Saturday.

Both of those non-conference assignments show 8:05 p.m. tip-offs and mark the beginning of a six game home stand. Next Monday Minnesota entertains Eastern Illinois and next Wednesday hosts Detroit.

The Golden Gophers scored two big wins in its tournament in Hawaii last week. First Minnesota drilled West Virginia State 120-106 and then downed host Brigham Young-Hawaii 87-80 in the finale. In between, the Golden Gophers fell 92-79 to Middle Tennessee.

Prior to heading to that tourney, Coach Dutcher said he hoped Minnesota fans would not judge the Golden Gophers on their record there. "We won't be at full strength," he pointed out, "and the opposition will be much stronger and the environment much more difficult than people realize."

Consequently, Dutcher has to be satisfied that his youthful club was able to come out of Hawaii with a pair of impressive victories while using a number of players.

In the opening round of the tourney, Terence Woods scored 29 in his first assignment to lead Minnesota. John Shasky was next in line with 28.

Mitch Lee paced the Golden Gophers in their loss to Middle Tennessee with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Despite those efforts, Minnesota was out-rebounded 42-34, and it caused Dutcher some concern.

"Rebounding is our major concern," Dutcher was quoted as saying after the loss. "It's the same old bug-aboo we had last season. We couldn't even out-rebound a team where we had a height advantage."

After that chastisement, Minnesota came back in the tourney's final game to dump the host club behind its 1985-86 co-captains, Shasky and Marc Wilson who scored career highs of 33 and 29 points respectively.

Now the friendly confines of Williams Arena will welcome its travel-weary cagers home, and the stage becomes set for a hectic month of non-conference play before Big Ten action opens in January.

Dutcher figures to open with his veterans this weekend, and that means that Kevin Smith, who did not make the trip to Hawaii, will team with Lee at forward.

Shasky is a fixture at center for the Golden Gophers while Wilson will draw Todd Alexander as his running-mate at guard for invading San Francisco and South Dakota.

The University of Minnesota men's and women's gymnastic squads host the Japanese Collegiate All-Stars, Sunday, December 1, 2:00 PM at Williams Arena. It will be the sixth year of competition between Minnesota and the Japanese men's teams and the second year of the co-ed meet. The Japanese will have seven of its best collegiate performers and have beaten the Minnesota team all five years of the meet.

Coach Fred Roethlisberger's team placed seventh at the Windy City Invitational last weekend in Chicgo, Illinois. The University of Iowa showed its tremendous promise with a first place finish and a team score of 274.45. "Iowa won easily and are definitely the team to beat in the Big Ten Conference," said Roethlisberger.

"I was encouraged with the young guys at the Windy City meet, once we get healthy we will have a real good team." Senior David Menke (Bloomington, MN) had the Gophers top individual all-around finish with a seventh place showing. Rob Brown (Sr. Chicago, IL) was eighth all-around.

In the individual events Rob Brown had a third place finish in the rings and a sixth place in the horizontal bar. Collin Godkin (Jr. Milwaukee, WI) placed fifth in the pommel horse competition to round out Minnesota's top finishers. Minnesota has a team score of 261.90 for its seventh place showing.

GIESE REMAINS UNBEATEN WITH NEBRASKA-OMAHA CHAMPIONSHIP: FOUR WRESTLERS PLACE AT OMAHA AT WISCONSIN NORTHERN OPEN THIS WEEKEND

Senior captain Ed Giese (Wood Dale, IL) ran his season record to 12-0 while capturing the 118 pound title at the Nebraska-Omaha tourney last Saturday. GOLDEN GOPHER CAGERS HOST ARKANSAS SATURDAY

After entertaining Detroit on Wednesday, the University of Minnesota will complete a busy week of basketball by playing host to Arkansas of the Southwest Conference at Williams Arena on Saturday night. Tip-off for that inter-sectional, non-conference shootout is 8:05 p.m.

Coach Jim Dutcher's contingent, in the midst of an ambitious six-game home stand, came back from its' Hawaii tournament at 2-1 and then polished off San Francisco State 95-63 and South Dakota 66-57 last weekend.

Then Monday evening Minnesota blistered Eastern Illinois 87-69 to set the stage for Wednesdays' confrontation with Detroit and Saturday's game with the razorbacks.

Dutcher seemed to think that his cagers were making progress, that they were playing better as the season moved into high gear. Hopefully that will be the case, since each opponent also seems to be of better quality....and Saturday's Arkansas foe is a classic example.

(MORE)

A year ago Arkansas whipped the traveling Golden Gophers 56-46 in Little Rock at a time when Minnesota was completing a strenuous four-game road swing involving Indiana State, Oregon, Arizona and the Razorbacks.

That was the only previous meeting in history between the Golden Gophers and Arkansas, and Dutcher would like to see his club even the series with the home court advantage Saturday.

No changes are anticipated in Minnesota's starting lineup, and that means Co-Captain John Shasky will open at center, Mitch Lee and Kevin Smith will get the call at forward and Todd Alexander will team with Co-Captain Marc Wilson at guard.

But several other Golden Gophers could see action....as they have in those most-recent non-conference assignments at Williams Arena.

George Williams, Tim Hanson, Terence Woods and Kelvin Smith all have done time at forward. Mark Anderson and Ray Gaffney have given Dutcher help at guard and could do so again against the Razorbacks. And Dave Holmgren has given Shasky some rest at center.

All of those cagers have shown progress.....just like the Minnesota delegation has shown progress as a team. Dutcher hopes that will continue this week.

"We got a better tempo of things established in the second half of our game against San Francisco," Dutcher said, "and against Eastern Illinois it was even better. We were able to control the tempo from start to finish."

Rebounding has been a concern of Dutcher's through the early going, but Minnesota seemed to show signs of coming alive in that department as well during its' home stand.

"We got on the boards a little stronger against San Francisco," Dutcher pointed out, and even against a team with good size like Eastern Illinois the Golden Gophers were able to hold their own.

Dutcher also liked Minnesota's scoring effort against Eastern Illinois. "Offensively we did a much better job," he said. "It all has to do with tempo, but overall I felt it was a good effort on our part."

Shasky led the way in that most-recent win with 22 points, and Wilson followed closely with 19. Two other Golden Gophers finished in double figures in that game.... Kevin Smith with 13 and Anderson with 11.

But now it's the invading Razorbacks....and then a week off for final exams before Minnesota entertains Colorado State on December 28. After that the Golden Gophers hit the road for non-conference assignments at Marquette and Connecticut before returning to Williams Arena to close the December slate against Oklahoma State and Alcorn State during the Christmas holidays.

NOTES: > SEASON HIGH. # N'tl. Airlines Trn.

Minneapolis, MN---After storming to a pair of surprise road wins at Northern Michigan last weekend, all the U. of Minnesota hockey Gophers have to look forward to this weekend is hosting Wisconsin Friday and Saturday at Mariucci Arena.

Friday's 7:35 p.m. CST game will be aired by KMFY-980 AM and WCCO-830 AM, plus KMSP-TV, Ch. 9. Saturday's 2:05 p.m. game will only be on KMFY Radio.

The Gophers, as stated, raised more than one hockey eyebrow by sweeping the Wildcats in Marquette. Minnesota broke from a 4-4 third period tie with four goals in the last five minutes to win 8-4 Friday, and then came from a 6-3 second period deficit to win 10-9 in overtime Saturday.

Actually, the Gophers Saturday fell behind again by one goal three times in the final period only to see co-captain Wally Chapman forge a 9-9 tie with 3:30 remaining in regulation time.

It only took junior center Corey Millen, who scored the third period game winner Friday, 0:09 to score the overtime winner Saturday.

Not only was gaining two upset road wins a surprise, but the fact that Minnesota scored 18 goals in the process was an even bigger jolt. The Gophers went into last week averaging only 3.4 goals per WCHA outing, third lowest offensive average in the league.

On top of that, Minnesota had the least productive power play offense in the WCHA, too. So what happened? No less than half (9) of UM's 18 goals came on man advantage situations.

Besides scoring both game winning goals, Millen turned in the highest point production of any Minnesota player this year by scoring nine points in the series. He cashed in another goal Friday, and added six assists in the two games.

However, his production was overshadowed by NMU forward Gary Emmons who set a new WCHA record Saturday by scoring six goals. The former league record was five in one game, a mark held by several players. Emmons also totaled nine weekend points and was named WCHA Player of the Week. Millen was certainly a close second in the decision.

"What that pair of wins means to us is that we are still in the hunt," Gopher head coach Doug Woog said Monday. "All the numbers remain positive.

"I must give a good portion of credit for last weekend to senior co-captains Wally Chapman and Tony Kellin. They held some team meetings to stress to their teammates the importance of this series, and I guess it worked.

"We had been working hard on our power play all season, but I believe the little extra work we gave our men last week in practice paid off. We allowed only three even-up goals in each game, so seven of their 13 goals came on power plays. The fact that half our goals came on the power play didn't hurt, either.

"But more important, in team scoring only five or six players are contributing a majority of our scores. Several other players, however, know where their contributions to the team can best be made and are doing those things in an unselfish manner.

"It was great to see our players not panic, maintain their poise when we fell behind Saturday. or were tied 4-4 Friday. They just kept on playing their game."

As to meeting Wisconsin this weekend, Woog offered, "They simply have an offensive powerhouse to go with a pair of fine, experienced goal tenders.

"They have reached first place and are not about to fall back in the pack without someone paying a heavy price. Wisconsin has some great players and that's a good enough reason why they are winning and winning big.

"Both Wisconsin and ourselves have the capacity to explode offensively, so I believe we could be viewing some kind of skating series this weekend."

MINNESOTA vs. JAPANESE MEET RESCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY NIGHT DECEMBER 6, 8:00 PM

The first major snowstorm of 1985-86 hit the Midwest during the Thanksgiving weekend and postponed the Minnesota vs. Japanese Collegiate All-Stars co-ed meet. The Japanese will continue with its five-stop tour of the nations top collegiate gymnastic squads then come back to Minneapolis to face off against the Minnesota men's and women's teams. The meet has been reset for Friday, December 6, 8:00 PM at Williams Arena.

Minnesota gymnastic coach Fred Roethlisberger and his team opened the 1985-86 season competing at the Windy City Invitational November 23. The Gophers placed seventh in a highly competitive field at the Invite and should continue their improvement this weekend against the Japanese.

The Gophers are the defending Big Ten runnerup and have won seven of the last eleven conference gymnastic titles. Minnesota's Collin Godkin (Jr. Milwaukee, WI) was the Big Ten all-around runnerup last year and will team with Rob Brown (Sr. Chicago, IL) and David Menke (Sr. Bloomington, MN) to form an excellent trio of top-flight gymnasts.

GOLDEN GOPHER CAGERS TO CLOSE HOME STAND SATURDAY

Minnesota's Golden Gopher basketball team will wind up its six-game home stand Saturday when playing host to Colorado State at 8:05 p.m. in Williams Arena.

That non-conference assignment will find Coach Jim Dutcher's contingent shooting for its seventh straight triumph while attempting to improve upon its current record of 7-1.

Most recent victim that fell to the improving Golden Gophers was Arkansas from the Southwest Conference. Minnesota beat the Razorbacks 71-64 last weekend.

"It was a nice win for us," Dutcher said. "Overall it was a good effort on our part. We felt it was a win over a very good basketball team that beat us a year ago."

Co-captain Marc Wilson a senior who has been playing the best ball of his career in recent outings, led the Golden Gophers with 21 points, but he had a lot of help.

Kevin Smith and Mitch Lee got the job done at forwards with 15 and 10 points respectively while Todd Alexander, Wilson's running-mate at guard, had 17. Only co-captain and center John Shasky failed to finish in double figures. He scored only six, but did have seven rebounds.

"We rebounded the defensive board pretty well, Dutcher analyzed, "and consequently we did not give Arkansas many second shots. We also were able to score some transition baskets, and that was a factor in the outcome of the game."

But now Minnesota must look at Colorado State....and concentrating on Saturday's game this week becomes a part-time task since the Golden Gophers are involved in final quarter exams, and their practice schedule becomes a little altered.

"Forget about basketball," Dutcher told his squad after the Arkansas win. "Take some time off for studies, for a couple of days." He'll get his charges back into the routine of things later in the week.

Following this Saturday's game against Colorado State, Minnesota takes to the road for games at Marquette on December 17 and at Connecticut December 21.

Last week found Minnesota three wins. In addition to that seven-point triumph over Arkansas, the Golden Gophers also polished off Eastern Illinois 87-69 and Detroit 83-71.

Against Eastern, Shasky was the big man as he dropped in 22 points. Wilson had 19. Then against Detroit, another club that topped Minnesota a year ago, Wilson had 20, Alexander 16 and Shasky 14.

Minnesota's co-captains head into the Colorado State contest as the team leaders in more ways than one. Wilson is the top Golden Gopher scorer with 155 points in eight games for an average of 19.3 per start. Shasky is next in line with 142 points and a 17.8 average. He also tops Minnesota in rebounds with 64 and an eight-per-game average, and Wilson leads his mates in steals with 15.

Alexander is third in team scoring with 77 points in seven games and an average of 11.0 per contest, while Lee is second in rebounds with 54 in seven games.

Saturday's contest will mark the first time in history that Minnesota and Colorado State have met in basketball.

NOTES: > SEASON HIGH, # N'tl. Airlines Trn.

Minneapolis, MN---After winning its sixth and seventh straight games by sweeping Wisconsin at home last weekend, the Minnesota hockey Gophers take a WCHA holiday by playing a non-conference series against U.S. International Saturday and Sunday in Mariucci Arena.

Both games boast 2:05 p.m. starting times and will be aired by KMFY-980 AM Radio in the Twin Cities.

Besides this being an intersectional series, it also provides the opportunity for Gopher fans to welcome back USIU head coach Brad Buetow who was boss of the Gopher ice program from 1979-80 through last season. Buetow was given the job of building the Gull program into a major power last summer.

By winning 5-4 in overtime and 6-2 against Wisconsin, Minnesota has helped throw the WCHA standings into a tight squeeze among the leaders.

Wisconsin came into the series tied with Denver for first place. But the Pioneers split at Providence and now own a 2-point margin over the Badgers, 24-22.

Minnesota jumped over Minnesota-Duluth into third place with 20 league points, but has played two games less (14) than the leaders (16). The Gophers could, however, end up in fifth place after this weekend as UM-Duluth, with 19 points, and fifth place Northern Michigan with 18, both play WCHA series this weekend. Both UM-D and NMU have also played only 14 league contests.

Corey Millen was again the man in the right place at the right time for Minnesota last weekend. With 10 seconds remaining in overtime Friday, Millen jammed in a controversial goal providing the Gophers with his third straight game winner.

The next day Wally Chapman hit a pair of power play goals in the first period and the Gophers never trailed. Goalie John Blue, who was out Friday with the flu, lost his bid for a shut out when Wisconsin scored at 11:51 of the final period Saturday after the Gophers had built a 4-0 margin.

Minnesota outshot the Badgers 46-20 in Saturday's contest converting three of seven power play chances while the Badgers were blanked in six tries.

Freshman defenseman Todd Richards was one of Minnesota's top performers against Wisconsin. He led UM scorers with a goal and four assists and pulled all kinds of ice time due to the absence of senior defenseman Tony Kellin who, like Blue, was out with the same flu bug.

Asked about the timing of this non-conference weekend, Gopher head coach Doug Woog said, "I really would rather have it somewhere down the road. But considering this week is final exam period and with last week's outbreak of the flu, I guess this comes at a pretty good time.

"Due to exams we will not be able to practice at all this week as a team. But I'm certain our varsity players will get over to the arena every day and at least do some skating.

"We also plan to use this series to get a couple of men like center Chris May and defenseman Mike Luckraft into action for the first time. But for the most part we will stay with our regular lineup.

"I'm of course very proud and happy that our team the past few weeks has really seemed to come together. Each man is accepting his own role, even though some of those roles are not glamorous. But it takes a 20-man effort to win in this league, and that's exactly what we are receiving. I hope it continues."

GYMNASTS LOSE TO JAPANESE ALL-STARS: THREE COMPETING INTERNATIONALLY IN DECEMBER

The powerful Japanese All-Stars defeated the University of Minnesota for the sixth consecutive year with a 279.45 - 271.90 win over the Gophers last Friday. According to Gopher Coach Fred Roethlisberger the meet was a success. "It was a good turnout despite the postponement. We had an enthusiastic crowd and they really enjoyed the competition. Steve Braun winning the pommel horse was the highlight for us. The Japanese were so good as we expected and they can do things the way gymnastics is suppose to be. After a slow start, we began to hit our routines. David Menke did a good job in the all-around."

Minnesota will be off for the Christmas break and will resume action January 18-19 with a swing into Michigan to take on Big Ten foes Michigan State and the University of Michigan. The Gophers will also face Illinois on the trip.

Coach Roethlisberger will have two of his current Gopher gymnasts and Assistant coach Joey Ray competing in international meets this month. Ray (former Gopher and Big Ten all-around champion) will be at the Tawain Nationals December 12-14 and will compete against the top gynasts in the world.

Current Gophers Collin Godkin (Jr. Milwaukee, WI) and David Menke (SR. Chicago, IL) are entered in prestigious international meets later in December. Godkin will be at the Barcelona, Spain invitational December 14-15. Menke will be at the London, England meet December 21-22.

Minnesota is the defending Big Ten runnerup and has won seven of the last eleven Big Ten gymnastic titles. Roethlisberger has a 91-36 career dual record at the U of M.

MINNESOTA PREPARES FOR INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Preparations for the Independence Bowl were expected to move into high gear at the University of Minnesota this week under newly-appointed Head Football Coach John Gutekunst.

Gutekunst ran his Golden Gophers through drills last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and he is expected to follow the same pattern this weekend.

Next week Minnesota again will work out in its new indoor practice facility before heading for Shreveport, LA, and its' December 21st assignment in the Independence Bowl against Clemson.

Fall-quarter final exams took most of the time....and concentration....of the Golden Gophers this week before Gutekunst stepped up the practice tempo for his squad.

"We had three good days of practice last weekend," Gutekunst said. "I was pleased with the players' retention and their mental execution. We accomplished what we wanted to."

Those three days of drills, Minnesota's first since the final week of regular season play when it was preparing for the Iowa game, also permitted Gutekunst to get his squad into the routine schemes and provide an opportunity to drills against the basic Clemson offense and defense.

Following workouts at home next week, Minnesota will fly to Shreveport Wednesday afternoon, and tentative plans call for one practice session there on Thursday. But firm plans along those lines have not as yet been made.

The time off since the Iowa finale should help the Golden Gophers mend physically for their bowl game against Clemson....and that includes junior defensive end Mark Dusbabek who missed the last couple of regular-season games with a strained knee.

Regular season statistics show that senior tailback Valdez Baylor wound up as Minnesota's leading rusher with a 5.9 average. He had 582 yards in 99 carries. Rickey Foggie, sophomore quarterback, was second with 451 in 127 carries. Senior fullback David Puk was third with 405 in 87, and he was not charged with ANY minus yardage this season.

Peter Najarian, senior linebacker, finished, for the third straight season, as Minnesota's top tackler. He had 133 total tackles including 58 unassisted tackles and 75 assists.

The Independence Bowl will mark Minnesota's fourth post-season football appearance. The Golden Gophers split in Rose Bowl assignments against Washington and UCLA, and they lost to Maryland in the Hall of Fame Bowl in their most recent try....1977.

Tickets, and space on charters, still are available through the U of M athletic ticket office. For complete information, phone (612) 373-3181.

MINNESOTA/METRODOME FINALISTS
TO HOST 1991 NCAA BASKETBALL FINAL FOUR

MINNEAPOLIS, December 10, 1985 -- The University of Minnesota and officials of the Humphrey Metrodome announced today that Minneapolis is one of two finalists to host the Final Four of the 1991 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship.

Paul Giel, director of the men's intercollegiate athletics department at the University of Minnesota, said he learned from NCAA officials Monday that Minneapolis and Indianapolis were the only remaining candidates to host the 1991 Final Four, March 30-April 1, 1991. Official confirmation is expected from the NCAA today.

A final determination will be made by the NCAA's basketball site selection committee in July, Giel said.

Jerry Bell, executive director of the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission, said that NCAA officials were "very impressed" with the Metrodome and the downtown Minneapolis area when they visited here last month.

That positive attitude toward Minneapolis continued last week in New Orleans, Bell said, when the selection committee convened to examine bids from six U.S. cities and their local host institutions.

Minnesota's bid was based upon a new basketball seating arrangement which provides for more than 36,000 seats when the Metrodome is set up for basketball.

"We showed them absolutely the worst seat we could find," Bell said, "and even from that seat, they were very impressed with the view of the floor. We looked all through the facility and even picked locations for post-game news conferences and pre-game buffets. They liked all the space we had to offer for both the fans and the national news media."

At a news conference, Bell unveiled a drawing, used in the Minnesota bid, which shows the basketball floor running along the first base line toward right field on the south end of the Metrodome.

Bell also showed members of the news media new cushioned seats the Commission has purchased for the basketball setup. The 6,600 new seats will debut March 14 and 16, 1986, when the University of Minnesota hosts the first and second rounds of the 1986 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship at the Metrodome.

Tickets for those games officially go on sale tomorrow, December 11.

Approximately 60,000 ticket brochures began going out today to University of Minnesota and Minnesota Viking season ticket holders. Gopher basketball season ticket holders will have a seating priority on seats ordered before December 31.

There will be a total of six games played in three two-game sessions: afternoon and evening sessions Friday, March 14; and an afternoon session Sunday, March 16. Ticket prices are $15 and $12 per session, and must be purchased in blocks for each of the three sessions. Per game or per session tickets are not available. Teams competing in the first and second rounds will be announced by the NCAA on Sunday, March 9.

Non-priority requests will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Persons desiring ticket information should call Midwest Ticket Corporation at 333-5577 to charge by phone locally (charge to Donaldsons, American Express, Master Card or VISA), or call 1-800-556-0033 within the state of Minnesota. Mail orders are also being taken by Midwest Ticket at P.O. Box 2205, Loop Station, Minneapolis, Minn. 55402. Mail orders should include $2 for postage and handling.

Ron Gornick, chairman of the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission, said that bringing an NCAA Final Four to Minneapolis is "a top priority."

"We learned from our experience with the Major League Baseball All-Star game this summer that we can handle the largest sporting events without a flaw. The beauty of the Final Four is that it focuses national attention on your area for three full days. The most recent estimates by communities that have hosted a Final Four show that it brings no less than $60 million into the host community," Gornick said.

University of Minnesota Basketball Coach Jim Dutcher said, "In terms of bringing attention to a community for an extended period of time, there is nothing like the NCAA Final Four. The Super Bowl is a great event, but it all happens on a single day. With the Final Four you have two days of basketball spread over three days. The host city also hosts the national convention of the National Association of Basketball Coaches at the same time, and Minneapolis is a very attractive place with its skyways, shopping convenience, first-class hotels and a facility less than five minutes away from the hotels."

ICERS ON ROAD TO NORTHEASTERN

Minneapolis, MN---Minnesota's hockey Gophers won twice last weekend, but in the process dropped from third to fifth place in this week's WCHA standings.

While the Gophers scored a home sweep over U.S. International, 4-1 and 9-1, Northern Michigan and Minnesota-Duluth moved past Minnesota in the standings.

Northern Michigan took two from Michigan Tech while Minnesota-Duluth split a home series with Colorado College to move into third and fourth places, respectively.

The Gophers are now in fifth place with a 10-4-0 league record, but have four games in hand over league-leading Denver (14-4-0), plus two games in hand over Wisconsin (11-5-0), Northern (11-5-0) and Duluth (10-5-1).

This weekend the Gophers place their 9-game winning streak and 14-4-0 overall record on the line with games Friday and Saturday in Boston against the Northeastern University Huskies. Both games will aired in the Twin Cities by KMFY-980AM radio.

Minnesota has not lost since dropping the first of two games at North Dakota back on November 15. In the nine games, Minnesota has come alive offensively scoring 57 goals. However, four wins and 25 of goals came in non-conference play against Illinois-Chicago and U.S. International.

Last Saturday's contest was Minnesota's first after exam week, a period when practice was, for the most part, optional for those whose could make it.

"We did not play all that well Saturday, and that was expected," says Gopher coach Doug Woog. "But you have to give credit to U.S. International and coach Brad Buetow. They formed a solid game plan and stayed with it.

"Naturally, I was happy to see us return to form in winning by a larger margin Sunday. It was interesting the way our players accepted men seeing their first action of the year in Sunday's game.

"It was somewhat like these new men had been in the lineup all season. It's also a credit to the players on our team that it doesn't really matter who is skating where. It's just get the job done, or business as usual."

Going east for the second time this year, Minnesota this weekend faces one of the stronger teams from that region.

"Northeastern is a good, solid team that plays a physical game," Woog continued. "They are awfully tough to beat on their own ice. Our performance out there will have to be very sharp if we intend to make any kind of move."

Asked how he felt about having games in hand on the teams above Minnesota in the standings, Woog said, "Games in hand are one thing. But to me, being solid in the loss column is more important.

"We have the same number of losses as Denver (4), and that's the lowest in the league. But to move up it doesn't mean anything how many games you have. It's how many you win regardless of when you play. That's what counts in the end."

Woog added that he will probably go with the same lineup used that last few series, but hinted there could also be a twist or two.

Freshman center Dave Snuggerud (Minnetonka) and senior wing Pat Micheletti (Hibbing) got in the Gopher record book last Sunday vs. USIU. Snuggerud scored Minnesota's first three goals of the 9-1 victory for his first hat trick.

But it was the time span, 3:56, that put Snuggerud in the book. The previous record for the fastest three goals by a Gopher skater was 4:56 by All-American John Mayasich against Michigan Tech back in 1953. Oh, Snuggerud added a fourth goal in the third period, too.

Micheletti tied a school mark held by four former UM players when he totaled five assists in Sunday's victory.

GOLDEN GOPHER CAGERS AT CONNECTICUT SATURDAY

Coach Jim Dutcher's University of Minnesota basketball team has its show on the road again this week for two more non-conference assignments including Saturday's 1:00 p.m. shootout with the University of Connecticut in Hartford.

That duel follows Tuesday's encounter against Marquette in Milwaukee and sets the stage for next week's final two non-conference games of the current campaign against Oklahoma State and Alcorn State in Williams Arena.

The Golden Gophers came into this week's competition with an overall record of 8-1 after posting their seventh straight triumph while completing a six-game home stand in beating Colorado State 62-59 at Williams Arena last Saturday night.

It was neither a picturesque nor impressive triumph for Minnesota which seemed to have turned the corner when whipping Arkansas in an earlier encounter.

"That was a step back for us," Coach Dutcher admitted. "But we should not be surprised. We had a poor week of practice, and we played like we practiced. We simply did not generate anything."

Because of that below-par effort, it took something extra from Mitch Lee, 6-9 sophomore forward, to bring Minnesota a winner. Lee had 18 points and seven rebounds to pace the Golden Gophers in both departments.

Co-captain Marc Wilson was next in line with 14 and five, but even the 6-1 senior was not at his best. "Wilson gave us some good spurts," Dutcher pointed out, "but not a total game at the level he's been playing."

Obviously Dutcher was distressed with the fact that Minnesota shot only 43% from the field, failed again to shoot well from the free throw line and was outrebounded 31-29 by a smaller club.

"We just did not prepare well, did not get ready for Colorado State," he analyzed, "but the important thing for us to realize is that we were able to win when we were not playing well."

So now it's the road, and Dutcher....as well as his charges....realize it will take something better to come home as winners with the calibre of competition getting better and better.

"We must get back to a better level of concentration than we had last week," Dutcher stressed. "Part of it was being involved in final exams, but it is more than than. We simply need a better effort this week. And it starts in practice."

Dutcher has always maintained that you can't look back, and he holds to that belief this week. "We can't grieve over our poor performance against Colorado State," he said. "We can only hope that we learned from it and go on from there." And that means Hartford and UCONN.
