BOLDER COMPLETES FIRST YEAR FOR MINNESOTA WOMEN'S SOCCER

Freshman forward Corinne Bolder recently completed her first season competing for the women's soccer team at the University of Minnesota.

Bolder, from Dale City, Va., was a second team all-Big Ten selection and was the Big Ten Player of the Week for Sept. 18, for her efforts. She played in all 23 matches, starting 21. Bolder scored 11 goals and 11 assists for 33 points, ranking her second on the team in scoring and assists and third on the team in goals.

On the Minnesota single season list, Bolder ranks second in assists, fifth in points and seventh in goals. She ranked third in the Big Ten and fifth in the Great Lakes Region in scoring and fifth in the region in assists.

Bolder set a Minnesota school record for scoring a point in seven consecutive matches. She also set a school record with teammate Jennifer Walek with seven points and three assists in a 10-0 victory over Northern Illinois on Sept. 10.

Minnesota finished the season with a 16-5-2 overall record and 5-0-1 Big Ten mark and ranked 17th in the country. The Gophers were the 1995 Big Ten Champions after defeating Wisconsin, 1-0, in the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. Minnesota also received its first-ever bid to the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament where the Gophers lost at Wisconsin, 1-0, in the first round. The Gophers are coached by Sue Montagne, 1995 Big Ten Coach of the Year. She has a 39-17-6 record as Minnesota's only women's soccer coach in three seasons.

WALEK RECEIVES NUMEROUS HONORS FOR 1995 WOMEN'S SOCCER SEASON

Junior forward Jennifer Walek was named the Big Ten Player of the Year and first team all-Big Ten for her contributions to the 1995 Minnesota women's soccer team.

Walek, a two-time first team all-Big Ten selection, led the Gophers in scoring this year with 16 goals and 18 assists for 50 points. She led the Big Ten in scoring and finished the season ranked 14th in the nation in scoring and second in the Great Lakes Region. Walek scored three game-winning goals for Minnesota. She set the Minnesota and Big Ten single season record for most assists and is tied for third in the nation in assists.

A Lake Elmo native, Walek also set a school record with teammate Corinne Bolder for most points in a match at seven and most assists in a match with three. The record was set in a 10-0 victory against Northern Illinois on Sept. 10. Walek was named Big Ten Player of the Week for her efforts and Minnesota Women's Athletics' September Athlete of the Month.

Walek was also named to the Academic All-Big Ten team for the second straight year with a 3.26 GPA in nursing.

The Gophers' all-time leading scorer, Walek has 52 goals and 33 assists for 137 points. She has started all 62 matches in the Gophers' three-year history.

Minnesota finished the season with a 16-5-2 overall record and 5-0-1 Big Ten mark and ranked 17th in the country. The Gophers were the 1995 Big Ten Champions after defeating Wisconsin, 1-0, in the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. Minnesota also received its first-ever bid to the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament where the Gophers lost at Wisconsin, 1-0, in the first round. The Gophers are coached by Sue Montagne, 1995 Big Ten Coach of the Year. She has a 39-17-6 record as Minnesota's only women's soccer coach in three seasons.

BRANDT FINISHED MINNESOTA WOMEN'S SOCCER CAREER

Senior forward Gretchen Brandt finished a stellar women's soccer career at the University of Minnesota this season.

After starting the first two matches of the season, Brandt had two sit out two games due to an ankle injury. She played in 21 matches, starting five. She scored 13 goals for 26 points and scored all three-game winning goals at the Big Ten Tournament. Brandt scored the only goal in a 1-0 victory over Wisconsin in the championship match of the Big Ten Tournament. She ranks fifth in goals and eighth in points on the Minnesota single season lists. Brandt ranked sixth in the Big Ten in scoring.

A native of Shoreview, Minn., Brandt was named to the Big Ten all-academic team for the second straight year. An elementary education, she carries a 3.88 GPA.

Brandt, a member of the inaugural Minnesota women's soccer team, ended her career with 35 goals and nine assists for 79 points. She is the Gophers second all-time leading scorer and second in goals scored while playing in 60 matches. Brandt had two hat tricks and seven game-winning goals.

Minnesota finished the season with a 16-5-2 overall record and 5-0-1 Big Ten mark and ranked 17th in the country. The Gophers were the 1995 Big Ten Champions after defeating Wisconsin, 1-0, in the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. Minnesota also received its first-ever bid to the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament where the Gophers lost at Wisconsin, 1-0, in the first round. The Gophers are coached by Sue Montagne, 1995 Big Ten Coach of the Year. She has a 39-17-6 record as Minnesota's only women's soccer coach in three seasons.

DINGLER COMPLETES FIRST YEAR FOR MINNESOTA WOMEN'S SOCCER

Junior defender Kari Dingler recently completed her first season competing for the women's soccer team at the University of Minnesota.

Dingler, from Burnsville, Minn., played in 11 matches this season. She recorded two assists, one in a 10-0 win over Northern Illinois on Sept. 10, and one in a 3-2 overtime win against Michigan State on Sept. 22.

Minnesota finished the season with a 16-5-2 overall record and 5-0-1 Big Ten mark and ranked 17th in the country. The Gophers were the 1995 Big Ten Champions after defeating Wisconsin, 1-0, in the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. Minnesota also received its first-ever bid to the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament where the Gophers lost at Wisconsin, 1-0, in the first round. The Gophers are coached by Sue Montagne, 1995 Big Ten Coach of the Year. She has a 39-17-6 record as Minnesota's only women's soccer coach in three seasons.
