FIAMENGO COMPLETES JUNIOR SEASON WITH MINNESOTA VOLLEYBALL

(Minneapolis, Minn.) — Junior outside hitter Tara Fiamengo completed a successful season as a Gopher volleyball player, appearing in 24 of Minnesota's 30 matches this season.

Fiamengo's season started slowly but heated up mid-season. After recording 18 kills in the first 11 matches she played in, she posted consecutive matches of six, 10 and eight kills in three matches. She had 14 kills against Indiana and in the next-to-last match of the season, recorded a career-high 22 kills against Wisconsin. Fiamengo hit .486 in that match, recording just four errors in 37 attempts.

Fiamengo also recorded a career-high 15 digs against Penn State. She closed out the season with a 2.13 kills per game and 1.35 digs per game average. She posted 13 block assists and three block solos during the season.

A graduate of St. Anthony High School, Fiamengo was named to the all-Big Ten academic team in 1995.

The 1995 University of Minnesota volleyball team finished the season with a 13-17 overall record and 7-13 Big Ten mark for an eighth place conference finish. The Gophers got off to a good start in 1995, posting upset victories over #14 Texas in the Rainbow Wahine Classic and #22 Georgia in the BYU Mizuno Invitational. The Big Ten season was a road of ups and downs for Minnesota, as a midseason slump resulted in a six-match losing streak before the season ended with five victories in the last eight matches.
