

LETTER BAG

This letter bag is for everything you need to write a letter. You can have it with you on a trip or by your desk at home.

1. Use the bottom of cut off pants or pajamas.

Measure 5 inches from the bottom.

— Bottom of pants

2. Sew cut edge together.

You can sew with yarn and a big needle or embroidery thread to make it colorful.

3. Sew snaps on the other end -- in the inside.

Be careful that the snaps are across from each other.

Circle other things that can fit into this bag:

Elephant; jacks & ball; deck of cards; shoes.

4. Cut colored paper 4 inches by 6 inches.

Fold along the long way.

(It can be bigger like 6" x 6")

5. (Your address)

Put stamp on outside of fold.

(Your friend's address)

These are your letter cards. You write the letter on the inside and back.

This archival publication may not reflect current scientific knowledge or recommendations.
Current information available from University of Minnesota Extension: <http://www.extension.umn.edu>.

6. The address book is for the names and addresses of people you write to.

Cut a paper cover 4" x 6". Cut lined papers 4" x 6".

The lined paper goes on top of the paper cover, then fold over.

Staple the top.

Cut notches in papers so you can see where the names are. Put in names and addresses of people you write to.

Will this make it easier and faster to write a letter to your friends?

Yes

No

Authors: Mary Frances Lamison, extension specialist, home management; Sherie Mentzer, curriculum coordinator, 4-H and Youth Development; and Juanita Reed, extension specialist, 4-H and Youth Development.

Issued in furtherance of cooperative extension work in agriculture and home economics, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Roland H. Abraham, Director of Agricultural Extension Service, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota 55108. We offer our programs and facilities to all people without regard to race, creed, color, sex, or national origin.