The following resolution was adopted by the Board:

RESOLUTION

Sheldon V. Wood

Sheldon V. Wood, whose death on May 31, 1959, brought sadness to the entire community, had special contacts with the University of Minnesota that covered most of the years of his active and richly productive life.

He was sixteen years old when he enrolled at the University as a student. He completed his professional studies and graduated from the College of Engineering.

His children also attended the University.

Then, in 1939, he became a member of the Board of Regents, a post he held until 1953.

Of these contacts with the institution he so deeply loved and respected, Sheldon Wood once wrote: "They have indeed been a wonderful experience, and for them I am truly grateful." It was his expressed desire to render such service as a Regent "as will, to some extent at least, repay a great debt which I feel I owe to the University of Minnesota."

During fourteen years of conscientious and devoted service as a member of the Board, Sheldon Wood did, it would be agreed by all who knew him, repay that debt. His interests as a Regent were many, and his own wide experience in the fields of business and engineering, made his contributions to Board thought and action particularly significant and valuable. His concern with the problems of engineering education were ever evident, and he was held in sincere respect by all who turned to him for advice and guidance. He himself found deep satisfaction in the part he played, as a member of the Board's special committee, in selecting the present president of the University.

Sheldon Wood loved his association with the University, and he became, with passing years as a member of the Board, constantly more conscious of the part the University played in the life of the people of the state. "One does not have to serve long on the Board of Regents," he said, "to realize that citizens generally, of all classes and levels, from both city and rural districts, have a real and sincere interest in the University; and it augurs well for our commonwealth that they speak of it as 'Our University.'"

In everything that he did in meeting his responsibilities as a Regent, Sheldon Wood manifested the same sharp, clear qualities of mind that made him so valuable a member of the total community. He was, indeed, motivated by the highest of civic—as well as personal—principles, and these guided him in all the many and varied public services that he undertook.

The Regents of the University of Minnesota are uniquely conscious of all that Sheldon V. Wood meant to the University, and they recognize the debt that they, as fellow Board members, owe to him for his manifold contributions to the on-going of the institution. They recognize, too, what those contributions and service meant to the people of the state as a whole. In Sheldon Wood, they enjoyed an association that was most rewarding. He was a respected colleague, and more than that, a loyal and good friend.

All of this they wish to express by a formal action, and they now resolve that this statement concerning their friend and colleague be made a part of the permanent records of the Board of Regents and of the University; and that a copy of it, together with their expression of profound sympathy, be sent to Mrs. Wood and the members of the Wood family.
