Voted to refer to the President, with the request that a report be made at a subsequent meeting, the question of a separate college of Business Education or School of Commerce.

The President reported the action of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Foundation establishing January 1, 1920, as the date when associated institutions (including the University of Minnesota) must indicate their intention of accepting the new privileges of the Foundation, including disability allowances, under the contributory system, and it was Voted that acceptance could not be approved at this time.

A request that the University join in a petition for exemption from inheritance taxation on bequests was favorably considered. It was, however,

Voted to defer action for the present.

The following resolution was adopted and the President was directed to send copies to each of the co-executors of the estate of the late Mr. W. J. Murphy:

In recognition of the announced bequest of the late Mr. W. J. Murphy, owner and publisher of the Minneapolis Tribune, placing in trust a part of his estate in a fund which in his will he requests shall be known as the "W. J. Murphy Endowment Fund for a School of Journalism," the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota wishes to express its high appreciation of Mr. Murphy's interest in the profession of journalism and the business of newspaper publication, and of his confidence in the University as the institution best fitted to carry out his purposes for the advancement of his profession and of the newspapers of the state and the nation.

In expressing such appreciation, the Board of Regents would add that the University already has developed plans for the creation, as rapidly as circumstances will permit, of a Department of Journalism to cooperate with the editors and publishers of Minnesota in advancing still further the already large usefulness of their profession; also, that these plans are now in process of execution.

The Regents, therefore, would assure the family of the late Mr. Murphy and the trustees of his estate, in so far as such assurance may be given at this time, that, with the foundations which are now being laid, the memorial for which Mr. Murphy so generously provided should enable the University to create a department completely effective and fully worthy of Mr. Murphy's purpose to perform a lasting service to the profession of journalism.

A communication from Senator Knute Nelson with reference to procuring German super-guns for the University was read and ordered placed on file.

A communication from the University of North Dakota giving statistical information regarding alumni of the Law School of the University of Minnesota was received and it was Voted to publish the statistics in the University of Minnesota Official Daily Bulletin.

Voted to adopt the following statement of the duties of the Registrar:

1. To determine the qualifications of students for admission to all departments of the University.

2. To determine the amount of fees to be paid by each student.

3. To enforce regulations in regard to payment of the same and determine refunds.

4. To supervise the registration of all students and submit to the instructors the only evidence of the students' right to attend class.

5. To receive from each instructor the term grades of his students, properly to record same, and issue transcripts of such records to the students.

6. To ascertain and report whether the records of candidates for degrees show them to be entitled to graduation.

7. To compile and edit such publications as:

- a. Bulletin of General Information.

- b. University Address Book.

- c. Information for New Students.

- d. The Annual Register.

- e. Communications to high schools and other preparatory schools.

- 10. To act as Secretary of the University Senate.
- 11. To act as Secretary of the Committee of Business and Rules of the Senate.

12. To act as Secretary of the University in charge of all communications not addressed to specific persons.

In the performance of his duties he is directly responsible to the President.

Voted that the women students of the College of Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics be required to pay the same fee as the Shevlin Hall fee, that the funds collected be credited to a separate budget and be available for equipment of one of the rooms in the Home Economics Building on the University Farm Campus as a women's rest and recreation room.

Voted to approve the following scale of refundment of tuition fees:

Period of attendance	Percentage of deduction	Percentage of refund
None .....	None	100
Two days to one week.....	10	90
One week to two weeks .....	20	80
