NTS homeAcademic and Distributed Computing Services*SPECIAL OFFERS FROM SPRINT, T-MOBILE AVAILABLE.

University of Minnesota students, faculty, and staff have access to great deals on wireless devices and service plans from Sprint and T-Mobile. Order online at www.umart.umn.edu, and take advantage of special plans developed just for the U of M.

ADCS homeREMINDER: NOVELL SUPPORT WANING.

As Central Active Directory has been deployed at the University, Novell Netware server usage has dropped sharply. As a result, OIT no longer will provide technical support for Novell systems after Monday, December 1. Departments wishing to continue using Novell systems should find alternate service hosting. OIT is committed to smooth departmental migration to Central Active Directory, offering guides, training, and assistance throughout the process. Questions should be directed to umnad@umn.edu. For more information, visit www.umn.edu/umnad.

WEBMAIL PRO, 3.0 DECOMMISSIONING REMINDER.

WebMail Pro and WebMail 3.0 are scheduled to be decommissioned July 1. GopherMail will continue as a Web-based e-mail application for central e-mail accounts and can be found at www.mail.umn.edu. Your U of M e-mail account will remain the same and your e-mail address will not change. Any e-mail located in WebMail Pro/3.0 also is available in GopherMail. WebMail Pro for non-central systems mail used by department e-mail servers also will be decommissioned. Questions and comments should be sent to webmail@umn.edu.

MICROSOFT E-LEARNING: ON DEMAND AT NO CHARGE.

Learn specific skills for Microsoft Windows and Office at your own pace: Excel, PowerPoint, Project, Word, Visio, Outlook, and more. The self-paced learning environment includes a variety of multimedia tools such as video, simulation, games, hands-on labs, and self-assessments.
