"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The performance may not be as polished as those in recent years, but when the young University of Minnesota football squad "chooses up sides" and squares away for the annual spring practice windup intra-squad game May 11 in Memorial Stadium, the head-knocking will be something to make the folks up in row 52 wince a bit.

The football game will highlight the triple attraction Spring Sports Day at the University. First item on the day's full program is a double-header baseball game between Indiana and Minnesota starting at 11 a.m. The Gopher track and field squad makes its only home dual meet appearance of the season against Wisconsin starting at 12:30. The football game follows at 2:00 p.m.

Because of the graduation of 20 lettermen, including 10 starters, from the 1962 Big Ten runnerup squad all positions excepting tackle are wide open. At no time in Murray Warmath's 10 seasons at Minnesota has the competition for starting jobs and a place on the potential "travel squad" of 38 men been so keen. The result is a highly-spirited contest between the 11 lettering reserves participating in spring practice, a dozen non-lettering reserves, and about the same number of "graduates" of the 1962 freshman squad.

The three-way battle at center between Frank Marchlewski who played 50 minutes last fall as a sophomore, Joe Pung who clocked 83 minutes in relief of Paul Benson, and Paul Faust who sat out the '62 season because of injuries has particularly drawn Warmath's attention. Despite the lack of experience here, Warmath is confident that from this three-way fight will come a good solid, Big Ten type center with adequate depth behind him. Faust, the former Edina high backfield star, has made tremendous improvement this spring.

Adult general admission tickets admitting to the baseball game, track meet, and football game will be on sale at $1.00 at Cooke Hall, the Downtown Ticket Office in the North Star Center, and the Field - Schlick ticket office, St. Paul until 4:00 p.m. Friday.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - After a split in six successive road games, the University of Minnesota baseball team enters its first home stand of the Big Ten campaign this weekend with a single contest against pace-setting Ohio State Friday and a double-header against last-place Indiana Saturday.

The Buckeye tilt starts at 3:30 p.m. while the Hoosier twin bill gets underway at 11 a.m. as a part of the University's annual Spring Sports Day. Both contests are to be played at Delta Field.

Coach Dick Siebert is mildly encouraged by his team's performance in the first two weeks of conference competition. "We play six of our remaining nine games at home which should give us a pretty good crack at a first division finish," he declares. "I'm generally pleased with what we've done so far. It's hard to complain too loudly when you break even in six straight Big Ten road games."

Pitching and fielding have been the most encouraging aspects of Gopher conference play to date, batting the most disappointing. "We need more hitting, especially from our outfielders," Siebert warns. The Gopher outfield, as a unit, hit only .194 against Michigan State and Michigan last weekend.

The hurtling of Fulton Weckman and Glen Holzemer featured Gopher victories over State and Michigan. Holzemer, in particular, was effective as he tossed a four-hitter against the defending Big Ten and NCAA champion Wolverines. He didn't yield a single earned run and gave up just one base on balls. Relievers Jerry Johnson and John Stephens also showed to good advantage.

Even more encouraging has been the Gophers' generally excellent defensive play. "We've been a little better in the field than I'd expected," Siebert admits. Third baseman Mike Mulligan and shortstop Duane Markus, both considered question marks before the Big Ten season got underway, have held up well defensively, and second baseman Jon Andresen made his first error of the year last Saturday after 22 straight games without a miscue.

Steve Wally continues to lead the Gophers in hitting with a .356 mark despite a recent slump. Andresen and Jim Botten follow with .342 and .304 respectively. Holzemer (4-2) has the best earned run average among the pitchers with 1.90. Weckman (4-0) has 2.25 and Ron Buhrt (4-2) 2.70.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - While experienced material is just about the scarcest item on the University of Minnesota football squad these days, most of what is available will be on the side of the Maroon squad for Saturday's spring practice windup intra-squad game scheduled for 2:00 p.m. in Memorial Stadium. This was revealed today as coach Murray Warmath announced probable lineups for the "Maroons" and the "Whites."

The game which will conclude Warmath's 10th spring football practice at Minnesota will climax Spring Sports Day at the University. It leads off with the Minnesota - Indiana baseball doubleheader at 11:00 a.m. followed by the Wisconsin-Minnesota dual track meet in Memorial Stadium at 12:30.

Of the 12 returning lettermen who have been available to Warmath and his staff for spring practice, nine will be in the starting lineup for the "Maroons." They are Captain Milt Sunde, left tackle, Willie Costanza, left guard, Frank Marchlewski, center, Casey Fron, right guard, Carl Eller, right tackle, Paul Ramseth, quarterback, Bill Crockett, left half, Bill McMillan, right half, and Jay Sharp, fullback. The starting ends -- Dan Drexler and Dick Bassett -- were non-lettering reserves in 1962.

The "Whites" lineup will be a blend of sophomores and 1962 reserves. Newcomers who will appear in starting roles are Aaron Brown and Kent Kramer, ends, Tom Kinsella, left tackle, and Roger Bonk, right guard. The backfield will have Bob Sadek at quarterback, Kraig Lofquist at left half, Stan Skjei at right half, and Mike Reid at fullback.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The University of Minnesota track and field squad, in making its final home dual meet appearance under the coaching of Jim Kelly, faces the toughest competition to be found in the Big Ten Conference this spring. It's a talent-laden University of Wisconsin squad that will be an odds-on favorite to win the Conference outdoor championships in Memorial Stadium just one week later.

The Badger-Gopher meeting will be the 42nd outdoor dual clash in the long rivalry. Scheduled to start at 12:30, the meet will be a feature of the University of Minnesota's triple-attraction Spring Sports Day which opens with the Minnesota - Indiana baseball doubleheader at 11:00 a.m. and concludes with the spring football practice windup intra-squad at 2:00 p.m.

The Wisconsin all-star track and field cast is headed by husky Elmars Ezerins, Big Ten defending champion in both the shot put and the discus. Ezerins heaved the shot 57 feet 3 inches in the Milwaukee Journal Games earlier this spring to indicate that he is in prime condition for his title defense. Another ace is Bill Holden who owns the Conference indoor high jump record at 6 feet 10 inches. Holden is considered a prime prospect for the United States Olympic track and field team.

Heading a speedy corps of sprinters is football halfback Louis Holland who was clocked in 9.6 for the 100-yard dash last Saturday as the Badgers swamped arch-rival Iowa 83-57. In so doing they gained a measure of revenge for the upset whereby the Hawkeyes edged Wisconsin for the 1962 Big Ten indoor laurels. Three Badgers, crippled and out of action at that time, are now back in top shape.

Field events in Saturday's meet will start at 12:00.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - An interesting study in contrasts will be afforded by the four top fullbacks who will be battling for the first team spot next fall in the spring practice windup intra-squad game at 2:00 p.m. Saturday in Memorial Stadium.

Jay Sharp, 193-pound junior from Winston - Salem, North Carolina and the only letterman in the group is a flashy, fleet-footed runner who hits his openings quickly and can go all the way, as he did on a 52-yard touchdown burst against Northwestern last fall.

Mike Reid, stocky 196-pound senior from Spring Valley, Wisconsin was a place-kicking specialist until suffering a fractured arm midway in the '62 season. He is an unspectacular, bull-dozer type who rushes with grim determination. He is the most polished player in the group. During a recent workout Coach Murray Warmath admonished the other fullback prospects, "You should watch Mike Reid to see how a handoff should be executed."

Gail Gillingham, 220-pound, 6 foot 3 inch newcomer, from Little Falls, is a rangy, raw-boned eye-catcher. His play in last Saturday's intra-squad scrimmage caused one veteran observer to comment, "Maybe we've got another Bill Daley coming along here." Gillingham generates crushing momentum and keeps pumping for extra feet and inches until he is pinned. He also likes to play defense and tackles with authority. The Minnesota coaching staff regards him as a definite "two-way" prospect.

Bryan Magnuson, powerfully-built 210-pound sophomore-to-be from Hopkins, is a power runner who is tough to knock off his feet. He will burst from the grasp and continue for gains after it appears that he has been stopped. As they say in football circles, "He runs with good balance."

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Dick Siebert's University of Minnesota baseball team will face the Big Ten's most explosive attack in its conference home opener Friday afternoon when it entertains league-leading Ohio State at 3:30 p.m.

Minnesota also plays last-place Indiana in a twin bill Saturday starting at 11 a.m.

The Buckeyes, who have won five in a row after dropping their conference opener to Wisconsin, lead the Big Ten in hitting with a lusty .304 team average. They also are the pace setters in total bases with 77 and are tied with Michigan State for the lead in homers with four.

In contrast to Ohio's batting success, Minnesota (3-3) has the second lowest team average with .219. Only Indiana (.189) has a lower mark. The Buckeyes and Gophers are third and fourth respectively in fielding and Minnesota's 10 double plays lead the conference in that department by a wide margin.

Two Buckeyes, John Machado and Arnie Chonko, are among the individual hitting leaders. Machado has the league's best average (.563) and leads in homers (3) and RBI (11). Chonko ranks sixth in hitting with a .444 mark. Gopher lefthanded hurler Fulton Weckman will draw the chore of trying to silence these southpaw swingers.

The only Gopher among the top Big Ten batters is Capt. Jon Andresen who is 20th with a .304 average.

Ohio State also has an excellent pitching staff with three hurlers undefeated in conference play. They are Dave Strazenski (2-0), Joe Sparma (2-0) and Ken Hay (1-0).

The Hoosiers record is nearly the reverse of that of the Buckeyes. They have a 1-5 won-loss mark and rank last in both hitting and fielding. Despite these lowly credentials, they do boast a fine pitcher in Dave Granger, a big, rangy lefthander, who has a brilliant 0.56 earned run average for 16 innings.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The sideline sages are predicting one of the snuggest team title battles in many years when the cream of the Western Conference track and field athletes assemble at the University of Minnesota's Memorial Stadium May 17-18 for the 63rd annual Conference outdoor championships.

Wisconsin which has not taken home the team trophy since 1931, and Iowa which is in quest of first outdoor crown rate as slight favorites on the basis of performances this spring. However, perennially-strong Michigan, seeking its third win in a row, must also be reckoned with. The Hawkeyes surprised by edging Wisconsin for the 1963 indoor championship. Last week the Badgers gained a measure of revenge by overwhelming Iowa 83 - 57 in a dual meet at Madison. Both teams have several outstanding performers.

On paper, at least, Wisconsin appears to have the edge in depth and balance, as indicated by the following list of outdoor "best performances" by the key Badger athletes to date this spring:

Mile Run - 4:20.1, by Don Loker, April 16;
440 - 47.8 secs., by Elzie Higginbottom, May 4;
100 - 9.6 secs., by Louis Holland, May 4;
120 HH - 14.4 secs., by Steve Muller, May 4;
330 Intermediate Hurdles - 38.6 secs., by Al Montalbano, May 4;
Two Mile - 9:45.3, by Steve Tullberg, April 16;
High Jump - 6 ft. 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches, by Bill Holden, April 16;
Broad Jump - 22 ft. 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches, by Doug Pride, May 4;

Pole Vault - 14 ft. by Jim Nelson, May 4;

Discus - 159 ft. 7 inches, Elmars Ezering, May 4;

Shot Put - 54 ft. 3 inches, Don Hendrickson, May 4;

Iowa hopes to offset this imposing array with the individual brilliance of its middle-distance aces -- Roger Kerr, 440 and 660-yard runs; Bill Frazier, co-holder of the Big Ten 880-yard record at 1:50.1; and Gary Fischer who has a 41:4.3 outdoor mile to his credit so far this spring. The Iowa one mile relay team of Kerr, Fischer, Scott Hollingsworth, and Scott Rocker will be a top-heavy favorite in the Conference meet. Hollingsworth is the 1963 Big Ten indoor champ at 440 yards.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - "We've got as good a chance as anyone for the Big Ten title as things stand now."

That's how Coach Dick Siebert sums up his University of Minnesota baseball team's prospects after last weekend's weird happenings in the conference diamond war. There are no fewer than five teams, including the Gophers, deadlocked for second place with 5-4 records just a half game behind league-leading Iowa (5-3).

"I can't recall ever seeing the conference so bunched up this late in the season," Siebert points out. "Actually any of nine teams has a chance at the championship and right now there's no clear favorite."

The Gophers opponents for this weekend, Wisconsin and Northwestern, both have 4-4 records to rank just a half game out of the traffic jam in second. Ninth-place Michigan State (3-5) is still in contention, too.

"I'd say the strange situation we have can be attributed to better balance," Siebert declares. "I don't think the conference is weak. Michigan is the tip-off on that as far as I'm concerned. They won the NCAA championship last year and lost only two men who figured very highly in their success. If they can only manage a 5-4 record, the league must be pretty tough."

Minnesota returns to the road with a single game with Wisconsin at Madison Friday and a doubleheader with Northwestern at Evanston Saturday.

The Gophers muffed a chance to tie for the lead when they dropped the first game of a twin bill to last-place Indiana last Saturday. They had outlasted then league-leading Ohio State 11-9 the day before and went on to take the Saturday nightcap 8-3 from the Hoosiers.

Improved Gopher hitting was the key to the successful weekend. "We worked on hitting all last week," Siebert explains. "I plan more of the same for this week."

Gopher outfielders led by John Oster and Ron Wojciak helped spark the improved performance at the plate which produced a .275 team average for the three games as compared with .219 in the first six conference contests.

"Our pitching and fielding have been holding up pretty well," Siebert says. "Buhrt (Ron) and Holzemer (Glen) pitched good ball against Indiana and Joe Pollack earned himself a starting job by giving up just one earned run in five innings against the Buckeyes. He struck out 11 batters in the process.

Buhrt is likely to get the starting call Friday against the Badgers while Pollack and Holzemer are expected to divide the mound chores against the Wildcats.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Two of the most exciting of all track and field events -- the 100 and 220 - yard dashes -- promise some real fireworks in the Western Conference Track and Field Championships Friday and Saturday in the University of Minnesota's Memorial Stadium.

Nate Adams, the Purdue University speedster who will be defending champion in both events has already this spring equalled the Conference record for the "hundred" with a blazing 9.4 performance and has bettered the "two-twenty" mark of :21.1 with a sensational :20.7 timing in a dual meet against Michigan on May 4.

While Adams is obviously in fine trim to defend his laurels, these two sprint races are not going to be a one-man show by any means. Trenton Jackson of Illinois, a record-breaking sprinter as a Rochester, New York schoolboy but even more famed for his prowess as a football halfback, has equalled Adams' 9.4 in the 100-yard dash and has a :21.1 time to his credit for the 220-yard sprint.

Coach Fran Dittrich of Michigan State is grooming sophomore Bob Moreland for a showdown with Adams, Jackson, and others who will compete in the crack field of sprinters. Already Moreland, a tall, slender flyer, is being hailed as the best sprinter in State's history. Hewas unbeaten indoors this winter and captured the Conference 60-yard dash title in a record-tying :06.1. Outdoors Moreland has been officially clocked in 9.5 for the 100-yard stretch and at :21.5 for the 220-yard dash. Michigan State's "stable" of sprinters also includes Sherm Lewis, standout football halfback who last year as a sophomore chased Adams across the finish line in both the 100 and 220-yard events.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Pace-setting Illinois invades Delta Field Friday for a crucial game with Minnesota as one of the most unpredictable Big Ten baseball races in history nears its climax.

The Gophers (7-5) still have robust title aspirations and can grab at least a share of the crown with a successful performance against the Illini (8-4) and Purdue's Boilermakers (5-7) coupled with at least one Iowa loss.

The Hawkeyes (7-4), currently running second, entertain Illinois in a twin bill Saturday. Three other teams -- Ohio State (7-5), Wisconsin and Michigan (both 6-5), also retain pennant hopes. The Buckeyes have what should be the easiest task. They take on last-place Indiana (3-8) at Bloomington in a three-game series. Wisconsin and Michigan tangle in an elimination bargain bill at Ann Arbor Saturday. The Wolverines play host to Northwestern in a single game Friday while the Badgers travel to Michigan State.

"We're going to do everything possible to win it," says Gopher Coach Dick Siebert. Drawing Illinois here Friday gives us a perfect opportunity. It's squarely up to us and, of course, a little help at Iowa City."

The wild Big Ten flag chase discarded the pre-season form book long ago. Neither Illinois nor Iowa were considered contenders back in April. Siebert didn't think his team was likely to finish in the first division. Since then the supposed powers -- defending Big Ten and NCAA champion Michigan, Ohio State and Wisconsin -- have all taken their lumps although staying in contention.

Minnesota lost its chance for a share of first place last Friday by losing 6-5 to Wisconsin on the strength of a "wrong-field" ninth-inning homer by sophomore Joe Romary, his first as a collegiate player.

The Gophers came back with a vengeance Saturday, however, drubbing Northwestern 12-2 and 17-2 with a 26-hit barrage. This lusty hitting coupled with excellent pitching by senior Glen Holzemer and sophomore Joe Pollack gives Siebert hope for a fine all-out effort this weekend.

Holzemer will get the starting assignment against the Illini while Pollack and Ron Buhrt will pitch against the Boilermakers. Holzemer paces the Gopher hurling staff with a sparkling 1.89 earned run average. He has won six and lost two overall and is 3-1 in the conference.

Leading last weekend's hitting assault was Capt. Jon Andresen who collected eight hits in 14 trips. Veteran catcher Steve Wally joined the hit parade by shaking off his slump with six for 10. Outfielder John Oster also wielded a potent bat, connecting for a grand-slam homer against the Cats.

Andresen continues to lead Gopher batsman with a season's mark of .381 followed by Wally with .333 and Oster with .319.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - It will be one of the Big Ten's top pitching staffs against the league's second best hitting club when first-place Illinois invades Delta Field Friday for a vital game with third-place Minnesota.

The contest, scheduled for 3:30 p.m., will inaugurate a crucial weekend which could end with either the Gophers (7-5) or the Illini (8-4) or both in the conference winner's circle. Purdue (5-7) provides the opposition for Minnesota Saturday with a doubleheader at Delta starting at 1 p.m.

Other teams still in the running for the conference crown are Iowa (7-4), Ohio State (7-5), Wisconsin (7-5) and Michigan (7-5).

Illinois' hurling corps boasts the second-best earned run average in the league -- 2.64 -- as compared to Michigan's top mark of 2.57. Minnesota's .273 batting average is inferior only to Wisconsin's leading .275. The Gophers lead in runs with 73 and RBI with 62. They are tied for third in fielding with the Badgers. Illinois ranks fifth in hitting and seventh in the field.

Leading the talented Illini hurlers is Jerry Weygandt, the Big Ten's winningest pitcher. He has won all four of his starts, going the route in each one and allowing just six earned runs for an ERA of 1.59.

Top Illinois hitter is outfielder Tony Provenzano who is tied for eleventh with a .333 mark followed by Shortstop Bob Belsole (.317).

Purdue is paced at the plate by first baseman Mel Garland (.333) and second sacker Tom Pugh (.302). The Boilermakers, who were very much in the running for the championship until dropping three to the Illini last week, also have a good pitching staff, paced by Al Rezabek (2-1) and 2.05 ERA in the conference and 5-1 and 1.17 ERA overall.

Leading the Gophers' recent batting splurge are Capt. Jon Andresen who ranks third in the conference with a .404 average. Other top Minnesota hitters in conference play are Mike Mulligan (.333), John Oster (.310) and Gary Raasch (.306).

Glen Holzemer ranks among the league leaders in pitching with a 3-1 mark and a 1.50 ERA in 33 1/3 innings. Reliever John Stephens has a 0.96 ERA in 9 1/3 innings.

Robert (Bob) Bateman, 21-year old senior from International Falls, Minnesota was named the University of Minnesota's 49th winner of the Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor at the annual "M" Club banquet Wednesday night in Coffman Union. The presentation was made by Max O. Schultze, Minnesota's faculty representative.

Bateman, a star in football, basketball, and track at Falls High, earned three basketball letters at Minnesota as a varsity guard. He is majoring in Electrical Engineering, a course in which he carries a 3.6 ("A") four-year average. He will receive his B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering August 24. With the start of fall quarter Bob will start work on his M.S.E. degree in Mechanics and Materials. Because of his outstanding classroom work, he has been awarded a teaching assistantship for the 1963 - 64 school year.

Bateman was a regular guard on the 1962-63 Gopher basketball team which finished fourth in the Conference race. Coach John Kundla characterizes Bob as "The best defensive player I've coached at Minnesota.....a real hustler and great competitor.....conscientious and a coach's delight."

Bateman lives in Pioneer Hall men's dormitory on campus during the school year.

Marshall W. Ryman, athletic director-elect of the University of Minnesota, announced today that he has selected Shirley Mae Korblick to succeed him in the post of athletic ticket manager at The University which he will relinquish when he takes over the directorship on July 1 as successor to retiring director Ike Armstrong.

Miss Korblick, 35-year old native of Minneapolis and Vocational high school graduate in 1945 with a business certificate, has been employed by The University since 1944 when she worked part time while attending high school. She joined the athletic ticket office staff in July, 1945, meanwhile taking two quarters of work in the College of Science, Literature, and the Arts at Minnesota. Miss Korblick began full-time work in the athletic ticket office July 1, 1948 and was assigned to miscellaneous payroll. The following year she took over duties in connection with the regular payroll. She has successively held the classifications of clerk, senior clerk, principal clerk, and senior cashier.

Miss Korblick resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Korblick, at 2122 N. E. Grand Street, Minneapolis.

It is believed that Minnesota's new athletic ticket manager is the first woman to hold this position at a Big Ten Conference member school. There are three women holding comparable posts in Pacific Coast institutions. They are Mrs. Roe Baldwin, ticket manager, University of California at Los Angeles; Mrs. Margery Powell, athletic ticket manager, College of the Pacific; Miss Eunice Du Prau, ticket manager, Stanford University.

In announcing her appointment, Mr. Ryman has this to say of his long-time associate: "Miss Korblick knows the athletic ticket business inside and out. She is an extremely efficient and conscientious worker. We received many compliments from throughout the Big Ten Conference area for the manner in which this office handled tickets for both of Minnesota's Rose Bowl football game appearances. Miss Korblick was mainly responsible for this operation. I am confident that she will do an outstanding job."

MINNEAPOLIS. - Appointment of James L. Schleisman, 24, as an assistant to Shirley Korblick, University of Minnesota Athletic Ticket Manager, was announced by Miss Korblick today.

Schleisman succeeds Edor Brostrom who left the Athletic Department recently. He is a native of Minneapolis and a former hockey coach at De La Salle High School.

No stranger to the Athletic Department operation, Schleisman has worked there on a part-time basis for the past five years, including duties in connection with the Ticket Office, while attending classes at the University.

A numeral-winner as a wing, on the 1957-58 University freshman hockey team, Schleisman coached the ice sport at De La Salle during the 1960 and '61 seasons, directing the Islanders to third place in the 1960 State Private School Invitational Tournament, including a 2-0 upset of a strong Blake team.

Schleisman attended South High School, winning letters in football, hockey and baseball. He served six months active duty with the army Reserve in 1961 and is currently a member of the active reserve.

In addition to his ticket office duties, Schleisman intends to complete his University education by attending night school courses.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Coach Murray Warmath is expecting 80 University of Minnesota football candidates to draw equipment Saturday, August 31 as the Gopher squad assembles for a 1:30 picture-taking session which precedes the official opening of fall practice.

Only 13 lettermen holdovers from the 1962 squad -- the smallest number in Warmath's 10-year coaching regime at Minnesota -- are included in the group. They are: ENDS -- Myron Rognlie. TACKLES -- Captain Milt Sunde, Carl Eller, Fred Nord. GUARDS -- Willie Costanza, Larry Hartse. CENTERS -- Frank Marchlewski, Joe Pung. QUARTERBACK -- Paul Ramseth. HALFBACKS -- Bill Crockett, Bill Mc Millan, Jerry Pelletier. FULLBACK -- Jay Sharp. Eller is the sole returnee who was a starter at the end of the '62 season. Thus a tremendous re-building task confronts the Minnesota coaching staff.

Especially spirited contests for recognition are forseen at the quarterback and guard positions where the 1 - 2 - 3 spots are wide open at present. John Hankinson, Edina junior, Larry Peterson, Robbinsdale junior, Bob Sadek, Richfield senior, and Paul Ramseth, Redwood Falls senior figure in the quarterback scramble. Lettermen Willie Costanza and Larry Hartse are expected to be at left and right guard, respectively, when practice opens, but the coaching staff plans extensive experimenting at these positions with the possibility looming strong that fullbacks, tackles and possibly others may get a try as the staff seeks to beef up the middle of the line.

QUARTERBACKS -- Bill Bevan, Chisago City (Shattuck High); Andrew Haines, New Orleans, Louisiana; John Hankinson, Edina; Larry Peterson, Robbinsdale; Paul Ramseth, Redwood Falls; Bob Sadek, Richfield; Len Stream, Minneapolis (Washburn High); Bruce Van De Walker, St. Paul (Washington High).

HALFBACKS -- Dick Borst, Richfield; Bill Crockett, Raleigh, N. C.; Rodney Elton, South St. Paul; Fred Farthing, Omaha, Nebraska; Allan Galloway, Alderson, West Virginia; Archie Givens, Minneapolis (Central High); Bob Grausnick, Winona; Dick Harren, St. Paul (Cretin High); Al Harris, Port Arthur, Texas; Melvin Henderson, St. Paul (Central High); Kenneth Jacobson, Minneapolis (Central High);

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - 'Man, a Minnesota starting football backfield that averages only 173½ pounds! You must be either kidding or out of your mind!"

This is going to be a common reaction of fans and unacquainted scribes if the current "first-string" Gopher backfield combination stands up for the curtain-raiser with Nebraska September 28 in Memorial Stadium here.

The "heavyweight" of the group is Jay Sharp, 193-pound junior fullback, Paul Ramseth, senior quarterback, is listed at 186 pounds. Two of the smallest halfbacks in the modern annals of Minnesota football drop the average sharply. They are Jerry Pelletier, former all-state halfback from Bloomington, who announced the opening day of practice, "I have beefed myself all the way up to 160 pounds." He runs at right half. Opposite Pelletier is Bill Crockett, 152-pound scooter from Raleigh, North Carolina.

While this pair of football midgets holds the edge over the halfback field in maturity and experience, an asset of extreme scarcity in the Gopher camp this fall, there are some sturdy young athletes behind them who are more of the fabled "Giants of the North" stature. Crockett's "reinforcements" include Dick Harren (188 pounds), St. Paul sophomore and an all-American prep choice at Cretin high; Kraig Lofquist (188), Biwabik, junior; and Al Harris (186), Port Arthur, Texas sophomore.

Pelletier is backed up by Fred Farthing (195), Omaha sophomore; Stan Skjei (180), Appleton junior; and Bill Studivant (185), transfer student from Wahpeton, No. Dakota.

As the season progresses it is entirely likely that Crockett and Pelletier will be used on kickoffs and in spot situations, while their more rugged cohorts handle the heavy-duty halfbacking. With the rugged schedule faced by the Gophers, the problem is going to be to get these younger backs some all-important experience.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Use of the designation, "First team" etc., is odious to Coach Murray Warmath, especially at this early stage of the football practice season, so his University of Minnesota varsity squad is grouped by colors -- "Red team," "Gold team," "Purple team," "Blue team," etc.

With the state of flux what it is in the experience-shy Minnesota football camp these days, the players are taking on some of the fabled characteristics of the chameleon.

And it's not only the colors that are changing with confusing rapidity on old Northrup field as wholesale promotions and demotions occur. For many of the football candidates it's a case of "yesterday an end, today a tackle," "yesterday a tackle, today a guard," "yesterday an end, today an end" etc. etc. At no time in Warmath's 10-year tenure at Minnesota has there been such a scrambling of talent as the head man seeks to fill gaps left by the departure of 24 lettermen including 10 starters.

A number of candidates already find themselves in unfamiliar roles in this week of practice. For instance, Fred Nord, 232-pound Minneapolis junior who played 150 minutes at tackle last season, is running at right guard. Charles Killian, a leading freshman tackle prospect in spring practice, is challenging Willie Costanza for the left guard starting assignment. Len Stream, the husky former Minneapolis Washburn all-city quarterback who was listed as this position in spring practice, finds himself at end. Tom Drazenovich, Nashwauk sophomore who ran at fullback in spring workouts, is now a left guard. Paul Ramseth, rangy senior from Redwood Falls who was a defensive specialist at the safety spot last season, was running the tentative "first unit" in practice early this week.

While this shifting and experimenting is not a happy situation, with the first game little more than three weeks away, there could be even more transfers as the Minnesota coaching staff seeks to bolster the tackle and guard positions, in particular.

MINNEAPOLIS. -- So the gentleman of the fourth estate said "Give me one of your football three-deeps."

To which the University of Minnesota athletic department drumbeater replied, "What would you like -- yesterday's, today's, or tomorrow's?" And he wasn't being facetious.

That's the way things are these days as Coach Murray Warmath strives to rally his riddled football forces for the season's opener with Nebraska in Memorial Stadium on September 28. It's a case of a candidate being first string yesterday, third string today, and ? tomorrow.

With only one 1962 starter amidst the sparse crop of 11 returning lettermen, the Minnesota coaching staff must rely heavily on inexperienced sophomores and untried reserves. Consequently Warmath and cohorts are taking a good, close look at each player on the 70-man squad and giving him a chance to "show his stuff" with one of the first three units.

The juggling is by no means confined to the backfield. One switch this week found sophomores Bob Bruggers of Danube and John Rajala of Anoka replacing Dan Drexler and Dick Bassett at the end spots they had held since the opening of practice.

Indications are that this scrambling will go on right up to the week prior to the Nebraska opener when Warmath is expected to settle on a starting combination to send against the powerful Cornhuskers.

MINNEAPOLIS. - Realizing that yardage may be hard to come by with the light-weight, inexperienced University of Minnesota football team backfield, Coach Murray Warmath and his staff are placing more emphasis than usual on the kicking game in fall practice to date.

When fall workouts began, Stan Skjei, Appleton junior, was regarded as THE punter on the squad. He shared these duties with fullback Jerry Jones during the 1962 season.

However, an intensive survey of the backfield candidates has uncovered additional talent that may give the punting department the most strength and depth it has enjoyed in several years. The first "discovery" was Fred Farthing, husky sophomore right halfback from Omaha, Nebraska. Under intensive tutelage by backfield coach Dick Larson Farthing is rapidly developing into a first-rate punter. Bob Bruggers, promising sophomore end from Roseland by way of Danube high, suddenly caught the knack in practice earlier this week and, according to Larson, started "booting 'em high and far."

Another newcomer whose punting is bringing increasing praise from the coaching staff is Bruce Van De Walker, sophomore quarterback up from St. Paul's Washington high school. Van De Walker who made something of a name for himself as a punter in high school, failed to impress in early practices, but through technique and many hours of hard work he has pulled up near Skjei's level of ability. With continued improvement, Van De Walker could develop into an outstanding punter.

This trio of booters could very well play a decisive role in the Minnesota season.

IRON RANGERS BIDDING FOR GOPHER FOOTBALL JOBS

These former Iron Range area high school football stars are currently bidding for a position on the University of Minnesota varsity squad.

Fulgham, the squad's heaviest member, has been hampered by injuries, but is back on the "active" list. Drazenovich is suffering from a kidney ailment and may have to withdraw from football for at least this season. Lofquist is rated by the Minnesota coaching staff as one of the squad's "most improved" and is slated for extensive action this fall. He has been showing particularly well on defense.

MINNEAPOLIS. - If the current alignment of players is indicative of what may be expected when the University of Minnesota football team squares off against Nebraska in Memorial Stadium September 28, Murray Warmath will be relying more heavily on sophomores than at any time in his 10-year coaching regime at Minnesota.

Dallman, Harren, and Faust were sophomore members of the 1962 squad, but missed competition because of early injuries and were awarded an extra year of competition by the Big Ten faculty representatives.

Thus 11 men untested in varsity competition are slated for important roles against the powerful Cornhuskers come the curtain-raiser September 28.

MINNEAPOLIS. - A couple of names well-known to University of Minnesota football fans in the "Golden Thirties" will be back in the sports news again this fall once the 1963 Gophers get under way.

Paul Faust, an all-state back at Edina high school and currently rated No. 1 defensive center, is the son of George Faust who earned letters as a quarterback on Minnesota's National championship eleven of 1936 and the Big Ten titilists of 1937 and 1938. A hip injury kept young Faust out of action in his first bid for varsity recognition last season. He was subsequently awarded another year of competition, so is carried on the Gopher roster as a sophomore. Line coach Denver Crawford has been consistently pleased with Paul's showing in practice this fall. "He could be another Julian Hook" says Crawford. "He seems to have the same knack for anticipating plays and he likes to stick his nose in there just like Julie." This is pretty high praise for an untried sophomore. Hook was one of the outstanding stars of Minnesota defense which last season led the nation in defense against rushing and set a new Big Ten record in this department. By his work in scrimmages to date young Faust has shown that he definitely "came to play."

The other progeny of a former Gopher great who is making a strong bid for recognition as a defensive player is Bill Bevan, Jr., son of Bill Bevan who was everybody's All America guard on Minnesota's undefeated national championship team of 1934. Young Bevan was an all-around performer at Shattuck Prep School, but at Minnesota has shown an aptitude for defensive play in the secondary. "He's smart and hard-nosed" says Dick Larson, backfield coach, of Bill, junior. "And he has good speed. He'll give Ramseth lots of help back there." Paul Ramseth played 237 minutes in the safety position last season.

He was Big Ten still rings champion in 1960 while competing for the University of Illinois.

Griak succeeds Jim Kelly who retired last summer after 27 years as director of Gopher track forces. The new coach came to the University after a highly successful 11-year stint as track coach at St. Louis Park High School. His teams won state championships in 1958, '62 and '63. He is an "M" man, having lettered in track in 1949 and cross country in 1948.

Schleisman, in addition to his freshman hockey duties, is serving as an assistant to Ticket Manager Shirley Korblick. He takes over the frosh chores from new Athletic Director Marshall W. Ryman who held the post since 1952 along with his duties as Athletic Ticket Manager and Business Manager. Schleisman, who won his freshman hockey numerals at Minnesota in 1958, coached hockey at De La Salle High School in 1960 and '61.

Jaco, a former University of Michigan diver, will direct Gopher divers and assist swimming coach Bob Mowerson. He succeeds Ron O'Brien who has taken a comparable position at Ohio State. This is Jaco's first coaching job. While competing for the Wolverines, he captured third place in Big Ten high board diving in 1960 as well as fourth in the NCAA low board the same year.

MINNEAPOLIS. - Whatever the ingredients may be, the football menu to be served up Saturday in Memorial Stadium as Minnesota opens its 1963 schedule against once-trying Nebraska has stimulated public appetite to a record-breaking extent. The net result is expected to be an audience in excess of 65,000. Largest previous crowd at a Memorial Stadium opener was 62,468 for the Washington game in 1957.

The Gophers hold a 29 - 6 advantage in the Cornhusker series which began in 1900. However, the Minnesota coaching staff finds little solace in this figure. Only 11 lettermen, including a lone starter, remain of the 1962 squad that compiled a 7 - 2 record and was edged by Wisconsin for the Big Ten title in the season's finale. To add to the talent problems confronting Coach Murray Warmath as he launches his 10th campaign at the Minnesota helm, 10 players who were counted on at the end of the 1962 season for extensive help this fall are no longer in camp.

Reports emanating from down Nebraska way about the stature of the 1963 Cornhuskers who completed their 1962 season with a 9 - 2 win including a Gotham Bowl triumph over Miami (Florida) heighten the concern of the Minnesota coaches. The concensus of Nebraska fandoms is that Coach Bob Devaney has fashioned the most formidable Cornhusker machine in the past decade. This could spell REAL trouble for the Gophers who took a 32 - 12 pasting from their Big Eight rivals in 1959 when last they met in Memorial Stadium. Minnesota rebounded to take a 26 - 14 verdict at Lincoln the following year in the most recent between the two long-time rivals. Saturday's tussle will mark the first meeting of Warmath and Devaney as head coaches.

The starting Husker backfield of Dennis Claridge, quarterback, Willie Ross, left halfback, Bob Hohn, right half, and Rudy Johnson, fullback combines outstanding passing prowess, speed, and power. Ross, a sturdy 199-pounder, has blazing speed and can go all the way any time he takes the ball. Claridge, a leading All America candidate, is a deadly tosser who combines the run - pass threat. These men work behind a powerful, experienced line spearheaded by Tackles Larry Kramer and Lloyd Voss.

The all-around potential of the Cornhuskers was apparent in their 58 - 7 romp over South Dakota State last weekend, even though Coach Devaney tried to keep his athletics under wraps.

The invaders from Lincoln will have a 222 to 215-pound average weight advantage in the line, a 197 to 181-pound edge in the backfield, and will hold a 10-pound over-all weight superiority.

Minnesota's hopes rest largely on the play of Carl Eller, 6-5, 245-pound right tackle and only regular returnee from 1962, and Captain Milt Sunde, left tackle. They bulwark a Maroon and Gold line that is glaringly shy on experience. Sophomores Bob Bruggers and John Rajala are slated to start at the end positions, with Bill Dallman, another soph, at left guard.

The backfield includes three seniors who have less than 75 minutes combined playing time in three years on the squad. They are Bob Sadek, quarterback, Jerry Pelletier, right halfback, and Mike Reid, fullback. Dick Harren, St. Paul sophomore who won All America prep honors at Cretin high, rounds out the tentative No. 1 backfield at left half.

Organized women's hockey will make its debut in the Twin Cities when teams from Switzerland and Argentina will provide a unique and interesting exhibition game on Wednesday, October 2, at Delta Field, University of Minnesota. Game time is 2 p.m. Tickets are $2.00.

The United States Field Hockey Association is a corporate body composed of local associations representing a total of approximately 160 club teams -- some 2500 club players interested in playing and promoting the game of field hockey.

The USFHA is strictly an amateur organization and is, along with lacrosse, the only women's sport completely under the control of women.

The United States is also a member of the International Federation of Women's Hockey Association. Composed of 26 member countries, hockey is the first sport for women to be organized on an international scale.

The School of Physical Education at the University of Minnesota is sponsoring the exhibition game with Dr. Richard Donnelly, director of Physical Education and Athletics to preside at the contest.

BOB BRUGGERS
MEET THE GOPHER SOPHOMORES
No. 1 in a series

"Bob Bruggers is the top end in our football squad at the present time." This appraisal, rendered by University of Minnesota end coach, George (Butch) Nash, sums up the amazing progress that has been made by the 6-0, 206-pound sophomore candidate from Roseland (Danube high).

It was expected that first-year men would have to make important contributions at the end positions with the loss of John Campbell, Bob Prawdzik, and Ray Zitzloff.

And, Bruggers, widely acclaimed for his high school basketball heroics, has now drawn praise for his achievements on the college gridiron.

Bruggers, although not overly fast, is a good receiver and a rugged ball player. Perhaps the most consistent end on the Gopher squad, Bruggers comprehends easily and retains instruction from the Gopher coaches.

"Bob has been a real surprise to us," said Nash. "We knew that he had great athletic ability, but thought it was more for basketball than football."

Playing in oblivion during spring practice sessions, it remained for Bruggers to surpass Dan Drexler, considered a probable starter last May at left end. And, with the first game of the season less than a week away, Bob had established himself as a fixture at left end.

Bob is majoring in physical education and wants to become a college coach.

MINNEAPOLIS. - Football forces of the United States Military Academy and the University of Minnesota will take to the battlefield against each other for the first time when they match might and strategy Saturday in Memorial Stadium here.

Army's "Black Knights" will come charging into the lair of the Gophers with colors flying high as the result of impressive shutout triumphs over Boston University (30 - 0) and Cincinnati (22 - 0) in their two engagements so far this young season. The Gophers will be seeking a comeback win after bowing to hefty Nebraska 14 - 7 in their opener last Saturday.

Army Coach Paul Dietzel makes his debut against Minnesota's Murray Warmath well fortified with 22 lettermen holdovers from the 1962 Cadet squad. Both Dietzel and Warmath feature wing-T attacks, but with different variations.

Army will present two standout backs in Carl Stichweh, 185-pound quarterback and run-pass expert from Williston Park, New York, and Ken Waldrop, 198-pound tailback from Dallas, Texas. Both have sparkled in Army's under-wraps wins over Boston and Cincinnati. If Tom Smith, brilliant sophomore halfback, recovers from a leg injury in time, the invaders from West Point will provide Minnesota with further defensive problems. Smith rambled for more than 100 yards in his collegiate debut against Boston U. The Cadets have an additional scoring threat in Dick Heydt, a place-kicking specialist who booted two field goals and a pair of perfect extra point conversions against Cincinnati. They are also strong in the punting department with Dick Peterson showing to advantage in distance and accuracy.

Murray Warmath, a one-time assistant football coach at Army under Red Blaik, is seeking this week to put additional punch into the Minnesota rushing offense which netted only five yards in the second-half of the loss to Nebraska. One possible change may see Fred Farthing, 197-pound sophomore from Omaha, Nebraska replacing 159-pound Jerry Pelletier at right halfback with the No. 1 unit. Al Harris, 186-pound sophomore left halfback and fastest man on the squad, was used only briefly late in the game against Nebraska, but will likely get more extended duty against Army.

While the Gophers came out of the Cornhusker joust in reasonably good physical condition as a squad, they may be without the services of Dick Harren, first team left halfback, and Joe Pung, No. 2 offensive center. Harren suffered a hyper-extended elbow and Pung is nursing a badly bruised hip.

Early estimates place the probable crowd at 61,000. There are still several thousand tickets on sale.

MINNEAPOLIS. - Fresh from a somewhat surprising 27 - 28 victory over Drake, the University of Minnesota cross country team will face a stern test Saturday when it entertains Wisconsin at Lake Nokomis.

"I was mildly surprised by our win at Drake," says Gopher coach Roy Griak. "Drake was Missouri Valley Conference champion last year and has its entire team back this fall."

A victory over Wisconsin would prove even more surprising since Griak rates the Badgers one of the top threats to the dominance of Michigan State which has won the Big Ten crown every year but one since 1951.

Capt. Jim Day and Norris Peterson were the big factors in the win over Drake, tying for first place.

MINNEAPOLIS. - It was a cloudy, dreary day and threatening skies hampered the enthusiasm of the 61,000 fans assembled in Memorial Stadium.

The effects of the weather, however, didn't affect the anticipation and excitement of the four untried sophomores that Coach Murray Warmath inaugurated the 1963 campaign with against Nebraska.

The consensus of these four yearlings varied in degree of nervousness and uncertainty. Bob Bruggers of Roseland admitted that he was nervous.

"I wanted to play as good as possible and prove to the coaching staff that I was worthy of playing," said the 19 year old lad.

Recruited by the University for his basketball heriocs, he is now one of the stalwarts on the young end corps groomed by Coach George (Butch) Nash. "The first game was the hardest," he said, "and I felt more anticipation and tension than I had in any previous basketball game."

John Rajala, Anoka sophomore, didn't expect to be starting his first game of college football, so he expressed an "uncertain feeling." We know what our assignments are and what is expected," said Rajala, "but you begin to wonder if you are capable of doing them."

"The coaches prepared us," he said, "and told us that we would make mistakes that sophomores normally do."

Bob Bruggers and John Rajala were roommates at the St. Paul Hotel Friday evening. "To ease the tension, we studied our plays and eventually took a walk downtown," said Rajala.

Dick Harren, a studious left halfback from St. Paul, was more serious when he was asked to describe what a young sophomore thinks about as he nears his first game.

"It's a feeling of disbelief. I didn't know what to expect, but I knew that I wanted to do the best job I could." This intent, on proving their football worthiness, was a predominant desire of the inexperienced athletes.

"I did lack some confidence because this was my first game," Harren said, "but I regained this confidence as the game progressed and hope to gain more with each succeeding game."

To Fred Farthing, his first football game in a maroon and gold uniform was calmly accepted as "just another football game." However, Al Harris, the fleet halfback from Port Arthur, Texas, expressed a deep concern over playing his first game as a Gopher. "I was real excited and tense over playing a Big Ten game and I tried to relieve the nervousness by studying my assignments," he said.

Post-game talks revealed that these anxious, untried athletes performed acceptably for Big Ten sophomores. Their first game uneasiness is gone and in its place as the Gophers gird for Army's invasion on Saturday is experience, an invaluable asset in big time college football.

MINNEAPOLIS. - It is imperative that first-year men make important contributions on the University of Minnesota football team, and the end corps is no exception.

George (Butch) Nash has the momentous task of rebuilding a position which was depleted when graduation and ineligibility claimed a heavy toll.

And, Kent Kramer, sophomore right end from Temple City, California, will be used extensively when he begins to make rapid progress.

One of the largest ends ever to play at Minnesota, Kramer also has the speed and agility to become a fine performer. "Kent has good potential, size, and strength," said Nash, "but he hasn't developed as rapidly as other boys have."

In addition to being a good pass receiver, Kramer, 6-5, 230 pounds, is potentially a good defensive player who delights in making jarring tackles.

Kramer should have an outstanding future as a University of Minnesota gridder. He has all the qualities to make a fine end, said Nash, but he lacks experience.

A four-sport letterman in Temple City High School, Kent plans to major in business administration and is hopeful of a professional football career. However, for the next three seasons, Coach Murray Warmath and his staff will welcome his services.

AL HARRIS

MINNEAPOLIS. - The "little man" is always a favorite on any football field. And, Albert (Al) Harris, 5-10, 180 pound speedster, is no exception when he begins his elusive running for Coach Murray Warmath and the University of Minnesota football team.

Widely acclaimed for his running exploits, Harris is improving daily in blocking and as a pass receiver. Al is the fastest man on the football squad, and is a natural runner who enjoys eluding onrushing lineman.

Harris performed brilliantly on the freshman squad a year ago and seems destined to fulfill the great expectations that the coaching staff had for him.

A sophomore left halfback, Harris is not expected to figure prominently in Coach Warmath's plans for 1963. "Al is improving tremendously with each practice session," said backfield coach Joe Salem, "and he has all the potential to make a fine halfback."

Lacking experience, a valuable asset in Big Ten competition, Harris may gain this necessary quality before the tough seven-game Conference season begins.

A 1962 graduate of Lincoln High School in Port Arthur, Texas, Harris was a letterman in football and track before enrolling at Minnesota.

Al is majoring in business administration and wants to become a college coach.

JIM KRAUSE MEET THE MINNESOTA FOOTBALL SOPHOMORES No. 5 in a series

Considered the top tackle prospect from last year's freshman squad; missed spring practice due to illness; has good potential, but needs experience.

This resume of Jim Krause, second team right tackle, summarizes the high regard that the coaching staff at the University of Minnesota has for this 6-2, 230 pound athlete.

It is unfortunate, as far as Krause is concerned, that the one strength that Minnesota has is the tackle situation. Captain Milt Sunde and Carl Eller received all Big Ten and All America mention following the 1962 season and are expected to give Minnesota one of the better tackle pairs in the nation.

Only a sophomore, Krause undoubtedly will be a fixture at tackle for Coach Murray Warmath the next two seasons if he continues to develop.

"Jim is going to play a lot of ball for us this year and next," said Jerry Annis, a Gopher line coach. Krause, although lacking experience, has been improving daily and has the potential to be a good ball player according to Annis.

Jim was a four-sport letter winner at Lake Benton High School with numerals achieved in basketball, baseball, track and in eight-man football.

Majoring in business administration, Jim wants to be an insurance salesman or an accountant, and his "secret ambition" is to be a Gopher starter, a plateau that he is expected to achieve in the near future.

John Rajala is excelling in his determined bid to become a fine end for Coach Murray Warmath and the University of Minnesota football team.

This desire is a quality admired by end coach George (Butch) Nash. "John has a lot to learn," said Nash, "but he will improve because his attitude is good." Rajala, a fierce competitor on the practice field as well as on the college gridiron, is slowly pushing himself to superiority.

The 6-1, 200 pound sophomore from Anoka High School has another fine virtue, a willingness to learn. "John makes mistakes that a sophomore is expected to make," Nash continued. "However, he works hard and received instruction well."

Rajala, although not an exceptional receiver, is a strong, rugged individual who enjoys the toughness that accompanies football.

It is imperative that Rajala, along with the other fine sophomore and candidates, make important strides in replacing the loss of John Campbell, Bob Prawdzik, and Ray Zitzloff from last season's Big Ten runner-ups.

With game experience and daily improvement on the practice field, Rajala may achieve the status of a perfectionist.

John was a 1962 graduate of Anoka High School where he played fullback as a prep athlete in the Suburban Conference. He is majoring in industrial psychology at the University.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - After managing a split in its two-game "exhibition" season, the University of Minnesota football team enters the Big Ten's inter-necine strife this Saturday, facing a mighty big order: beat Tom Myers and Northwestern -- at Evanston.

The Gophers, 14-7 losers to Nebraska and 24-8 conquerors of Army so far this season, have a score to settle with the Wildcats who have humbled Missouri and Indiana and lost to Illinois. A year ago at Minneapolis, Myers completed 16 of 25 passes for a total of 251 yards against Minnesota to lead Northwestern to a 34-22 victory. The loss was one of only two suffered by the Gophers all season.

Myers is back this fall, of course, and still firing the football with impressive results although opposing defenses have curbed his effectiveness somewhat, especially Illinois in its surprise 10-9 triumph. He has completed 38 of 73 attempts for 654 yards and three touchdowns but surprisingly has had six aerials intercepted.

The Wildcats' biggest weakness appears to be the lack of a receiver comparable to the great Paul Flatley who was on the receiving end of a good share of Myers' passes last fall. Myers has a variety of targets, however, including ends Gary Crum, Chuck Logan and George Burman.

Northwestern's ground game centers on the speed of halfbacks Dick McCalley and Willie Stinson and the power of fullback Bill Swingle.

A Wildcat huge line, averaging 227 pounds, will have a decided weight advantage over Minnesota which boasts only one man over 225. If all-American guard candidate Jack Cvercko, who has been nursing a knee injury, can start this week, as the Wildcats hope, the Purple forward wall will be imposing indeed.

A veteran team and pre-season Big Ten title favorite, Northwestern is smarting from its hairline loss to the Illini and will be determined to get back on the Rose Bowl track at Minnesota's expense in Saturday's televised contest.

If the Gophers are to stem the Purple onslaught, they must tighten their pass defense which failed to contain the short tosses of Army's Carl Stichweh last Saturday. The Cadet quarterback completed 12 of 19 for 108 yards, although he did have three intercepted.

Bob Sadek, who gave a passing demonstration of his own in the first half of the Army game, completing nine of 10, has returned to the Gopher starting quarterback post after being demoted last week in favor of junior Larry Peterson. Sadek, a senior, appears certain to start against Northwestern, although Peterson will probably see action.

Sharing the first team backfield with Sadek are sophomore left half Al Harris, who against Army showed some of the niftiest running by a Gopher back in recent years, along with senior right half Jerry Pelletier and junior fullback Mike Reid. Reid was selected to United Press International's backfield-of-the-week for his play against the Cadets. Regular left half Dick Harren is expected to miss the game due to a bad knee.

The Gopher line, which thus far has lacked the awesome rush turned in by the '62 forwards, will be bolstered by giant (6-5½, 245 pounds) all-American tackle candidate Carl Eller, Capt. Milt Sunde, also a tackle, and center Frank Marchlewski. The starting ends will likely be Myron Rognlie and Dan Drexler with Willie Costanza and Larry Hartse at the guards. All but junior Marchlewski are seniors.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - It has been 15 years since the Williams Scholarship Fund was established in 1949-50 as a memorial to Dr. Henry L. Williams who coached Minnesota football from 1900-21.

In the past, contributions from the alumni and public have made the 411 scholarships awarded possible to the deserving student-athletes. Proceeds from the spring football game have also aided in supporting the Fund. Every alumnus, student, "M" man and fan who attended that game contributed through the purchase of his ticket.

For the first time this fall, in connection with the annual drive for Williams Scholarship Fund contributions, a special mailing solicitation is being made to all "M" men. It opened Monday, October 14. Previous scholarship winners will also be contacted to contribute to the enlargement of the Fund.

Athletic Aid Coordinator, Glen Reed, stated that a goal of $50,000 has been set in an attempt to expand the Fund and enable more qualified athletes to receive this award.

The scholarships are not grants-in-aid but are based strictly on outstanding scholastic proficiency demonstrated by students who have completed at least a year's work at the University.

To qualify for a Williams Scholarship, a student must maintain a B-plus average in academic work for a full school year or cumulatively during his college years.

The purpose of the Fund according to Marsh Ryman, athletic director, "is to award merit scholarships; to motivate the student-athlete to attain higher academic standing; to provide a bonus incentive for improved scholarship; and to enable a standing; to provide a bonus incentive for improved scholarship; and to enable a greater number of qualified athletes to receive scholarship aid."

A composite total of 909 years of financial support has been granted to the 411 student-athletes with each athlete receiving an average of 2.2 years of assistance.

At the termination of the 1963-64 year, $387,000 in Williams Scholarship aid will have been awarded to athletes. Since the Fund began in 1949-50, annual contributions have averaged $23,700 per year for an average of $426.65 over the 15 year period.

During the first year, eight students received scholarships totaling $1,808. Scholarships in the early years of the Fund covered only books and tuition due to the fact that many recipients were able to secure part-time employment.

This year's fund allotted among the 21 winners amounted to $23,350, averaging to $1,111.90 per student. A full scholarship -- tuition, books, fees, and room and board -- costs nearly $1,200 for a resident of Minnesota and $1,665 for an athlete from outstate.

Seventy-five per cent of the 411 individuals who have received a Williams Scholarship since its inauguration were recipients of an "M" letter in one of the University's 11 sports as an undergraduate.

Donations to the Scholarship Fund are welcomed and any contribution may be mailed to:

BRYAN MAGNUSON

Bryan Magnuson was considered a "blue chip" athlete in high school. In fact, the coaching staff at the University of Minnesota gleamed at the prospect of Magnuson playing football with the Gophers.

This highly promising outlook has not been abandoned by backfield coach, Joe Salem, or the remainder of the Gopher coaching staff. "Bryan is young, needs experience, and has a lot to learn," said Salem.

Although resigned to the fact that he must surpass Mike Reid and Jay Sharp, Magnuson is showing steady improvement and could possibly achieve recognition in his remaining two years with the Gophers.

Essentially, Magnuson has good speed and power and is making progress as a blocker. "Magg" is a big, strong runner and has experience as a fullback, playing with Hopkins High School in the Lake Conference. He showed flashes of his high school bull-dozing in the Army game.

Bryan, 6-2, 200 pound sophomore, was outstanding as a prep athlete, winning letters in football, hockey and baseball.

Magnuson has the distinction of being considered one of the better sophomore fullbacks. What he lacks in experience will be gained with each succeeding game and practice session.

Magnuson is majoring in business administration at the University.

FRED FARTHING

Off the field Fred Farthing is a shy individual who is anything but responsive to his interrogators. However, it is a different aspect of his behavior on the college gridiron that delights the coaching staff at the University of Minnesota.

Farthing carries the distinction of "one of our most highly-rated sophomores" from his performances on the green-shirted freshman squad.

The 5-11, 195 pound sophomore is among the fastest halfbacks on the team. "Farthing has the size and ability to be a good all-around player," said backfield coach Dick Larson.

Farthings' style of deceptive running and maneuvering has been compared to that of Bill Munsey, a three-year letterman at right halfback for the Gophers in 1960-61-62.

Fred is a "diamond in rough" says head coach Murray Warmath. Although he is able to get things done, he lacks polish and smoothness in his style.

A big hard runner, Fred is also a good pass receiver and is able to provide a serious threat for the defensive secondary.

A graduate of Technical High School in Omaha, Nebraska, Farthing was a prep letter winner in track, basketball, and football. His most memorable sports experience was scoring five touchdowns and two extra points for a 32 point total in a city conference game.

Majoring in Business at the University of Minnesota, Fred's "secret ambition" is to become an All-American.

"The Gophers"

Minneapolis. - The young University of Minnesota football squad gained considerable maturity in last Saturday's heart-breaking 15 - 8 loss to Northwestern, but whether or not they gained enough stature to cope with resurgent and undefeated Illinois Saturday is the BIG question as the Gophers gird for the impending battle with the Illini in their homecoming feature at Champaign.

While Coach Murray Warmath and his spirited young athletes are unwilling to accept the Northwestern loss as a "moral victory," they are able to count some benefits as they point for the thirty first meeting in this series dating back to 1898.

In directing the Gophers on the 75-yard touchdown march that enabled them to go ahead of the Wildcats 8 - 7 Larry Peterson proved that he is a capable Big Ten calibre quarterback who is ready to make a major contribution to Minnesota's attack. And the fact that the alternate line was on the field for 55 yards of this impressive ground attack gives heart to Minnesota adherents who had feared that lack of relief for the starting line might be a fatal weakness of the Gophers. Particularly pleasing to the Minnesota coaching staff was the offensive blocking of the players in the alternate line. It hinted promise of additional punch in the Maroon and Gold running attack.

Having apparently "found" a solid running game in rushing for 217 yards against Northwestern, the Gophers are concentrating this week on brushing up their aerial game in the belief that it will have to be particularly sharp to keep the ball moving against the powerful Illini who will have a marked weight advantage. Bob Sadek and Larry Peterson are expected to alternate in directing the Gophers against Illinois.

The Gophers are in reasonably good physical condition with Paul Faust, line-backing ace, and Joe Pung, alternate offensive center, the only players on the doubtful list. Dick Harren who was number one left halfback until a knee injury sidelined him two weeks ago, is expected to make the trip to Champaign. If the knee is sound, Harren, an All American Catholic prep choice at St. Paul's Cretin high, could lend added punch to Minnesota's running game.

Warmath's choice of a starting backfield combination is expected to remain in doubt right up to game time. It will be either Sadek or Peterson at quarterback; Harren, Kraig Lofquist or Al Harris at left half; Jerry Pelletier or Stan Skjei at right half; and Mike Reid or Jay Sharp at fullback. Each of these backs is slated for extensive duty.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The records of the two adversaries aren't impressive, BUT, with the venerable Little Brown Jug at stake, football teams of the University of Michigan and the University of Minnesota may be expected to reach their peak for the season to date when the two ancient rivals battle in Memorial Stadium here Saturday.

The Wolverines are the only Big Ten foe to hold an all-time series edge over the Gophers. In this hallowed rivalry dating back to 1892 Michigan has won 32 games and tied three, while losing 18. Minnesota's followers have recently found solace in the three consecutive triumphs scored by their favorites over the Maize and Blue of Ann Arbor. It was 10 - 0 in 1960, 23 - 20 in '61, and 17 - 0 a year ago.

Probable starting lineups:

MICHIGAN -

#82	Jim Conley (191)	LE
#79	Tom Keating (240)	LT
#69	Joe O'Donnell (238)	LG
#51	Brian Patchen (210)	C
#65	Rich Hahn (206)	RG
#75	Bill Yearby (223)	RT
#83	Bill Laskey (211)	RE
#28	Bob Timberlake (211)	QB
#24	Jack Clancy (196)	LHB
#17	Dick Rindfuss (192)	RHB
#37	Mel Anthony (202)	FB

MINNESOTA -

#83	Myron Rognlie (198)
#77	Milt Sunde (222)
#60	Willie Costanza (199)
#53	Frank Marchlewski (220)
#66	Larry Hartse (206)
#76	Carl Eller (245)
#81	Dan Drexler (187)
#10	Larry Peterson (195)
#20	Al Harris (186)
#11	Jerry Pelletier (159)
#36	Jay Sharp (198)

Average of line: Michigan 217; Minnesota 211.
Average of backfield: Michigan 200; Minnesota 184.
Average weight of team: Michigan 211; Minnesota 201.

Kickoff time: 1:30 p.m. CST. Anticipated attendance: 62,500.

Radio broadcasts: WUOM, WPAG, WAAM, Ann Arbor. KSTP, WCCO, WTCN, WLWL, Twin Cities. KROC, Rochester. KLAC, Los Angeles, California. WWJ, Detroit.

Comparison of the Wolverines and Gophers on their performances to date this season brings up several parallels. Both are shy on veteran material. Both have had their good moments, but many more bad moments, including several disastrous lost fumbles at inopportune times. Both have been fairly impressive defensively, but have been unable to mount consistent ground-gaining attacks. Michigan's record shows a 27 - 16 win over Southern Methodist, a 7 - 7 tie with Michigan State, and losses of 26 - 13 to Navy and 23 - 12 to Purdue. Minnesota owns a 24 - 8 victory over Army, against losses of 14 - 7 to Nebraska, 15 - 8 to Northwestern, and 16 - 6 to Illinois. Five fumbles, four of which were recovered by the Illini, proved ruinous to the Gophers as they bowed to unbeaten Illinois last Saturday at Champaign.

Minnesota, one of the strongest finishing teams in the Nation a year ago, has been the victim of a serious fourth quarter sag so far this season. It has out-scored its opposition 10 - 7 in the first quarter, 14 - 9 in the second quarter, 13 - 0 in the third quarter, only to be completely overwhelmed 37 - 8 in the final quarter. Coach Murray Warmath and his staff are convinced that it is not a matter of physical conditioning, but, rather lack of squad depth that accounts for this problem.

Warmath squelched conjecture that he might discard his seniors and go along with sophomores and juniors after this losing start by stating before the Minneapolis Downtown Quarterback Club Monday noon that "we are going to play our 11 best football players, seniors or otherwise, come what may."

The biggest problem confronting Warmath is to put together a backfield combination that can advance the ball consistently. Quarterback Bob Sadek has passed reasonably effectively (31 of 66 for 315 yards and only two interceptions), but the Gopher running attack bogs down with Sadek at the helm. Larry Peterson who alternates with Sadek, is a strong runner and moves the team along the ground fairly well, but has connected only one of six pass attempts.

The return of Dick Harren, sophomore left halfback who missed the Northwestern and Illinois games because of a knee injury, and Paul Faust, standout linebacker who is nursing a shoulder injury, could give the undermanned Gophers a big lift. However, availability of both is doubtful. Fred Nord, No. 2 right tackle, suffered a knee and ankle injury at Champaign and will miss the Michigan game.

The Wolverines have encountered both good and bad news as they gird for the Jug contest. Tom Cecchini, one of the midwest's outstanding collegiate centers, suffered torn knee ligaments early in the Purdue game last Saturday and is presumed to be lost for the season. He is being replaced by Brian Patchen. Bob Timberlake, rangy junior quarterback who has seen only limited duty this fall because of a shoulder injury, is ready for full-time duty against Minnesota. Timberlake entered last week's Purdue game late in the third quarter, but proved his fitness by scoring two touchdowns, completing 10 of 16 passes for 133 yards, and rushing for 19 yards in six tries. He could be the spark needed to set off the Michigan offense.

The University of Minnesota Athletic Department sponsors its annual free coaching clinics on Saturday, November 9, for high school coaches in basketball, hockey, swimming, and wrestling. The gymnastic clinic, originally scheduled for November 9, has been changed to Saturday, November 16.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. for basketball and hockey, while swimming and wrestling begin one half-hour later at 8:30. All four clinics continue until 5 p.m., with some time at each clinic devoted to their particular High School Coaches Association.

The coaches throughout Minnesota have found the clinics to be very beneficial in learning new techniques, exchanging ideas, and becoming better acquainted with fellow coaches.

The University of Minnesota has secured a featured array of guest speakers to highlight the several programs at the clinics.

Ernie Anderson, coach of Augsburg's 1963 M.I.A.C. champions and Glen Mattke, coach of Marshall's 1963 State High School Basketball champions will feature the list of speakers at the basketball clinic.

Murray Williamson, Ken Yackel, and Louis Nanne, 1962 All-American defenseman at the University of Minnesota, along with Charles Smith, president of the High School Hockey Coaches Association, will address the hockey coaches.

Toivo Jambeck, Roosevelt high school coach and Mike Chopp, St. Cloud Tech high school mentor, lead the distinguished speakers on the swimming program.

Tommy Evans, former NCAA champion and the "1963 College Wrestling Coach of the Year" at the University of Oklahoma will appear before the wrestling coaches.

The graduate "M" Club is sponsoring a free luncheon in the Indoor Fieldhouse for all coaches attending the clinic. This lunch will be served from noon until 1 p.m. on the new tartan surface in the Fieldhouse adjacent to Cooke Hall.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The three-day AAU Outdoor Championships held in Chicago, Ill., last August witnessed the triumphant emergence of Wally Richardson in another record-shattering first place in the 100-yard butterfly event.

The University of Minnesota swimming stalwart, just completing his sophomore year in competition, had assured himself a berth, along with 16 other championship qualifiers, to Japan where they would have the distinction of participating in the 6th United States-Japan swimming and diving meet.

Called the "finest flyer in the country over a short course," by University of Minnesota swimming coach, Bob Mowerson, Wally wasted no time in establishing himself as one of America's finest in foreign competition.

The powerful American swimming team completely overwhelmed Japan 63 - 22 in losing a mere five first places in the first Pre-Olympic dual meet. Wally Richardson recorded second in the 200 m. butterfly with a time of 2:11.0.

As the American team continued to make its appearances on Japanese soil, Wally became increasingly aware of the enthusiasm that prevailed in this foreign land.

"I was quite impressed with the following that swimming received as a sport," Richardson said. "People knew our names, what events we swam, and continuously asked for our autographs," he continued.

The visiting U. S. swimming team continued to dominate at each of the three meets that followed the featured Pre-Olympic meet to Tokyo.

At a meet on August 22, enroute to Osaka, Richardson placed second in the 200 m. butterfly with a time of 2:12.5.

In Osaka, only in the 200 meter breaststroke and 200 meter backstroke were the Nippon swimmers able to halt the U. S. victory parade. Wally again showed his superiority by winning the 100 m. butterfly in 57.8, a new American citizen's record.

The U. S. team of Dick Mc Geagh, Bill Craig, Wally Richardson, and Steve Clark smashed the world 400 m. medley relay mark with a 4:00.1 clocking.

On August 28, at Okayama, the U. S. again beat the Japanese team, losing only the 200 m. backstroke and breaststroke.

Richardson was particularly impressed with the throngs of Japanese who attended the meets. Upwards of 15,000 people attended the meet in Osaka and nearly 10,000 witnessed the events in Tokyo. "Osaka," said Richardson, "has a stadium for 30,000 people surrounding the swimming pool."

The entire trip was made at the expense of the Japanese, and according to Richardson, "they took good care of us." On two occasions the entire U. S. swimming team and staff were entertained for dinner by supporters of the Japanese swimming program.

Undoubtedly Wally hopes to return to Japan as a member of the U.S.A. Men's Olympic team for the 1964 games in Tokyo.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Two old-time teammates at the University of Tennessee, both of them noted advocates of "hard-nose" type football, will lead the football forces of Indiana University and the University of Minnesota into the Memorial Stadium arena here Saturday afternoon in the 25th renewal of a Big Ten Conference series dating back to 1906. Hoosier Coach Phil Dickens and Minnesota's bossman, Murray Warmath, were roommates and close buddies in their starring days for General Neyland's Volunteers.

Probable starting lineups:

INDIANA -

#76 Ralph Poehls (220)
#60 Don Croftcheck (212)
#50 Ted Worcester (220)
#62 Melvin Branch (210)

#20 Rich Badar (185)
#40 Marvin Woodson (195)
#19 Don Dilly (191)
#35 Tom Nowatzke (220)

MINNESOTA -

LE #83 Myron Rognlie (198)

LG #60 Willie Costanza (199)
C #53 Frank Marchlewski (220)
RG #66 Larry Hartse (206)
RT #76 Carl Eller (245)
RE #81 Dan Drexler (187)
QB #10 Larry Peterson (195)
LHB #11 Jerry Pelletier (159)
RHB #48 Fred Farthing (197)
FB #31 Mike Reid (192)

Average weight of line:	Indiana: 212;	Minnesota: 211.
Average weight of backfield:	Indiana: 198;	Minnesota: 186.
Average weight of team:	Indiana: 207;	Minnesota: 202.

Time of kickoff: 1:30 p.m. C.S.T.

Radio broadcasts of game: WCCO, KSTP, WLOL, WTCN, Twin Cities; KROC, Rochester. WSAL, Logansport, Indiana. WOWO, Fort Wayne, Indiana. WKSG, Fort Wayne, Indiana. WFIU, Bloomington, Indiana.

The Gophers have dominated the series in recent years. They scored a 34 - 0 shutout in 1957; were shutout 0 - 6 in 1958; prevailed 24 - 14 in 1959; and romped 42 - 0 in 1960 on their way to the national collegiate championship. The teams didn't meet in 1961 or '62.

Both Indiana and Minnesota have had their troubles this season. The Gophers own a slightly better win - loss record by virtue of triumphs over Army (24 - 8) and Michigan (6 - 0). They have fallen before Nebraska (14-7), Northwestern (15-8), and Illinois (16 - 6). They have experienced difficulty in moving the ball consistently and in scoring. The Hoosiers scored their first win of the season last Saturday as they brushed by Cincinnati 20 - 6. They have bowed to Northwestern 34 - 21; Ohio State 21 - 0; Iowa 37 - 26; and Michigan State, 20 -3. Even without the services of its great halfback, Marvin Woodson, who was injured on the first play of the Iowa game, the Hoosiers have been able to advance the ball, often in spectacular fashion, Woodson is widely hailed as one of the nation's best halfbacks. Indiana has shattering power in the person of its 220-pound 6-3 fullback, Tom Nowatzke. Quarterback Rich Badar is an above average passer. If Woodson is healthy, the Hoosiers could present the most versatile and dangerous attack faced by Minnesota to date this season.

The adversaries have one thing in common -- a tough defense. Indiana twice last Saturday stopped Cincinnati on the one-foot line. Minnesota hit its defensive peak in blanking Michigan on the same day. Carl Eller, a leading All America tackle candidate, played brilliantly in spending a good bit of time in the Wolverine backfield and nailing opposing backs for frequent losses.

Both teams are expected to be near full strength. Coach Murray Warmath indicated earlier this week that he intends to stay with the same lineup that took the field against Michigan with Larry Peterson at quarterback, Jerry Pelletier, left halfback, Fred Farthing, right half, and Mike Reid, fullback.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - As basketball practice at the University of Minnesota advances into its third week the principal topic of conversation at courtside in Williams Arena is the Gopher sophomore crop.

The three newcomers attracting this attention are Louis Hudson, 6-5 forward and a product of All-America Bobby Bell's hometown of Greensboro, North Carolina, leads the fine array of Gopher freshmen. His running mate upcourt could be 6-3 Don Yates, who hails from former Gopher football All-American Sandy Stephens' hometown, Uniontown, Pennsylvania. The third highly touted prospect, although not able to claim any football heritage, is Archie Clark, an army veteran from Ecorse, Michigan.

The Gophers, however, have two sophomore starters of last year figuring prominently in Kundla's plans for the 1963-64 season. Terry Kunze, 6-3 guard from Duluth Central and Mel Northway, 6-8 center from Patrick Henry in Minneapolis, return to give the Gophers added depth.

Five other lettermen are back, including co-captains Bill Davis, 6-6 forward from Richfield, and 6-5 Bob Jensen, from Billings, Montana.

Clear-out patterns, blocking-out drills, fast break sprints, full-court breaks comprise the daily agenda at Williams Arena as Coach Kundla prepares his squad for the Kansas State inaugural.

"We've just begun to get into shape," said Kundla, after the termination of last week's heavy scrimmage. "There are still many mistakes, but the shooting is improved and the reserves are performing well." Practice sessions thus far have been devoted to offense and Kundla plans to stress defense manuevers this week.

The Gophers lost some capable men in Eric Magdanz, Tom McGrann, and Bob Bateman through graduation. They formed the core of the team that was the Big Ten's best in defense. However, the Kundla's "new look" will have more speed, better jumpers, and probably improved rebounding.

Last year the Gophers were tied for fourth place. They should be at least that good this year.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Twenty-six days until Kansas State! This concise statement, so decisively scrawled on the locker room blackboard, emphasizes the nearness of the non-conference opener for the University of Minnesota basketball team.

However, there is another date that Coach John Kundla is preparing his chargers for in a hurriedly fashion. And, that is the annual inter-squad contest slated for Tuesday, November 19 at Williams Arena.

"We've started to bear down and have accelerated our pace," said Kundla. "We are still looking for the best combination and have adjusted our offense to get the most from our players."

With this forbearing thought, Kundla has made some personnel changes since the beginning of practice nearly one month ago.

David Wykes, Jr. 6-6, 195 pound sophomore from St. Paul Central, was switched from forward to center in an attempt to bolster the reserves behind returning regular Mel Northway. Don Yates, the 6-2 sophomore from Uniontown, Pennsylvania, has alternated between guard and forward for several weeks. It appears that he will eventually remain at guard, a position more conducive to his speed and agility.

"I am particularly impressed with the caliber of competition," said Kundla. "It keeps everybody alert and more aggressive," Kundla concluded.

Emphasis on individual defense highlighted practice sessions last week with team defense to be accentuated for the remainder of this week. "We want to polish up our fundamentals on defense after working on offense for the first three weeks," said Kundla.

If Kundla had to cite one aspect of this year's team that will prove to be a decisive factor as the season progresses, it would have to be team balance and the effective play of several reserves.

Only one senior is inserted into the tentative starting lineup with the remainder a balance of juniors and sophomores. In addition, Kundla has co-captain Bob Jensen, Billings, Montana; Alan Druskin, St. Louis Park; and Don Linehan, Hudson, Wisconsin, available to provide much needed depth.

As Kundla so aptly concluded, "It is a pleasure to work with such material."

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Coach Murray Warmath prays that the charitable University of Minnesota football Gophers will discard the role of Santa Claus when they invade Iowa City Friday to engage the tough-luck Hawkeyes for the 58th time since this keen rivalry began back in 1891.

Not that Coach Warmath objects to generosity, but when it comes to giving the ball away to football opponents -- this is where he figures charity should and MUST end. To the stinging chagrin of Warmath and the Gophers, "fumbles lost" is the only department in which they currently top all other Conference teams. They surrendered four of five fumbles in losing to Illinois, repeated the miscues but managed to overcome them in edging Michigan 6 - 0, and then bobbled the ball away thrice in last Saturday's loss to Indiana. To make matters worse in the setback by the Hoosiers, they handed over the ball three times on pass interceptions.

Inasmuch as Warmath's basic concept of winning football is based on "possession and position," it is easy to understand his utter frustration of the moment as Minnesota shares eighth place in the Big Ten standings with Saturday's foe, the Hawkeyes, on a 1 - 3 record.

As almost anyone with a live brain cell could imagine, the Gophers are concentrating their efforts in practice this week on ball-handling as they prepare to go after their fourth win in a row over the Hawkeyes. The Maroon and Gold prevailed by 27 - 10 in 1960, squeaked by 16 - 9 in 1961, and captured a 10 - 0 decision in 1962.

Not only is the fumbilitis epidemic, unapproached in Warmath's nine previous seasons at Minnesota, causing the head man and his staff grave concern. They are equally as puzzled by the late-game sags that find six opponents holding a 40 - 8 scoring edge in the fourth quarter. Minnesota's powerhouse of 1960 - 61 - 62 were known as great second half teams. This year the Gophers have outscored the combined opposition 10 - 7 in the first quarter; 20 - 16 in the second quarter, and 19 - 14 in the third period, only to yield a 32 - point edge in the fourth frame.

Just what measures Warmath & Co. will institute this week to cure these game-losing ills must remain a practice field secret. Because of the dearth of experienced material and combat-ready sophomores, there isn't much he can do talent - wise. He has little choice but to go along with the players who have carried the load so far. A possible trend toward the younger players was hinted in the Indiana game in which sophomores put in more playing time than in any other contest to date.

The Gophers are in about average physical condition for the Iowa engagement. Captain Milt Sunde is nursing a hand injury. Bill Dallman, an alternate guard, was hospitalized after the Indiana game because of a possible concussion. Fred Nord, an alternate tackle, and Dan Drexler, a starting end earlier in the season, missed the Michigan and Indiana games because of injuries, but may be ready for the Hawkeyes.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Chances of the University of Minnesota football team of moving up out of the Big Ten cellar position it shares with Indiana will depend on the ability of the Gophers to overcome their number one Conference nemesis -- Purdue -- when the two teams come to grips Saturday at Lafayette, Indiana.

Back in 1949 one of Bernie Bierman's powerhouse outfits with Clayton Tonnemaker, Leo Nomellini, Bud Grant, Gordie Soltau, etc. appeared to be headed for Minnesota's first Rose Bowl bid, only to be rudely dumped by the Boilermakers, 13 - 7.

The 1960 Gophers, on their way to the national championship and a tie for the Big Ten title, suffered their only setback of the season at Purdue's hands, 23 - 14. Last fall Minnesota, very much in contention for the Big Ten title, decisively vanquished Northwestern, Illinois, Michigan, Michigan State, and Iowa, only to squeak by Purdue 7 - 6 in a fiercely fought, bitterly contested battle. Fans cannot recall a meeting between these two keen rivals in "modern times" in which the Gophers haven't paid a big price in aches, pains, and bruises for their efforts against the Boilermakers who traditionally play a punishing game with each renewal of this rivalry dating back to 1894.

Efforts of the Minnesota coaching staff this week are concentrated on eliminating the fumbilitis that has plagued the Gophers in losses to Illinois, Indiana, and Iowa. They have fumbled the ball 20 times in their last four games, surrendering it on 13 occasions. These miscues have made a sustained offense a virtual impossibility.

place of sophomore Fred Farthing. Pelletier's promotion was a reward for his fine performance after entering the Iowa game in the fourth quarter. He gained 48 yards on three plays from scrimmage, and returned two Hawkeye kickoffs 58 yards on scintillating runs. Another switch found sophomore Bob Bruggers displacing senior Myron Rognlie at left end with the first unit.

Status of Captain Milt Sunde, left tackle, who suffered a head injury in the Iowa game and was placed under observation in the University of Minnesota Hospitals over the weekend, remained in doubt early this week.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. -- Minnesota Gopher fans have reminisced over the exploits of George Kline, Bud Hamilton and Jed Dommeyer in 1956 as they vainly attempted to give the Gophers their first basketball crown since 1939. Several years earlier Dick Garmaker, Ed Kalafat and Charlie Mencil carried the Gophers to a 17-5 record in one of the most exciting basketball campaigns in recent Gopher history.

Any loyal Gopher basketball fan can relate the superlative performances of Ron Johnson, Eric Magdanz and Paul Lehman. Supporters of these former Gopher greats will get an opportunity to see their favorites in action once again in the preliminary alumni game Tuesday, November 19, at Williams Arena. Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the game will pair the alumni of 1960 and earlier against alumni of 1960-63.

Although the preliminary contest should provide enough entertainment for any enthusiastic basketball fan, an 8:30 p.m. feature will include the annual inter-squad game and provide the spectators with their first look of the 1963-64 squad.

Coach John Kundla has committed himself to a tentative starting lineup in practice scrimmages the past four weeks but is undecided how he will divide up the squad for the inter-squad contest.

Kundla has sent his team through some stiff practice sessions and admits that he has accelerated the pace in preparing for the inter-squad tussle.

For the spectators, it will mean a chance to see three of the most heralded sophomores in college basketball. Louis Hudson, 6-5, Greensboro, North Carolina; Don Yates, 6-3, Uniontown, Pennsylvania; and Archie Clark, 6-1, Ecorse, Michigan, have drawn praise for their performances on the hardcourt. Terry Kunze, 6-3 guard from Duluth (Central) and Mel Northway, 6-8 center and a graduate of Minneapolis (Patrick Henry), are included in the core of the basketball squad which Kundla will build around to better last season's fifth place finishers.

The following is a list of the alumni scheduled to appear at Williams Arena in the preliminary contest with their year of graduation: Charles Mencil, 1955; Edward Kalafat, 1954; Richard Garmaker, 1955; Wayne Fix, 1957; Glen Reed, 1954; Bud Hamilton, 1958; Doug Bolstorff, 1955; Mack Nettleton, 1957; George Kline, 1958; Bud Finn, 1956; Dick Bracher, 1958; Jed Dommeyer, 1959. These are the "old" alumni, so designated because they have graduated before 1960. Charles Mencil has agreed to coach these 12 Gopher greats.

The "Young" alumni feature Gophers stars since 1960 and are coached by Eric Magdanz. His squad consists of Jay Kessler, 1963; Bob Bateman, 1963; Don Stang, 1963; Jim Gilbertson, 1963; Cal Sabatini, 1961; Tom Skadeland, 1961; Ron Johnson, 1960; Tom Kezar, 1963; Noel Rohr, 1960; Norm Grow, 1962; Paul Lehman, 1960.

Here is an opportunity to see the Gopher players of several years ago and also view the 1963 squad that Coach John Kundla has assembled for the 1963-64 season. Remember, the date is Tuesday, November 19, at Williams Arena. The preliminary game begins at 7:30 with the varsity inter-squad contest scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The situation will be markedly different. But the same old intense spirit of rivalry will prevail when football teams of the University of Wisconsin and the University of Minnesota clash for the 72nd time Saturday in Memorial Stadium here. The game will be televised regionally.

When the Badgers and Gophers clashed a year ago at Madison all the chips were in the pot -- the championship of the Big Ten Conference was the prize. The home forces came from behind in a hectic finish, 14 - 9, to claim the stakes. Both teams have disappointed their followers and come into this traditional battle for Paul Bunyan's Axe with a history of missed opportunities, frustration, fumbles, and inconsistency.

Wisconsin holds victories over Western Michigan, 41-0; Notre Dame, 14-9; Purdue, 38-20; Iowa, 10-7; and Northwestern, 17-14. It has bowed to Ohio State, 13-10; Michigan State, 30-13; and Illinois, 17-7.

Minnesota's two victories were at the expense of Army, 24-8, and Michigan, 6-0. Its losses were to Nebraska, 14-7; Northwestern, 15-8; Illinois, 16-6; Indiana, 24-6; Iowa 27-13; and Purdue 13-11.

Quarterback troubles and fumbilitis have plagued both Wisconsin and Minnesota this season. Lettermen Harold Brandt and Ron Frain have been unable to move the Badgers with consistency. Sophomore Dave Fronck is slated to start Saturday. Minnesota has alternated at quarterback between Larry Peterson, a fairly strong runner with a poor passing record, and Bob Sadek, a less than mediocre runner who has completed 51 of 115 aeriels for 557 yards. Peterson and Sadek have shared in the damaging miscues which have found the Gophers losing the ball 16 times on 24 fumbles in their last five contests. Sadek has the nod from Coach Murray Warmath for Saturday, indicating that the Minnesota coaching staff figures the forward pass is its best bet for a victory bid.

The overhead game has likewise been Wisconsin's most effective offensive weapon. Its passing department will be at full strength for the Gopher tilt with the return to action of left end Jim Jones, ace receiver who missed last Saturday's Illinois game because of an injury sustained a week earlier. Jones has snagged 22 passes for 379 yards, and has taken in three for touchdowns. Fred Reichardt, 213-pound junior right halfback, has snared 24 passes and Lou Holland, speedy left half, has been on the receiving end 14 times, with three resulting in touchdowns. Brandt has been an effective passer, completing 63 of 121 passes for 771 yards and five TD's. His percentage figure is surpassed by Fronck's 21 completions in 35 tries good for 301 yards.

Holland and his alternate at left halfback, Carl Silvestri, are tops among Badger backs in rushing statistics. Both have a five-yard plus average.

Minnesota, bulwarked in the front line by its two fine tackles, Captain

Milt Sunde and All America candidate Carl Eller, has steadily improved its defense against rushing, a statistic in which it led the nation in 1962. However, both Indiana and Iowa used passing games effectively to score decisive wins over the Gophers. Wisconsin can be expected to try and exploit this weakness in the enemy defenses.

Despite their disappointing season to date, Coach Murray Warmath and his proteges have found no difficulty in "getting up" for the season's finale. The Gophers well remember the bitter disappointment and frustration of their last-minute loss to the Badgers a year ago at Madison. The revenge motive burns hotly on the Minnesota practice field this week. Prospects of achieving this objective have been dimmed by the early-week absence from practice of No. 1 and No. 2 fullbacks, Mike Reid and Jay Sharp, respectively. Both are nursing injuries. Reid has been the workhorse of the Maroon and Gold backfield, carrying the ball 83 times for a net of 319 yards and a 3.8 per play average. He also handles the kickoffs, PAT's, and field goal tries.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. An Alumni squad dotted with U. S. Olympic players will offer a stiff challenge to the University of Minnesota hockey team Thursday night in the Gophers' 1963-64 ice-breaker.

The contest is set for 8 p.m. at Williams Arena and will be free to the public. It will be preceded by a freshman intra-squad preliminary game at 6:30 p.m.

Seven members of the Alumni have survived all Olympic cuts to date, although the U. S. squad still must be pared down by seven. They are defensemen Jim Westby, Wayne Meredith and Tom McCoy; center Dave Brooks; wings Gary Schmalzbauer, Len Lilyholm and Herb Brooks.

Other former Gopher stars on display tonight will be defensemen Louis Nanne, Larry Alm, and Dick Young; centers Jim Stordahl, Larry Smith and Roger Rovick; wings Ken Yackel, Dick Meredith, Marv Jorde, Ron Constantine, Jerry Melnychuk, Dave Rovick and Dale Rasmussen.

Nanne and Yackel were all-Americans while playing for Minnesota, in 1956 and '63 respectively. Nanne was leading scorer and most-valuable player in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association last winter.

Bill Fabian, who will rejoin the Gopher varsity in January after being ineligible, will handle the Alumni goaltending chores.

Pitted against the "Old Grads" will be a young varsity which has promise but must come up with some capable defensemen if it is to have a successful season. Only co-captain Dave Metzen and junior Pat Furlong return from last year's blueline contingent. Help must come from non-lettering juniors Dean Carlson and Jim Anderson along with sophomores Frank Zywiec and Dick Swanson.

There is no shortage of good forwards, however. Lettermen include center Dick Haigh and wings Larry Stordahl, Bill Ramsay, Craig Falkman, Roy Nystrom and Dick Bloom. Co-Captain Stordahl has been bothered by a knee injury, however, and is not expected to play Thursday. Good sophomore prospects are centers Doug Woog and Lorne Grosso along with wings Bruce Larson, Gary Hokanson, Mark Ryman, Mike Alm and John Torrel.

One of the most talented sophomores Gary McAlpine, has been lost to the Olympic squad. He was rated the finest young goaltender to enroll at Minnesota since Jack McCartan. His place will be taken by two other capable sophomores; John Lothrop and Jim Boosalis.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - A piece of taconite molded into the form of a puck is to become the symbol of Minnesota collegiate hockey supremacy.

It also will be the highlight of the Gopher Blue Line Club's first 1963-64 season luncheon Friday, the day of this winter's initial University of Minnesota-UMD hockey game at Williams Arena.

The taconite symbol is affixed to the top of the "Taconite Hockey Trophy," which will be on display at the club's meeting. It is being offered by the UMD Blue Line Club, with a vital assist from Pickands-Mather & Co. of Duluth, as an annual award to the winner of the Minnesota - UMD hockey series. The winner will be decided by total goals in case of ties.

The upcoming season will be the second for the Gopher Blue Line Club. Six noon luncheons are slated for Jax Cafe and will feature appearances by Coach John Mariucci and visiting coaches, starting with UMD's Ralph Romano at Friday's kickoff luncheon. Members of this year's Gopher Alumni also will be introduced Friday.

A highlight of the next meeting on December 17 will be the appearance of members of the U. S. Olympic Team.

Outstanding players from the five metropolitan area high school hockey conferences will be honored at individual luncheons during the winter and an all-metropolitan honor team will be named at the final session.

Other meetings are slated for January 10 and 24, February 7 and March 6.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Having escaped from its annual battle against the Gopher Alumni with a 4-4 tie, the University of Minnesota's young hockey team faces more family feuding this weekend when it hosts UMD at Williams Arena Friday night and then travels to Duluth for a Saturday clash.

Defending state high school champion St. Paul Johnson tangles with Minneapolis North in the preliminary.

The Gophers and Bulldogs will be battling for the third consecutive year. So far the former have had all the better of things, with five victories in six games. UMD has been able to counter with just one tie, a 4-4 affair at the port city last winter.

Coach John Mariucci was encouraged by the Gophers' showing against the Alumni last week, especially the performance of the sophomore line of center Doug Woog and wings Bruce Larson and Gary Hokanson. Larson scored two goals to pace Gopher point production. The "Old Grad" squad, heavily sprinkled with members of the 1963-64 U. S. Olympic Team, was rated the strongest ever. The tie mark the first time in the history of the series that the Varsity has not won.

The key to Minnesota's season still is the defense. How strong it will be remains to be seen. Three of last year's top blueliners, including All-American Louis Nanne, are gone. Co-Captain Dave Metzen and Pat Furlong are the only experienced returnees.

An encouraging aspect of the Alumni contest was the fine play of sophomore goalie John Lothrop who showed quickness and poise under fire. Except for a brief stretch in the third period, he held the Alumni in check.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Figures released today by the University of Minnesota Athletic Department disclose that grades of Gopher student-athletes compare favorably with those of other male students at the University.

Minnesota athletes compiled an overall honor point ratio of 2.41, or C plus, for the 1962-63 academic year -- just three hundredths of a point lower than the 2.44 average turned in by all male students at the University.

Student honor point averages at the University are figured on the ratio of 1.00 for a D average, 2.00 for C, 3.00 for B and 4.00 for A.

Of 296 student-athletes expected to participate in Minnesota's 11 varsity sports this year, 39 have an honor-point ratio over 3.00, or B plus. More than half of the overall total receive some kind of scholastic financial aid.

Tennis recorded the highest honor point average -- 2.67. Following were swimming, 2.62; golf, 2.58; baseball, 2.48; track, 2.46; wrestling, 2.42; hockey, 2.31; football, 2.26; basketball, 2.25; gymnastics, 1.98.

Leading the way individually is sophomore tennis player David Rosenberg with a straight A average (4.00). The top students in each of the other sports are: Renard Valenciano, baseball, 3.63; Melvin Northway, basketball, 2.65; William Bevan, football, 3.46; Robert Hustralid, golf, 3.60; Ronald Eklund, gymnastics, 2.97; Douglas Woog, hockey, 2.93; Joseph Clack, swimming, 3.59; Wayne Treibwasser, track and cross country, 3.30; John Wittenberger, wrestling, 3.28.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Coach John Kundla will unveil the skepticism concerning the 1963-64 basketball squad this Saturday as the University of Minnesota Gophers invade basketball-minded Kansas State University.

It has been nearly six weeks since Kundla called his squad together for the first practice session of the season. And since that time enthusiastic basketball supporters have hurled accolades as "championship potential," "exciting campaign," and "good year forecasted."

Skepticism, yes, because the Gopher season undoubtedly rests on the shoulders of three untried sophomores. They are Archie Clark, 6-1, Ecorse, Michigan; Louis Hudson, 6-5, Greensboro, North Carolina; and Don Yates, 6-3, Uniontown, Pennsylvania.

Although Kundla has not committed himself to a definite starting lineup, it appears that he will lead the new campaign with the following boys: Bill Davis and Louis Hudson at forwards, Mel Northway at center, and Terry Kunze and Don Yates or Archie Clark at guards.

It has been a common custom for Kundla to schedule the toughest non-conference slate as possible in hopes that his team will become better prepared for the important conference season. This season is no exception. Saturday's opponent, Kansas State, tied for the Big Eight championship last year and "are just as good this year" according to Dan Spika, assistant basketball coach.

"They have been ranked as one of the top 10 teams in the nation," said Spika. "Also, they had one of their best freshman teams in history last season."

"We feel that we are capable of beating any team in this country," said Spika. "We won't be awed by their rankings or past history."

If the Gophers refuse to be awed by the high standing of this Kansas State squad, perhaps they will be when 7-1 center Roger Suttner and 6-5 All-American candidate, Willie Murrell, lead their squad on the court.

Nevertheless, both teams are anticipating the opener of the new season and are anxious to begin on a winning note. As Coach John Kundla so appropriately concluded, "Our squad will be ready."

MINNEAPOLIS. - The loss of co-captain Larry Stordahl for the season because of a knee injury is the latest in a long list of troubles which have afflicted the University of Minnesota hockey team this year.

Stordahl, who tied for third in team scoring last winter and was expected to be the chief offensive threat on this year's squad has been sidelined by ligament trouble since before the campaign's start. He has been ordered to rest the knee for a month. Then the possibility of an operation will be explored.

His loss is a severe blow to a team already hard hit by graduation losses, ineligibility and the departure of prime sophomore goalie prospect Gary McAlpine in an unsuccessful attempt to make the U.S. Olympic team.

No fewer than eight of the top 1962-63 performers have graduated: defensemen Louis Nanne, Jim Westby and Tom McCoy and forwards Dave Brooks, Len Lilyholm, Gary Schmalzbauer, Jim Stordahl and Ron Constantine. In addition, both of last year's goalies, Roger Groth and Bill Fabian, were declared ineligible. Two top sophomore defense prospects, Billy Johnson and Jerry Edman, also were victims of ineligibility. Fabian and Edman, however, are expected to be available for service winter quarter.

Ironically, McAlpine, who left school to try out for the Olympic squad, was cut from the U. S. roster this week. He was rated the best Gopher goalie prospect since Jack McCartan.

Coach John Mariucci is a bit downcast by all this misfortune, but the irrepressible "Maroosh" is hopeful that his young squad will be able to give a good account of itself with more seasoning.

"It's just as I said before the season started," he explains. "This has got to be a rebuilding year, now more than ever. We'll keep working hard, however, and we'll surprise a few teams before the season ends."

Mariucci is confident that he has some first-rate future prospects among his sophomores. "There's a lot of talent there," he says. "But I'm afraid some of our guys are a year away from their potential."

The Gophers' next game will be December 17 when they entertain the Olympic team at Williams Arena. Then they will play in the Boston Tournament December 20-21-23 before returning home for a clash with Army, December 28.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - The University of Minnesota's victory-hungry hockey team, inactive since November 30, will break its long competitive drought next Tuesday (December 17) with a tough assignment: defeat a strong U. S. Olympic squad which has played, and won, regularly for the last two weeks.

The young Gophers who have been plagued by various and sundry personnel losses so far this season will be seeking to break a two-game losing streak and register their initial win of the campaign. To date they have been able to salvage only a 4-4tie with the Alumni.

Coach John Mariucci is wary of the Olympic team which has won seven and tied one game in its first 10 starts. Among its victims have been such Western Collegiate Hockey Association powers as Denver, Michigan Tech and Colorado College. The red, white and blue sextet also has downed UMD which has twice beaten the Gophers.

The Olympic roster is studded with Minnesotans, both from the state and from the University. Eight former Gophers are among the 18 U. S. players. They are defensemen Tom McCoy, Wayne Meredith and Jim Westby and forwards Herb Brooks, Oscar Mahle, Dave Brooks, Len Lilyholm and Gary Schmalzbauer.

In addition, seven other Olympians also hail from Minnesota, although they did not play for the University. These include goalie Tom Yurkovich and Capt. Bill Reichart, a center, both of Rochester; forwards Dan Dilworth, International Falls; Paul Johnson, West St. Paul; Dates Fryberger, Duluth; Marsh Tschida, St. Paul; and defenseman Don Ross, Roseau.

Johnson played on the 1960 championship Olympic squad and Fryberger was a two-time all-American while playing for Middlebury.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - Coach John Kundla has in mind a practical exam for several of his University of Minnesota basketball pupils when the Gophers return to action against South Dakota University Saturday in Williams Arena after an 11-day layoff for final classroom examinations.

Slated for some extensive "testing" against the Coyotes are Wes Martins, sophomore guard from Moorhead, Dave Nelson, junior guard from Minneapolis, Dennis Dvoracek, 6 - 6 sophomore forward from Eau Claire, Wisconsin, Don Linehan, senior forward from Hudson, Wisconsin, Dave Wykes, 6 - 6 junior center from St. Paul, and Jim Ginsburg, 6 - 7 junior center from Minneapolis. These squad members have seen only limited action so far this season as Co-captains Bill Davis and Bob Jensen, Mel Northway, Louis Hudson, Don Yates, Terry Kunze, and Archie Clark have carried the load in victories over Kansas State, Houston University, and Iowa State.

Kundla, fretting over the necessary inactivity of the Gophers, is eager to get a good look at these reserves in hopes of building some bench strength. Says John, "Unless we can develop more player depth we are going to be in trouble in the tough campaign ahead of us. We must have someone to spell off the starters when they tire, and to step in and take over if and when one of them is having an off night."

Martins, one of the top five freshmen a year ago, has been hampered by a shoulder injury, but will be ready for action against South Dakota. Nelson, a standout as a prep at Minneapolis Roosevelt high, has suffered repeated outbreaks of boils and has been below par physically since the start of practice. Linehan is recovering from a foot injury that idled him for 10 days.

Kundla is hopeful that Jensen, No. 1 alternate at forward and center, will find his eye for the basket Saturday night. "Bob has the ability to help us a great deal," says Kundla, "but he has been away off on his shooting so far."

Kundla plans to start Davis and Hudson at the forwards, Northway at center, and Kunze and Yates at guards against the Coyotes.

The Minnesota freshmen will lead off Saturday night's program in an intra-squad game starting at 6:15 p.m. Tip-off time for the Minnesota - South Dakota game is 8:00 p.m.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - With final exams finally out of the way, Coach John Mariucci's University of Minnesota hockey team returns to the ice wars Tuesday night after a 17-day layoff. The opposition will be the United States Olympic team which has been far from inactive, having played 12 games since Nov. 26 and fashioning a 9-2-1 record.

The contest is scheduled for 8 p.m. in Williams Arena with a high school preliminary game between St. Paul Monroe and Brooklyn Center slated for 6:30 p.m.

"The long layoff for finals has hurt us," admits the usually ebullient Coach John Mariucci. "We had our first full-fledged practice in more than a week Friday. It's almost like starting all over again."

Mariucci has great respect for the U.S. Olympic squad. "They're tough, no doubt about that," he avows. "They've been playing almost daily for the past three weeks and should be in great shape."

The Gopher coach plans no lineup changes for the Olympic clash. "We'll stay with the same lineup we used against UMD," he says. That means ex-center Dick Haigh will be staying at defense and Mike Alm, a converted wing, will continue in Haigh's center spot.

Mariucci hopes his defensive problems will be eased once Haigh gets used to the new position. The Gopher blueline aggregation has been relatively ineffective thus far in the campaign.

Despite his robust goals-against record of 5.33 per game, goalie John Lothrop enjoys Mariucci's confidence. "Most of the goals scored against him haven't been his fault, he declares. "We haven't been covering well enough."

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - John Kundla, a star performer in Minnesota basketball victories over Long Island University and New York University in New York City's Madison Square Garden 26 years ago this month, returns to that stately structure Thursday to pit the Gophers against Cornell, Dayton, Providence, St. John's, St. Joseph's Utah, and Villanova in the 12th annual Holiday Basketball Festival of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Minnesota's first round foe at 7:00 p.m. Thursday will be Cornell, an Ivy League powerhouse. The winner in this game will advance to the semifinals against the Providence - St. Joseph's victor at 9:00 p.m. Saturday. The championship will be decided Monday, December 30.

The young Gophers who have compiled a 5-2 record in meeting some of the "best in the West," will get their first taste of Eastern basketball in the upcoming tournament. With Utah, the only other Western entry, in the upper bracket, these two teams could not meet before the championship game. Should Minnesota succumb to Cornell in the first round, it will go into the consolations against the Providence - St. Joseph's loser Saturday at 4:00 p.m.

The big question in the mind of Coach John Kundla as his forces head Eastward is "Will they play as erratically as they did in losing to Bradley and Wichita, or will they play as soundly as they did in winning from Kansas State, Houston University, and Drake?" Kundla feels that the wins over Iowa State and South Dakota proved very little in so far as the mettle of the Gophers is concerned.

Co-captain Bill Davis (6-6), a senior, and Lou Hudson (6-5), a sophomore, will start at the forwards; Mel Northway (6-8), a junior, at center; and Terry Kunze (6-3), a junior, and Don Yates (6-3), a sophomore, at the guards.

Hudson is tops in individual scoring with 106 points and a 15.1 average, followed by Northway with 100 and a 14.2 average. Co-captain Davis is the leading rebounder with 70. Northway is right behind with 67.

"The Gophers"

MINNEAPOLIS. - A considerably more optimistic University of Minnesota hockey team returns to Williams Arena Saturday for a clash with Army after winning its first two victories of the season in the Boston Tournament last weekend.

Game time is 8 p.m. with a high school preliminary between Warroad and St. Louis Park slated for 6:30.

The Gophers went East a week ago without a victory in four starts. They remedied that unpleasant situation by defeating Boston University 4-2 and Northeastern 5-1 before bowing to Harvard 5-2 in the tourney's finale.

Army's invasion of Minnesota will be the first western trip in history for the Cadets who have a 4-2 record and are considered one of the tougher eastern clubs this year. They started the campaign with four straight wins over American International 10-1, Hamilton College 8-1, Middlebury 11-1 and Harvard, Minnesota's latest conqueror, 5-1. Then followed successive defeats at the hands of Boston College 10-2 and Brown 4-1.

The Cadets retain four of their five leading scorers from last year: Mike Thompson, Capt. Gary Johnson, Bart Barry and Dick Peterson. Thompson and Johnson are Minnesotans, hailing from Two Harbors and Coleraine respectively. They also boast a strong veteran defense paced by goalie Neil Mieras and defensemen Ron Butterfield and Peterson.

Roy Nystrom paces Gopher scoring after the first seven games with nine points on five goals and four assists. Bruce Larson and Dick Haigh follow with seven points each. Goalie John Lothrop continues to star in the net despite a goals against average of 5.00. Most of these goals had not been his fault. He has made 211 stops for an average of 30 per game.
