SURVEY OF MINORITY PROGRAMS, SERVICES, AND RESOURCES

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Purpose of Project
To identify, profile and catalog the minority student and faculty programs within the University of Minnesota system in order to provide a basis for improving their overall effectiveness.

Scope of Project
52 separate programs offering resources to minority students were identified. Interviews were held with persons responsible for minority programs within each of the University's colleges, campuses, graduate and professional schools, administration and certain related organizations directly or indirectly affiliated with the University. See Exhibit for listing of persons interviewed.

Information Obtained
A summary of each program identified has been prepared and is included in this survey. The following information for each program has been summarized:

Program objective
Services offered
Sources of funds
Program personnel
Reporting requirements
Outreach activities
Supporting services offered

Separate data sheets have been prepared for each program.

A matrix of the existing programs and services currently provided by each follows.

OFFICE OF MINORITY AND SPECIAL STUDENT AFFAIRS

flo wiger
1901 University Avenue, Room 310
Minneapolis, MN  55455
   625-9556

OBJECTIVE
Provide necessary support to minority students to ensure retention and graduation to undergraduate students at the Twin Cities campus.

SERVICES
OMSSA serves students meeting two of the following criteria:

1. recognized ethnic or racial minority;
2. educationally disadvantaged; or
3. financially disadvantaged.

OMSSA Central acts as administrative coordinator for the following OMSSA programs:

1. Learning Resource Centers (LRC)
   see Learning Resource Centers

2. Summer Institute
   see Summer Institute

3. Student Cultural Centers
   see Student Cultural Centers

SOURCES OF FUNDS
OMSSA Central, LRC, and Summer Institute funding is through general budget allocations, except private grants to Asian LRC. Student Cultural Centers are also funded by Student Service Fees. 1987-88 general budget allocations were:

PERSONNEL
OMSSA Central employs full-time and part-time personnel. Each LRC has one full-time director, one or two counselors, and several work-study assistants. Summer Institute teachers are paid through the Summer Session program budget.

REPORTING
OMSSA Central presents an annual budget and copies of staff meetings to VP-Student Affairs.

OUTREACH
Students are contacted by Prospective Students, word of mouth, and other colleges and programs.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES
MLK, Project Technology Power, and other minority student programs.
American Indian Learning Resource Center

Roger Buffalohead, Director
University of Minnesota
125 Fraser Hall
106 Pleasant Street S.E.
Minneapolis, MN 55455
(612) 624-2555

Objective
To provide guidance, coordination and academic support for OMSSA certified American Indian students in planning, executing and completing their degree programs.

Services
Financial aid counseling for assistance in applying for and qualifying for federal, state, and tribal American Indian scholarships and grants.

Academic and career counseling, including career workshops.
Tutoring and referral to resources in appropriate colleges.
Orientation, survival skills seminars and health workshops.
Admission information and advising.
Recruiting activities in the American Indian community.

Sources of Funds
Funding from internal University funds. 1987-88 general budget allocations were $122,000.

The Doepke Fund is a discretionary fund administered by the American Indian Learning Resource Center. Its policies and procedures are currently in a state of transition and review.

Personnel
Roger Buffalohead, Director.
Secretary.
One counselor.
Part-time work from students.
REPORTING

The American Indian Learning Resource Center reports to OMSSA. OMSSA has weekly meetings with the Directors of the LRC's giving oral reports of activities. This reporting is formalized during the budgeting process to include "Objectives and Tasks" reporting.

The American Indian Learning Resource Center maintains internal tracking records for internal use.

OUTREACH

Close working relationship with urban American Indian agencies and tribal governments.

The American Indian LRC publishes a "Community Resource Directory" that lists the resources available in the metropolitan area. This includes the resources at the University of Minnesota.

The use of Linda Johnston from Prospective Student Services as Minority Recruiter. Ms. Johnston works closely with the American Indian Learning Resource Center in recruiting students.

Corporate Internship Program with Honeywell and IBM.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

The American Indian Student Cultural Center is a component of the American Indian LRC. It provides support and cultural activities that attempt to enhance student retention.

The American Indian Student Association sponsors programs and social and cultural activities for American Indian students and friends.

American Indian Sciences and Engineering Society is a local chapter of a national organization for students majoring in engineering, math, computer sciences, physical sciences, and health professions.

The American Indian Law Student Organization is a group of American Indian Law students.

Various state, federal, and tribal financial aid, scholarships and grants for American Indian students.

COMMENTS

Per Roger Buffalohead, the American Indian Learning Resource Center served 272 students in the fall of 1987. The number of students served should be approximately the same for 1988.
Per Roger Buffalohead, the American Indian population is growing and their needs are also growing.
ASIAN/PACIFIC AMERICAN LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER

Dr. Nobuya Tsuchida, Director
306 Walter Library
117 Pleasant Street S.E.
Minneapolis, MN 55455
(612) 624-2317

OBJECTIVE
To provide guidance, coordination and academic support for OMSSA certified Asian/Pacific American students in planning, executing and completing their degree programs.

SERVICES
Counselors provide information and assistance on financial aid and its required documentation (largest support area.)

Comprehensive tutorial services (7-10 tutors covering most academic areas.)

Interviewing skills workshop.

Mailings to prospective employers for summer internships (Honeywell, IRS, Hennepin County, etc.)

Assessment of student eligibility for OMSSA certification and financial aid based on visa status.

Quarterly newsletter that covers a wide array of issues and keeps students and their respective communities and high schools current on the services provided by the Learning Resource Center.

The Asian/Pacific American Learning Resource Center maintains detailed tracking data on all of its students. This information is used to monitor retention and graduation rates. Also, documented statistics enable the LRC to evaluate the impact of some of its programs and its ability to meet its goals.

Publication of Asian American Studies textbooks.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Funding from internal University funds. Current year budget is utilized as follows:

$106,845 Salary expense
$33,459 Supplies expense

$140,304 Total

Testing Fees of $1,000.

Earnings from publications of approximately $1,000.

PERSONNEL

Director.

One secretary.

Four counselors.

Approximately twelve part-time student workers.

REPORTING

The Asian/Pacific American Learning Resource Center reports to OMSSA.

OMSSA has weekly meetings with the Directors of the LRC's giving oral reports of activities.

Dr. Tsuchida gives detailed statistics on retention and graduation on an ongoing basis.

OUTREACH

The quarterly newsletter serves as a major outreach tool.

Word of mouth from other students and published literature.

Interaction with Asian/Pacific American communities and organizations.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

Cambodian Student Association.
Chinese Student Association.
Hong Kong Student Association.
Japanese Student Faculty Association.
Korean Student Association.
Malaysia Students Association.
Philippine Student Association.
Singapore Student Society.
Taiwanese Association.
Thai Student Association.
Vietnamese Student Association.
United Laotian Students Association.

COMMENTS

Per Dr. Tsuchida, the Asian/Pacific American Learning Resource Center serves approximately 900 students. It is the largest of the Learning Resource Centers.

Per Dr. Tsuchida, the Asian/Pacific American LRC is the most structured of the LRC's. Consequently, its services and planning processes have become standardized.

The database maintained by the LRC is an integral part of its monitoring and reporting capabilities.
BLACK LEARNING RESOURCE CENTER

Sue Hancock, Director
323 Walter Library
117 Pleasant St Se
Minneapolis, MN  55455
625-9556

OBJECTIVE
Provide necessary support to minority students to ensure retention and graduation.

SERVICES
LRC acts as consultants to Prospective Students—Minority Recruitment. Recruiters are required to spend one day each week at their respective LRC. In addition, LRC help students complete application forms, financial aid applications, and advise students of colleges and programs available at Twin Cities' campuses.

LRC identifies minority students for specific aid programs offered by Financial Aid that result in financial aid packages consisting of a larger percentage of gift than loan money.

Students registered and certified by OMSSA are tracked—LRC receives students' quarterly grades and contacts students experiencing difficulties.

LRC will offer instruction based on students' levels of need, and will work with collegiate departments to provide necessary instruction.

Black LRC has 2 full-time counselors. Counselors provide academic and personal counseling services.

LRC offer career development seminars and post corporate internship and job opportunities.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Funding is from general budget allocations. 1987-88 funding for the Black LRC was $135,000.

PERSONNEL
One director, two counselors, and work-study assistants.

REPORTING
No formal requirements.

OUTREACH
Students are notified through Prospective Students, word of mouth, and other colleges and programs.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

Black Student Cultural Center and other minority student programs.

LRC acts as consultants to Prospective Students-Minority Recruitment. Recruiters are required to spend one day each week at their respective LRC. In addition, LRC helps students complete application forms, financial aid applications, and advise students of colleges and programs available at Twin Cities' campuses.

LRC identifies minority students for specific aid programs offered by Financial Aid that result in financial aid packages consisting of a larger percentage of gift than loan money.

Students registered and certified by OMSSA are tracked--LRC receives students' quarterly grades and contacts students experiencing difficulties. Probation review to enhance academic success.

LRC will offer instruction based on students' levels of need, and will work with collegiate departments to provide necessary instruction.

Chicano/Latino LRC has 1 full-time counselor who provides academic and personal counseling services.

LRC offers career development seminars and post corporate internship and job opportunities.

Database for tracking student progress and evaluating LRC performance.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

Funding is from general budget allocations. 1987-88 funding for the Chicano/Latino LRC was $115,000.

PERSONNEL

One director, one counselor, and work-study assistants.

OFFICE FOR MINORITY AND SPECIAL STUDENT AFFAIRS
SUMMER INSTITUTE

flo wiger
Office of Minority and Special Student Affairs
1901 University Avenue S.E., suite 310
Minneapolis, MN 55414
(612) 625-9556

OBJECTIVE
To provide OMSSA certified entering (freshman) students with the opportunity for academic enrichment in college level courses, while at the same time orientating them to the complexities of the University system, in a more personal environment.

The program should facilitate each student's individual transition from student life on the secondary level to academic and student life at the University of Minnesota.

SERVICES
Eight weeks of concentrated academic experience combined with a variety of co-curricular activities for students planning on attending the University of Minnesota in the ensuing fall quarter.

Fundamental courses in English and mathematics.

Personal Development Seminar addresses study skill development and deals with the stress and anxiety that occur in the academic setting.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
1987-88 general budget allocation of $69,000 through OMSSA.

The academic salaries of the instructors of the Institute are paid through the Summer Session budget.

PERSONNEL
Program administrator.

Various staff, support, and counseling personnel.

REPORTING
None. All reporting is within OMSSA and the Summer Institute.
OUTREACH

Recruiting through the minority communities.

Minority students are notified of the Summer Institute from a computer listing of minority applicants generated by Student Support Services.

Word of mouth and distribution of literature.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

Grants are awarded to Summer Institute students through the Office of Financial Aid (along with other forms of aid.)

Tutorial assistance for Summer Institute classes (graduate/undergraduate tutors.)

Staff of counselors and advisors work with Summer Institute students in academic as well as personal matters.

Various social activities.

COMMENTS

Per flo wiger, the enrollment in Summer Institute for the summer of 1988 was 145 students (160 students offered to be in program.)

Per flo wiger, the Summer Institute is composed of two components: the collegiate component (through academic course offerings), and the Learning Resource Centers component described above.

OBJECTIVE
Provide cultural and extracurricular programs for minority students.

SERVICES
Four Student Cultural Centers (one for each ethnic group) provide cultural and educational programs for minority students, including leadership development, workshops, seminars, and social and recreational programs.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Student Cultural Centers receive funds from their LRCs and from Student Service Fees. 1987-88 Student Service Fee allocations were:

PERSONNEL
Each Student Cultural Center has one part-time paid student director and several volunteer student staff.
REPORTING

Student directors report to their LRC director.

OUTREACH

Students are contacted through Prospective Students, LRCs, and other colleges and programs.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

LRCs, Coffman Union Multicultural Programs, and other minority student programs.
COFFMAN UNION MULTICULTURAL PROGRAMS

Juan Moreno, Director
220 Coffman Memorial Union
300 Washington Ave SE
Minneapolis, MN 55455
625-4455

OBJECTIVE
Provide minority students necessary leadership and resources for cultural expression and to enhance multicultural awareness at the U of M.

SERVICES
Multicultural Programs consists of 6 programs, of which four are specifically for minority students:

1. American Indian Cultural Affairs
2. Asian/Pacific American Cultural Affairs
3. Black Cultural Affairs
4. Chicano/Latino Cultural Affairs

All Cultural Affairs programs allow minority students to interact and to sponsor cultural events at the U of M.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Funds for Cultural Affairs programs are allocated by Minnesota Union Student Service Fees. Each program receives $14,372, of which $2,300 is supplies and expense and the remainder is payroll.

PERSONNEL
One full-time director. The programs are run by student volunteers.

REPORTING
Program director reports to the Director of Coffman Memorial Union through regular staff meetings and quarterly and annual reports.

REPORTING
Student directors of each of the 4 centers report to Juan Marino, and to the director of their respective LRC. Juan Marino reports to the Director of CMU through regular staff meeting and quarterly and annual reports.
OUTREACH

Students are notified of volunteer positions in the programs through CMU volunteer position postings.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

Student Cultural Centers and the two other programs within Multicultural Programs, the International program and the Cultural Activities Grant.

COMMENTS

Cultural Activities Grant is funded by OMSSA. Cultural Activities Grants are given to any registered student organization that is organizing multicultural programming, except the Student Cultural Centers. One-fifth of OMSSA Student Fee allocation, approximately $13,000, goes to Multicultural Programs for Cultural Activities Grants.
OBJECTIVE

Provide necessary academic and counseling support to ensure academic mastery and graduation of CLA students.

SERVICES

MLK serves minority and majority students enrolled in CLA. Emphasis is on freshmen and sophomores. Approximately 450 CLA students are registered with MLK each year. In addition, MLK services 700 to 750 students from other colleges and advising offices.

MLK functions as an academic development and advising program within CLA and offers academic and support services provided by other colleges, including:

Academic Advising
MLK offers special orientation programs, help in completing financial aid applications, CLA probation review, and has signature authority for course registration.

Freshman Assessment
Incoming freshmen registered with MLK are required to take three skills tests (math, English, general skills) to aid advisers in evaluating student needs.

Academic Sections
MLK sponsors special sections of certain CLA courses that are available only to students served by MLK, including composition, math, biology, and economics. These classes provide a smaller student-to-instructor ratio, specialized tutoring support, and additional recitations.

Supplemental Instruction Sections
These sections are offered with regular CLA courses and are led by the course instructor. They provide students with additional instruction in difficult areas of study.

Computer-Aided Instruction Laboratory
The computer lab provides students with supplemental instruction models that follow the academic topics in introductory CLA courses, including review for mid-terms and final exams.
Tutoring
MLK office has approximately 30 part-time undergraduate and graduate tutors, paid through MLK, for tutoring in a variety of subjects: math, composition, economics, political science, accounting, psychology, and sociology.

Counseling
MLK offers individual and group counseling, and employs 1 full-time senior counselor.

Career Placement
MLK sponsors career development programs with the following colleges:
- School of Journalism
- School of Management
- Health Sciences (including admissions test preparation)
- Department of Psychology
- School of Education

SOURCES OF FUNDS
MLK funds are from the general budget allocation. 1987-88 budget was $168,000. In addition, other colleges provide limited funding for tutors, including the School of Management ($6,500) and the College of Education ($5,000-$10,000).

PERSONNEL
One director, 1 full-time counselor, 5 part-time counselors, 1 full-time receptionist, 2 part-time receptionists, and 30 part-time tutors.

REPORTING
Quarterly meetings and annual report to Dean of CLA.

OUTREACH
Students are contacted through Prospective Students, word of mouth, and other advising offices.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES
Inroads, Career Beginnings, Urban League

COMMENTS
Per Michael West, minority programs must focus on academic excellence, not remedial activities, to properly meet student needs.
GENERAL COLLEGE

Marjorie Cowmeadow, Assistant Dean
106 Nicholson Hall
216 Pillsbury Drive SE
Minneapolis, MN 55455
625-3339

OBJECTIVE
Offer necessary academic and counseling support to underprepared students to prepare them for successful transfer to four-year degree

SERVICES
General College admits high school graduates or students with a General Education Diploma whose P.A.R. scores are below the 150 threshold required by other freshmen-admitting colleges. General College is phasing out its Associates in Arts and Bachelors of General Studies degrees by Fall, 1991.

SERVICES
General College is a separate college with the University, and offers all academic and support services. General College does not award 4-year degrees.

Special programs within General College for minority students are as follows:

Personalized Education Program (PEP)

PEP combines academic instruction (a set curriculum), advising, workshops, and social activities to enable minority students to successfully transfer to colleges with four-year programs.

GC operates four PEPs, one for each ethnic group.

Commanding English

Commanding English is a three- to five-quarter program of academic instruction for students who are non-native speakers. Reading, writing, and oral communication skills are emphasized.

Other
Other services offered through General College, but not specifically for minority students, include:

Mathematics Learning and Assessment Center--diagnostic testing and individually prescribed programmed instruction including tutoring.

Microcomputer labs--allow students to develop computer literacy and skills
Reading and Writing Center—tutors help students with reading, writing, and study skills, and offer individual study coursework.

Special Services (TRIO)—offers counseling, tutoring, academic planning, and career planning to students who are economically disadvantaged, educationally disadvantaged, physically handicapped, or have a learning disability.

Student Parent Program—offers academic and personal counseling, tutoring, career and academic planning, and contacts for community services and financial aid. This program administers three child care funds:
- NSP Grant of $25,000
- Hennepin County grant of $80-$125,000
- Non-AFDC legislative item

Recent recruiting ventures include open houses and telemarketing.

FUNDING
PEP and Commanding English are funded by operations and maintenance funds and co-sponsored by OMSSA ($61,000). TRIO is funded by general funds and the Department of Education. The Student Parent Program is funded by general funds, $30,000 from central administration, a grant from NSP, and a grant from Hennepin County. Total GC general budget allocation in 1987-88 was $5,047,000.

PERSONNEL
General College has 50 full-time faculty, 30 full-time academic professional staff, civil service, 60 graduate teaching assistants, and 100 undergraduate teaching assistants.

REPORTING
Quarterly and annual reports to College Dean. Tracking of student progress.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES
Other minority programs.

OUTREACH
Students are notified through General College brochures, Office of Prospective Students, and word of mouth. See also recruiting above.

COMMENTS
Recruiting goal for Fall 1988 is to admit 25% of incoming freshmen (approximately 1000 students) who are students of color.
PEP is currently in transition, and its focus will become collegiate rather than programmatic.

A new base curriculum and a new advising approach is in effect for Fall, 1988.
OBJECTIVE
To identify and remove barriers which have discouraged American Indians, Blacks and Hispanics from pursuing careers in engineering or science by providing technical academic and support programs at the pre-college and college levels.

To pursue four main goals: early identification, recruitment, retention and graduation of underrepresented minority students from the Institute of Technology.

SERVICES
I. Pre-College Enrichment Programs.

- Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS) for 8th through 12th grade students. In each JETS chapter, students choose projects and competitions that are directly related to mathematics and science principles. They receive the assistance of a faculty school mentor and advisors from Honeywell in the engineering profession.

- Math Bridge for 8th grade students. Students are given the opportunity to work on innovative projects in mathematics, science and computer graphics.

- Computer Camp for 9th grade students. Classes include programming, the uses of computers in schools and business, and the use of software directed toward educational applications.

- College Preparatory Skills Program for 10th grade students. Intensive review sessions in verbal and mathematics skills, robotics seminar, self-empowerment seminar, and field trips to local companies.
SERVICES

II. College Enrichment Programs.
- Academic and career counseling.
- Tutoring.

SOURCES
OF FUNDS

The Project Technology Power has an annual budget of approximately $250,000. The majority of Project Technology Power's funding comes from corporations and is deposited into the University of Minnesota Foundation. Major contributors include, but are not limited to, the following companies:
- 3M.
- Cray Research.
- Honeywell.
- Northern States Power.

PERSONNEL

Two full time staff.
One work study student (10-15 hours per week).
Approximately 32 part-time consultants and tutors for precollege and college enrichment programs.

REPORTING

The Director of Project Technology Power reports directly to the Associate Dean of the Institute of Technology, Russell K. Hobbie.

Administrators from the Institute of Technology and corporate funders review Project Technology Power's activities quarterly.

OUTREACH

Radio, University of Minnesota cable television and newspapers.

National outreach and program brochures.

Conferences and presentations to corporate executives and community agencies.
SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

Merit Scholarships.

Practice interviews and resume writing.

Internships and permanent employment.

COMMENTS

According to the program administrators, the number of minority students in the Institute of Technology has increased by 51% in the past seven years.
HEALTH SCIENCES MINORITY PROGRAM

COMMENTS
Prior to September 1, 1988, an amount of $164,000 was available each year from a federal grant. The grant was not refunded.
CURTIS L. CARLSON SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT
CARLSON SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT MINORITY PROGRAM

Jerry Rinehart, Director of Undergraduate Studies
Michelle Grosz, Administrator of Undergraduate Studies
Candelario Zuniga, Coordinator of Undergraduate Minority Programs
290 Hubert Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs
Minneapolis, Minnesota  55455
(612) 624-3313

OBJECTIVE
To assure that the Curtis L. Carlson School of Management's (CSOM) enrollment and graduation populations represent the ethnic diversity of the community and the University as a whole.

SERVICES
Provide academic advising and counseling to CSOM minority and pre-management minority students.

Maintain a mutual relationship with the Inroads Program.

Business Association of Minorities (BAM), a student organization for current and prospective CSOM minority students, which publishes newsletter, holds meetings and sponsors career development related activities.

Contact prospective corporate funders through the Corporate Relations program.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Receive $28,500 from CSOM for salary of staff and secretarial support.

Scholarship covers tuition, plus merit award based on a combination of credits and grades. 25-30 scholarships are awarded annually. Total funds available for scholarships are approximately $50,000 per year. Scholarships are funded by the Discretionary Funds which are raised through the CSOM Associate Gift Program. On the average, each recipient receives approximately $1,700 per year. These scholarships are available for minority and/or educationally or economically disadvantaged students as certified by OMSSA who are either pre-management or management students.
PERSONNEL
One full time Coordinator.
CSOM provides some administrative and secretarial support.

REPORTING
The Director of the minority program reports to the Associate Dean twice a month and to Dean Preston Townley once a month.

Minority issues are formally discussed at the Annual Faculty Retreat.

OUTREACH
Seek to identify lower division students in CLA-MLK and other Learning Resource Centers who are interested in the business programs.

Participate in University-sponsored recruitment programs (such as Prospective Student Services, Minority Career Fairs, etc.).

Visit CLA's MLK center and GC's Help center on a weekly basis.

Visit Community Colleges in the metropolitan areas.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES
Provide $6,500 for CLA-MLK special sections of economics, accounting and management science, tutorial and preparatory support for lower division math.

Provide $5,000 for accounting special sections for minority students.

Provide $2,000 for tutorial services.

COMMENTS
According to the Director and Administrator of undergraduate minority programs, there is an increase in the entrance GPA for new admits, the number of minority applicants and the number of minorities enrolled at CSOM.
COLLEGE OF BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES
MINORITY AFFAIRS PROGRAM

Dr. Alan B. Hooper, Minority Affairs Officer
344 Gortner Laboratory
St. Paul, Minnesota 55108
(612) 624-4930

OBJECTIVE
To provide minority students with research experiences, science tutors and special "help sessions".

To match minority freshmen with mentors who can assist these students throughout their college careers.

SERVICES
Provide minority students with academic advising, counseling and tutoring.

Work with Martin Luther King (MLK) center in helping minority students with biology, biochemistry, and other science disciplines. (College of Biological Sciences pays for tutors who help biology students).

Participate in the Summer Institute Program.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Approximately $20,000 per year to pay for tutors and instructors of help sessions from College of Biological Sciences.

Included in the 1988 annual budget is a $1,500 donation from American Chemical Company.

PERSONNEL
One graduate student (10-15 hours per week).

INSTITUTE OF AGRICULTURE, FORESTRY, AND HOME ECONOMICS
MINORITY RECRUITING

Dr. Charles Williams
Minnesota Extension Service
247 Coffey Hall
1420 Eckles Avenue
St. Paul, MN 55108
(612) 625-4703

OBJECTIVE

Develop and execute systems for recruiting, retaining, and graduating minority students.

Coordinate minority recruiting systems so they are an integral component of all recruiting efforts.

Create a minority recruiting system model for the colleges of the Institute to implement and modify for their own future use.

SERVICES

To recruit minority students to the University of Minnesota (especially black graduate students.)

To provide/develop support mechanisms for student retention and graduation.

To develop and implement systems effective in recruiting and retaining minority students.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

A portion of Dr. Williams' salary is currently paid by the colleges within the Institute (approx. $17,500.)

Annual recruiting budget of $12,000 for expenses and $5,000 for secretarial work. These costs are shared among the colleges of Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics.

PERSONNEL

Director (part-time.)

Secretarial support (part-time.)

REPORTING

Meet on a periodic basis with Deans of the Institute and the colleges and discuss recruiting efforts.

OUTREACH

Network of established contacts at colleges and universities throughout the southern United States and California.

Contacts within the minority communities and the Minneapolis and St. Paul public school systems.

Referral from prior contacts/students.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

A stipend ($10,000 or more) is awarded to minority students recruited to the university for living expenses.

These stipends are coordinated by the departments and are funded from their respective budgets to ensure each department stipulates how many minority students they can properly service.

Establishing contacts with corporate officials to develop external sources of funding (i.e. Dow Chemical, Kraft.)

College of Agriculture administers a scholarship for minority students from the Cenex Corp. The scholarship is for $5,000 and the student receives $1,000 each year (for undergraduates.)

The College of Agriculture administers a Dow Chemical-Student Enrichment Fund for minority students. This is a demand type fund and it currently has $35,800 available. This fund is handled through the University of Minnesota Foundation (#101 2511.)

COMMENTS

Recruiting effort only one year old. Last year's efforts by Dr. Williams resulted in seven minority students enrolling in graduate programs at the University of Minnesota.

The College of Agriculture has submitted as part of its 1988 Legislative Request proposals to expand its minority programs to include summer employment for minority students, summer education for junior and senior high school teachers and counselors (to improve outreach), and an advising system.

All of the colleges of the Institute want to be part of a University program to recruit, retain and graduate minority students.
COLLEGE OF NATURAL RESOURCES
MINORITY PROGRAMS

Richard A. Skok, Dean
235 Natural Resources Administration Bldg.
2003 Upper Buford Circle
University of Minnesota
St. Paul, MN 55108
(612) 624-1234

OBJECTIVE
To increase the number of minority students in the College of Natural Resources by using outreach programs that create interest in minority students about related career opportunities.

To recruit minority undergraduate and graduate students.

SERVICES

American Indian Research Apprenticeship Program
A program to stimulate interest in science related careers among American Indian high school students. The program provides a hands-on eight-week working experience with the tools and processes of forest research and natural resource management (see Agriculture Experiment Station sheet.)

Native American Education Conference
Developed to create awareness of the opportunities in forestry and other disciplines among high school counselors and teachers of American Indian students. They will serve as an outreach and inform American Indian students of the opportunities in the College of Natural Resources.

Minority Recruiter
The College of Natural Resources, along with the colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics, employ Dr. Charles Williams as minority recruiter. Each of the colleges shares a portion of Dr. Williams' salary and expenses. Dr. Williams encourages and recruits minority students to enter these academic areas at the University of Minnesota (especially black students at the graduate level.)
SOURCES OF FUNDS

The apprenticeship program is funded by the USDA.
All other funding is internal and originates from the College of Natural Resources' budget.

PERSONNEL

R. A. Skok, Dean.
Dr. Charles Williams, Minority Recruiter.
Individuals involved in actual program/conference.

REPORTING

Dean Skok meets periodically with Charles Williams to discuss minority recruitment (along with the other Deans.)
Report to Agricultural Experiment Station concerning apprenticeship program.

OUTREACH

The Education Conference is anticipated to become a major outreach tool.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

None.

COMMENTS

Per Dean Skok, minority enrollment in the College of Natural Resources is small (3 students, approx. 1% of student population.) The emphasis for increasing enrollment of minority students is to create positive contacts with them at the high school level.
AGRICULTURE EXPERIMENT STATION
RESEARCH APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM

Dr. Signe T. Betsinger
Agriculture Experiment Station
220 Coffey Hall
1420 Eckles Avenue
St. Paul, MN 55108
(612) 625-4211

OBJECTIVE

To stimulate interest among minority high school students in science related careers.

SERVICES

Up to 10 week program in which minority high school students gain "first hand" experience in research and learn of related career opportunities.

Students in the program work with agriculture, forestry, and home economics.

Students are paid minimum wage for their work.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

The United States Department of Agriculture funds approved apprenticeship applications (3 for the current year.) The number of apprenticeships funded varies from year to year.

On occasion, University funds are used to supplement USDA funding of approved apprenticeships.

Students are paid minimum wage, with total wages per individual not to exceed $1,350.

PERSONNEL

Dr. Signe Betsinger.

Researchers who apply for program funding.

REPORTING

Report and work with the United States Department of Agriculture.

Dr. Manuel T. Woods, Director
Andrea C. Nelson, Assistant to the Director
1425 University Ave. S.E.
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55414
(612) 625-9039

OBJECTIVE

To increase minority student enrollment in the College of Education's undergraduate, postbaccalaurate and graduate programs.

To create an effective recruitment and retention plan that identifies, encourages, admits and enrolls minority students in College of Education.

To monitor student progress and evaluate effectiveness of recruitment and retention support programs.

SERVICES

Full range academic advising, counseling and tutoring for minority students.

The Education Student Affairs Office (ESAO) and the Martin Luther King (MLK) program conducted an eight week Academic Achievement Discussion Group for pre-education students. Fourteen minority CLA students participated in Spring, 1988.

A Minority Teacher Development Project was initiated by a task force of University administrators, faculty and students in Summer, 1988.

Peer support network for current students.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

Approximately $32,000 per year is provided by the University of Minnesota. This amount covers the salary and wages of all program personnel and some miscellaneous expenses.

OBJECTIVE
Provide academic, financial, and career planning support to minority students interested in careers in journalism.

SERVICES
School of Journalism minority student programs consist of two scholarships that offer the following:

Campbell Mithun
$1,500 annual scholarship for minority students pursuing a degree in journalism.

WCCO Scholarship Program for Minorities in Broadcasting
A scholarship of $2,500 per year for two years for minority students pursuing a B.A. or M.A. in broadcast journalism. A faculty member is the student's academic adviser; the program coordinator administers and arranges the programs and offers other support services. A one-quarter, half-time internship is available at one of the three WCCO stations. Students are also assisted in career placement. Three new scholarships are awarded each academic year.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Grants from Campbell Mithun and WCCO.

REPORTING
Annual reports to Midwest Communications, Inc. (WCCO).

OUTREACH
Students are contacted by MLK and the School of Journalism and Mass Communication.

GRADUATE SCHOOL
THE OFFICE OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN GRADUATE STUDY

Patricia Jones Whyte, Coordinator
415 Johnston Hall
101 Pleasant Street, S.E.
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
(612) 625-6858

OBJECTIVE
To assist graduate departments and other programs with their recruitment and retention efforts targeted to minority students.

SERVICES
Seek and identify prospective minority students.

Provide advising and counseling services to minority students.

Provide information on prospective minority students to departments.

Ford Foundation Fellowship - stipend of $11,000 plus tuition and fees is awarded to each recipient. Four fellowships were awarded in 1988. Recipients are chosen by the respective organization. The Office of Equal Opportunity in Graduate Study serves as the administrative unit in the Graduate School which sets up the accounts from which the students/University are paid.

Minority and Disadvantaged Graduate Student Fellowship - stipend of approximately $9,000 plus tuition (recipient must pay student fees by themselves) is awarded to each recipient. Approximately 10 fellowships are awarded by the Graduate School each year. The Graduate School also has a small fund for recruitment travel expenses. This fellowship is funded by the University with Legislative funds. The size of fellowship and its recipients are determined by the Graduate School.

Patricia Roberts Harris Fellowship (Federal fellowship) - stipend of $10,000 plus tuition and fees is awarded to each recipient. Three fellowships were awarded in 1988. These fellowships are awarded to the University and recipients are chosen by the academic departments for which funding was received. The Office of Equal Opportunity in Graduate Study coordinates the writing of the proposal submitted for federal funding and sets up the accounts which pay the students and the University.
Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) Fellowship - stipend of approximately $7,500 plus tuition. This fellowship program is sponsored by a consortium of 11 Midwestern universities, awards approximately 40 fellowships per year to minority graduate students. In 1988, eight to nine minority graduate students at the University of Minnesota received this fellowship. The Office of Equal Opportunity in Graduate Study serves as the administrative unit in the Graduate School which sets up the accounts from which the students/University are paid.

Minority Scholars Development Program - The purpose of this program is to encourage second year undergraduate minority students to develop the knowledge and attitudes necessary for successful graduate study. The program is funded by the Super-Valu Stores, Inc. Fund, the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, The Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the Graduate School. During the summer of 1988, 25 students were served at the cost of approximately $3,120 per student.

The Graduate School also administers a small grant to support minority students who are at the dissertation stage. The maximum award from this Dissertation Fellowship is $1,000 per recipient.

According to the 1987-88 University Comprehensive Budget report, the Graduate School received approximately $114,153 from the University of Minnesota central funds (0100 budget) for the Minority and Disadvantaged Students Fellowship program.

One full time coordinator.

One part time secretary.

Two part time graduate students (only during the summer) hired specifically to work with the Minority Scholars Development program.

The Coordinator reports directly to the Dean of Graduate School, Robert T. Holt, on an as needed basis and once a year in June when an annual summary of program activities is submitted.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS CENTER
MINORITY RECRUITING

Edie French
Industrial Relations Center
537 Management and Economics Building
271 19th Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
(612) 624-2500

OBJECTIVE
To recruit and retain minority students in the Industrial Relations graduate program at the University of Minnesota.

SERVICES
Recruiting efforts targeted at minority students in the Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin area (approximately 35 schools.)

To act as a liaison between students enrolled in the program and the graduate school.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
All funding is from the Department of Industrial Relations funds.

The 1987 recruiting budget was approximately $2,000. The current funding amount is approximately the same as 1987.

PERSONNEL
Edie French, Student Services Support Assistant.

Secretarial support.

REPORTING
Every 2 weeks, staff meetings are held with administrators and minority recruiting efforts are discussed.

Twice a year, statistical reports are prepared for the faculty that are a comprehensive report on all new students entering the school.

A Marketing Plan is developed around the budget plan for recruiting activities.
OUTREACH

Attendance of minority fairs and career days.

Letters are sent to minority clubs at the University of Minnesota.

Members of the faculty sometimes recruit in their travels for the school.

Planned outreach expansion to southern black schools and Native American schools.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

The Industrial Relations Council on Graduate Opportunities Advanced Level Studies (GOALS) is a nationwide coalition of industrial and labor relations graduate schools and departments which have joined in a comprehensive campaign to bring this field to the attention of minority college students, and to provide financial support to those minority students who choose to pursue their graduate level training at one of the participating schools. Minnesota is a participating school.

GOALS awards scholarships to some minority students. Three were awarded last year.

COMMENTS

Per Edie French, the most difficult part of her recruiting effort is gaining adequate access to minority students. The Industrial Relations Center wants to gain access to a network that would expand their outreach to minority students.
PROSPECTIVE STUDENT SERVICES

Linda Johnston, Student Support Services Officer

COMMENTS

For the fall quarter of 1988, approximately 1,600 undergraduate minority students applied for admission to the University of Minnesota.
OBJECTIVE
To provide accurate and timely data on minority students enrolled in the University of Minnesota.

SERVICES
Reports generated:

1. Roster of OMSSA/MLK Students Enrolled by Instructional Unit; by Ethnic Background and Instructional Unit

Purpose: To allow professional staff working with OMSSA students access to academic progress information; colleges a primary audience.

Description: Roster of students with selected demographic information and summary performance data for the last 3 academic terms plus cumulative data. Includes some summary data about groups.

Frequency: Quarterly after late grades from preceding quarter are posted.

2. All Minority/OMSSA Summary Advising Report

Purpose: To provide advising information for OMSSA central office (alpha sort), LRC's (ethnic/tracking flag sort), and colleges (college sort.)

Description: One-page report for each student showing current quarter and one previous quarter information. Includes selected demographic information, current registration, and most recent previous term registration and grades.

Frequency: Quarterly beginning of third week.
3. Ad-Hoc Reports

Purpose: To support advising and research concerning minority students.

Description: Can contain demographic information, academic information and preparation, admission information, placement information, etc.

Frequency: Reporting database is updated twice each quarter.

SOURCE OF FUNDS

Funding for these reports, with the exception of some ad-hoc reports, comes from internally budgeted funds.

PERSONNEL

Student Support Services generates these reports—Roberta Armstrong, Information Systems and Services.

REPORTING

Not applicable.

OUTREACH

Not applicable.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

None.

COMMENTS

Per Roberta Armstrong, a new Retention Reporting System should be operational by the second week of October, 1988. This reporting system will do "cohort" tracking by admission date and will use the official University of Minnesota database.

Roberta Armstrong and Dr. Ron Matross will be meeting with the LRC Directors in early September. They will try to ascertain the current reporting needs of the Learning Resource Centers.
MINORITY FACULTY RECRUITMENT PLAN

Rama Murthy, Vice Provost and Associate Vice President
213 Morril Hall
100 Church Street S.E.
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
(612) 625-3531

OBJECTIVE
Recruitment of minority faculty through funding salaries until an opening is available within the department.

SERVICES
Faculty Mentoring Program (informal and voluntary)

SOURCES OF FUNDS
$500,000 for a five year program which is funded from the President’s Discretionary Budget.
No external funding is available.

PERSONNEL
None.

REPORTING
None.

OUTREACH
None. Recruiting of faculty is up to Deans and Search Committees. No University established criteria relative to minorities, except for Affirmative Action requirements and documentation.

Departments identify qualified and capable minority faculty and hire them before there is an opening to ensure availability. This program pays their salary in the interim.

Eligibility criteria for assistance in funding faculty salaries, portion of salary eligible for funding and length of funding is not clearly defined.
SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

None.

COMMENTS

Program has been in existence for 2 1/2 years.

Use of program and results are varied.
PRESIDENT'S DISTINGUISHED FACULTY MENTOR PROGRAM

Robert Jones
115 Johnston Hall
101 Pleasant Street SE
Minneapolis, MN 55455
(612) 625-1267

OBJECTIVE
To provide minority students of high academic ability with a role model for personal and professional growth and the creation of a relationship that will help them to meet the intellectual challenges of an academic career at the University of Minnesota.

The ultimate goal of this program is for the relationship to foster maximum achievement of personal, academic, and professional potential for the scholar (student.)

SERVICES
The participants of the mentorship program consist of entering minority freshmen that are recipients of the Morton S. Katz or the President's Outstanding Minority Scholarships. These students stay in the mentorship program until they graduate from the University of Minnesota.

The various College Deans nominate faculty from within their academic ranks for participation in the mentor program. Mentors are then identified from this group of distinguished faculty.

Students and mentors meet on a regular basis (i.e., weekly or bi-weekly) and students are required to keep a journal of the meetings. Mentors assist the students in establishing personal development goals and engage the student in professional and cultural activities.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
All funds for the mentor program (excluding the Morton S. Katz and the President's Outstanding Minority Scholarships) are general budget allocations. The projected budget for 1988-89 is as follows:

$55,800 Salaries
$15,000 Supplies
$70,800

PERSONNEL
Director (part-time.)

Administrative Fellow.
REPORTING

There are currently no reporting requirements for the program.

In prior years the program had reported on an annual basis to John Wallace, Assistant Vice President of Academic Affairs.

At the program's inception, it was planned that the program would report to an advisory board. This board has not been appointed to date.

OUTREACH

The program's outreach activities are very limited. It primarily relies on Prospective Student Services for recruiting and enrolls in the program those students who have been awarded Katz or President's Outstanding Minority Scholarships.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

The Morton S. Katz and President's Outstanding Minority Scholarships are programs that are closely related to the President's Distinguished Faculty Mentor Program. All recipients of these scholarships are enrolled in the mentor program.

COMMENTS

This is the third year the program has been in existence.

Per Bob Jones, approximately 160 students and 150 faculty are currently participating in the program. Surveys of students' opinions of the program have shown generally positive feelings about the program.

Per Bob Jones, it would be beneficial to have the advisory board for the program selected to participate in planning, executing, and evaluating the program's services.
SUPER VALU/MCKNIGHT GRANT

John Wallace, Director
409 Morrill Hall
100 Church St SE
Minneapolis, MN 55455
625-8802

OBJECTIVE
Provide necessary academic and counseling support to students in grades seven through graduate and professional degrees, to increase the number of minority students participating in postsecondary education.

SERVICES
The grant will fund initiation of several individual programs:

Seventh Grade
500 seventh grade students will be formed into achievement teams to reinforce classroom learning and to develop an environment of achievement for students and parents.

Eighth Grade
Achievement teams will continue; in addition, enrichment projects in mathematics and science will be offered.

Ninth Grade
Achievement teams will continue; in addition, students will be advised to select advanced English, languages, math, science, and social studies high school courses. A summer residential retreat on study skills, work, human sexuality and drugs will be held.

Tenth Grade
Students will be assigned a mentor through Career Beginnings. In addition, 40 at-risk students will participate in a seven week summer program to strengthen math and verbal skills, and to prepare for the PSAT.

Eleventh Grade
Students will continue in Career Beginnings, participate in a retreat similar to that offered to ninth grade students, and be provided with information on post secondary education.

Twelfth Grade
Continue Career Beginnings.

Pre College Freshmen
150 students will participate in an eight week summer program which will provide courses emphasizing writing, math, computer, and study skills.
Sophomore Year
75 at-risk sophomores will participate in achievement teams.

Minority Scholars Development Program
30 students will be assigned a faculty mentor and will co-author a paper with their mentor. In the summer after their sophomore year, students will be exposed to research concepts and techniques in their field; after their junior year, and into their senior year, students will complete their research projects and will be encouraged to apply for graduate school.

Graduate and Professional School Program
Expand the Committee for Institutional Cooperation (the Big Ten and University of Chicago) fellowships.

Research and Evaluation
Evaluate the effectiveness of the programs.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
Both Super Valu and McKnight Foundation donated $1,000,000 to fund the proposals. Total commitments/expenditures to fund the above described programs are:

$500,000--endowment for the Minority Scholars Development Program
$150,000--St. Paul Public Schools
$150,000--Minneapolis Public Schools
$ 76,000--OMSSA Summer Institute
$ 80,000--Minority Scholars Development Program

PERSONNEL
Leadership Council for the grants is made of Superintendents of Minneapolis and St. Paul Public Schools, Academic Vice President of the U of M, and John Seltzer, representing Mike Wright of Super Valu. Personnel for the programs will come from St. Paul and Minneapolis Public Schools, University of Minnesota faculty and students, and Minnesota Minority Education Partnership.

REPORTING
Program administrators must report program effectiveness to the Leadership Council.

MINORITY RETENTION STUDY
SUMMER INSTITUTE TRACKING

Carol Miller
120 Nicholson Hall
216 Pillsbury Dr. SE
Minneapolis, MN 55455
(612) 625-0112

OBJECTIVE
Carol Miller has done research in the area of minority student retention.

The objective of her work is to isolate critical factors that determine whether or not a minority student graduates from college.

SERVICES
This is a listing of the research Carol Miller has finished to date:

1. MINORITY RETENTION STUDY

A research document on minority retention. The basis for this report was the growing body of minority retention research information. This report includes recommendations for the University of Minnesota.

2. SUMMER INSTITUTE TRACKING STUDY (partially complete.)

OMSSA wanted a study done on retention of Summer Institute minority students. This report was going to encompass 3 areas of research:

1. Search of national literature on other "summer bridge" programs (completed.)
2. Obtain data on all Summer Institute students performance at the University of Minnesota subsequent to attending the Institute (NOT COMPLETED.)
3. Interview students to determine factors leading to completion/leaving degree programs. (NOT COMPLETED.)

This report was not completed because the data needed for the second and third parts of the study was never received from OMSSA.

UPWARD BOUND

Bruce and Sharyn Schelske, Co-directors
2722 University Ave SE
Minneapolis, MN 55414
627-4017

OBJECTIVE

Provide academic, social, and cultural enrichment programs to low-income high school students to enable them to succeed in post-secondary education.

STUDENTS

Low-income high school students in grades nine through twelve.

SERVICES

Upward Bound offers academic-year and summer programs:

Academic Year

70 students
Students meet once a week at local high schools or at Upward Bound for academic advising, tutoring, and personal and career counseling. Students receive a stipend based on their academic progress in coursework, and on their participation in Upward Bound sessions. Additional assistance is given to high school seniors for college selection and admission, entrance examinations, and financial aid application.

Summer Program

70 students
Students participate in a six-week residential (U of M-Mpls) program which consists of four hours of classroom instruction (math, reading, composition, study skills, and enrichment classes in art, music, career development). Tutors are provided for each class. Students also take part in recreational and cultural activities. High school seniors take regular college summer sessions classes in CLA or GC.

FUNDING

MINNESOTA MINORITY EDUCATION PARTNERSHIP

Rin McKinley, Director
731 21st Avenue South
330-1645

OBJECTIVE

Increase the number of Minnesota minority students who attend and graduate from Minnesota schools, colleges, technical institutes, and universities.

SERVICES

MMEP is a voluntary partnership of 26 local private and public schools, universities and businesses with the following three tasks:

1. Policies and Programs
   MMEP will design and develop programs to serve minority students in relation to the above objective. In addition, MMEP will raise funds to test program models.

2. Research and Information
   MMEP will provide a bibliography of minority student programs available, and will evaluate the success of these programs. MMEP will also develop a counseling resource guide for academic and business mentors, and support other research as necessary.

3. Financial Support
   MMEP will provide a pool of scholarship funds for students in post secondary education to alleviate financial burden of minority students and their families.

SOURCES

Augsberg College has donated space and financial services. Currently, MMEP is funded by McKnight Foundation, local businesses, and member contributions, based on minority student enrollment. Future funding will come from partner contributions and legislative funds from the Office of Education.

PERSONNEL

One director and one assistant. Guidance and support is provided by a policy board, an executive committee, and working groups.

REPORTING

No formal requirements. Regular partnership meetings.
OUTREACH
Students are contacted through high schools, community centers, churches, universities, and community colleges.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES
Secondary and post secondary minority students programs in Minnesota.

COMMENTS
MMEP was founded in early 1987, and is in its formative stage. Each task will expand in services as needed.
SUMMER PROGRAM IN POLICY SKILLS

John Brandl, Director
136 Hubert H. Humphrey Center
301-19th Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55455
(612) 625-7552

OBJECTIVE
To help prepare promising minority undergraduate students for graduate level coursework in public policy.

To try to interest minority undergraduate students in pursuing graduate work in the academic area of public policy.

SERVICES
The program is an intensive eight-week program in public policy skills and techniques.

Students are required to take seven-week classes in economics and statistics, and two classes in either mathematics, computers, or writing.

Extensive case study analysis and presentations are the focus of the last week of the program.

SOURCES OF FUNDS
All funding has been from the Sloan Foundation. This source of funds paid all salaries and supplies expense and paid for students' travel, lodging and personal expenses. The Sloan Foundation provided approximately $120,000 per year for the program.

The Sloan Foundation will not be funding the program next year.

Funding for the next summer program will be provided by the Ford Foundation. Currently, the amount and nature of the Ford Foundation's funding of the program is not certain.

PERSONNEL
Director.
Associate Director.
Twelve part-time workers.
REPORTING

There were no reporting requirements with the Sloan Foundation.

The future reporting requirements of the program are likely to change with the Ford Foundation providing funds.

OUTREACH

Mailing list of over 3,000 individuals from across the nation. This listing includes many predominately black schools in the southern United States and Minority Studies departments across the country.

Word of mouth from other minority students.

SUPPORTING ACTIVITIES

The Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management is a consortium of colleges and universities that are working together to attract, recruit, retain, and graduate minority students from their public policy graduate programs. Most of these schools have similar summer programs.

Students wanting to participate in the program must apply for admission. Per John Brandl, well qualified individuals apply for admission and only high potential students are admitted into the program.

Students attend the program after completing the junior year of their undergraduate degree program. If they subsequently enroll in a graduate program in public policy, they attend the program again their senior summer.

COMMENTS

Per John Brandl, student satisfaction with the program is very good.
