HOW THE MINNESOTA PLAN CAN HELP YOU

PLAN YOUR FUTURE

1963

WHAT ARE YOU NOW?
WHAT WILL YOU BE IN THE FUTURE?

- undergraduate
- married career woman
- career girl
- student in graduate school
- somebody's fiancée
- mother

Today's modern young woman will assume many of these roles during her lifetime and she will have to face many changes and adjustments as she shifts from one role to another.

Now is the time to plan realistically for the demands of career, marriage, and motherhood, and to learn how to meet these demands.

FUTURE SUCCESS JUST DOESN'T HAPPEN.
IT IS PLANNED.

WHO CAN HELP?

The Women's Continuing Education Program at the University of Minnesota called the MINNESOTA PLAN. It is an advisory and coordinating service ready to help you plan for your future.

HOW DOES THE MINNESOTA PLAN HELP?

Counseling

You will have the opportunity to discuss academic, career, and general problems with a Minnesota Plan counselor, who is especially concerned with the needs of educated women. The counselor will aid you in setting up or clarifying specific goals in your academic or professional career. Through counseling, a young woman undergraduate or graduate is better equipped not only to face her personal problems as a woman, but also to keep up to date in her field and to continue her education, both in school and on her own.

Special Seminar

The Educated Woman in the United States (Family Life 50s) Basic information regarding women's contributions to the world of work, home, and community are examined in the seminar. Top experts from the fields of education, psychiatry, economics, sociology, child development, and home economics discuss topics such as manpower needs, sociological trends, family roles, and psychogenetic development.

IF YOU WANT TO:

- keep in contact with your field after graduation so you can enter it later as a fully trained, up-to-date person
- combine marriage with work on an advanced degree
- return to your field after raising a family
- combine marriage and career

OR IF YOU

- leave college before graduation, and want to make plans now to return later and finish your degree . . .

The MINNESOTA PLAN can help you plan realistically.
