the entire audience will stand and join him in singing the National Anthem:

O, say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there,
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Thy light shall ever be

Thy sons and daughters true

Will proclaim thee near and far;

They will guard thy fame

And adore thy name;

Thou shalt be their Northern Star.

Like the stream that bends to sea,

Like the pine that seeks the blue,

Minnesota, still for thee

Thy sons are strong and true;

From thy woods and waters fair,

From thy prairies waving far,

At thy call they throng,

With their shout and song,

Hailing thee their Northern Star.
