Faculty and Participants

Our Commencement Speaker

Ronald Troyer is a graduate of the University of Minnesota Department of Mortuary Science and a member of the Board of the University of Minnesota Mortuary Science Alumni Society.

Since graduation, he has been actively engaged in the funeral service profession as a licensed funeral director, a faculty member in a college of funeral service, an adjunct member of the faculty of the Department of Mortuary Science during the 1986-87 school year, and presently a funeral home owner in Hudson, Wisconsin.

Ron has been involved in many community activities and served on numerous community and professional committees. He has been especially involved with grief support groups as an organizer and group leader.

Notes of Special Information

We express appreciation to the six members of the Class of 1989 who have assisted this evening. Scott Benson, Robert Perunovich, Jacqueline Sinclair as class marshals, and Shari Grube, David Haroldson and Beth Mesa as ushers. These young men and women will also serve as guides for those who visit the Teaching Center following the ceremony.

A reception for all in attendance follows immediately in the Campus Club, fourth floor, of this building.

The A. A. Hodroff Memorial Teaching Center and the Robert C. Slater Funeral Service Teaching Center for the Department of Mortuary Science in Jackson Hall, immediately adjacent to Coffman Memorial Union, will be open from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. for those families, guests and friends who care to visit these facilities.
