HAIL MINNESOTA

Minnesota Hail to Thee!
Hail to Thee our college dear!
Thy light shall ever be
A beacon bright and clear.
Thy sons and daughters true
Will proclaim Thee near and far.
They will guard Thy fame
And adore Thy name;
Thou shalt be their Northern Star!

Like the stream that bends to sea
Like the pine that seeks the blue!
Minnesota, still for Thee
Thy sons and daughters true
From their woods and waters fair,
From their prairies waving far;
At Thy call they throng
With their shout and song,
Hailing Thee their Northern Star!

RUDOLPH W. GIULIANI

Rudolph W. Giuliani was born on May 28, 1944, and received his A.B. degree from Manhattan College in 1965. He received his J.D. degree in 1968 from New York University School of Law, where he was an editor of the Law Review. From 1968 to 1970, he was a Law Clerk to United States District Judge Lloyd F. MacMahon in the Southern District of New York.

Mr. Giuliani first joined the United States Department of Justice in 1970 as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York. He served in turn as Chief of the Corruption Unit, Chief of the Narcotics Unit, and finally as Executive Assistant United States Attorney.

In 1975 he was appointed an Associate Deputy Attorney General in the Department of Justice. He held that position until 1977, when he returned to New York City to become a partner in the law firm of Patterson, Belknap, Webb and Tyler. In 1981 he returned to the Department of Justice, becoming the Associate Attorney General of the United States.

President Reagan nominated Mr. Giuliani for the position of United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York on April 26, 1983. He was confirmed by the United States Senate on May 4, and took the oath of office on June 3, 1983.

Mr. Giuliani frequently testifies before Congress, and has lectured on a variety of legal topics at New York University School of Law, Harvard Law School and elsewhere. He has published law review, magazine and op-ed articles on subjects including criminal law, immigration reform and tax law.

ALUMNI SERVICE AWARD

EDITH POWERS WARGO

An energetic leader in the Minnesota Law School Alumni Association, she has been active in alumni affairs since 1938. She is a member of the Law School's board of visitors, endowment campaign committee, and long-range planning committee. In 1981 she founded Lex Alumnae, an organization for women graduates of the Law School.

An eminent presence at the Law School, she has worked tirelessly as a volunteer, directing business meetings, social functions, and fund drives. She has endowed and supported many programs, encouraging her fellow alumni to do likewise.

THE LAW SCHOOL

1888-1988

After its beginnings as the Law Department in a basement room of the University's main building, the Law School has had three homes. In 1889, the University built the first separate law school building, now called Pattee Hall, at a cost of $25,000. In 1925, the Regents allotted $250,000 for a new building, and the second law school building, now known as Fraser Hall, opened in 1928. The current law school building, The Law Center, was completed in April 1978 at a total cost of 14.3 million dollars.
