Home Seller's Guide

(0:30)

With today's tight mortgage money market, selling your present house may be a more important financial transaction than selecting a new house.

Here are some questions to think about before you begin the selling process: What are the selling costs? Is a professional real estate agent worth the cost?

Answers to these questions are in "The Home Seller's Guide," Extension Folder 288, available from local county extension offices and the Bulletin Room, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota 55101.

Factory House Guide

(0:35)

Consumers are often overwhelmed by the wide range of types, quality, floor plans and materials available in factory built housing.

This situation is complicated by the difficulty of comparing the relative advantages of factory-built housing with on-site built housing.

General advantages and disadvantages of factory built housing, a checklist to compare various houses and other suggestions are found in the "Selection Guide for Factory Built Housing." It is available from the Bulletin Room, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota 55101 and local county extension offices.
