Seniors Defend Honor in Annual Field Meet Louis B. Bassett Speaks at Homecoming Assembly

When students and alumni gather at the Auditorium for Homecoming assembly on Saturday noon, February 7, they will do honor to a tradition nearly as old as the School itself.

And in line with the tradition, an alumnus will be chief speaker at that assembly. In recognition of the contributions he has made as alumni secretary as well as his loyalty and fine services to the School of Agriculture, Professor Louis B. Bassett will be that speaker.

It is at this assembly, too, that the student body will be seated by classes. While their athletic prowess will not be revealed by the volume of cheers that they give, the classes will give their all when their cheerleaders give their signals.

The School Band, in uniform, will lead off with martial band music under the direction of Mr. Boland.

Supt. Christianson will preside and the returning alumni will be recognized.

Homecoming is on the way!

At the Gymnasium, alumni will gather with the students at two o'clock to witness the opening of the 50th annual track and indoor field meet. What the outcome of the meet will be is in the lap of the gods and the careful preparation of the champions of the day.

Present-day students who placed in the meet last year, will again compete. Howard Gans placed third in the rope climb; second in the 25-yrd. dash; and first in the potato race. Third place in the mile run and member of the swim relay team which placed third, were Warne Linton's honors. Reinhard Janson placed third in the 80-yd. swim and, as a member of the swim relay team, placed second.

Other students who placed among the first three were Maxine Halland and Ellen Jerabek, first and second, respectively, in the rope vault; Virginia King, first in the 40-yd. swim; Wesley Frank, member of the swim team that placed first.

Robert Wolterstorff was a member

N.Y.A. Boys Raze Landmark

Once a show place at University Farm, the old Farm House, landmark for 58 years, has been only an object of curiosity, this year.

In its long history, it saw many uses, the last being as the headquarters of the agronomy and plant genetics department.

When that department moved out into its new building, the working crew moved in. About 23 young men, members of the N.Y.A. residential group, have divided their time between lessons on three days and wrecking the building on three other days of each week.

second place in the 25-yd. dash; and Keith Miller won first place in the quarter-mile race.

The Seniors won the 1942 Meet.

Agrarian Board Feasts
After Business Meeting

After their business meeting on January 8, members of the Agrarian Board enjoyed a spread. They had received a fruit cake as a Christmas gift, and with this was served fresh doughnuts and cocoa.

Members of the Board are now working on lining up a schedule of pictures, all of which they expect to have been taken by the end of January.

Two Judging Teams Go To Red River Valley Shows

Four out of fourteen livestock judges were selected on January 30 to represent the School of Agriculture at the Red River Valley Livestock shows in February. The "fourteen" have daily attended a practice class in judging conducted by Professor Carl Sierk who will accompany the team to Crookston. The lucky "four" are Ned Boyce, Joan Carey, Merle Judes, and Marvin Manion, who scored the highest averages in practice judging.

Florian Otto, Harry Stewart, Henry Blohm, and Herbert Kraus, are the members of the crops judging team selected to represent the School in the Red River Valley Show's crops judging event.

The sixteen boys who had competed for this honor concluded a period of daily practice with a four hour elimination contest, an exact duplicate of the one to be given at Crookston, on January 30. Mr. Borgeson and Mr. Schmidt, both of the Agronomy division, coached the contestants and will accompany the team to Crookston for the contest on February 2.

Does It Seem Strange?

Does it seem strange to you that so much of the world is actively at war? We are here getting an education?

Does it make sense that we, too, are helping to win the war? and that we have to stick to our guns here in order to lick war?

Guess it does. And we might as well take out time to think how lucky we are to be here.

So what?

Well, we've got to be better students. We've got to know what it's all about by discipline and building tough muscles and bodies, we shall be ready to "take it . . ." when our turn comes in the war and after the war.

We've got work to do. Where will the people of Europe and Asia get enough food after they have destroyed crops? keep them from falling into enemy hands. Nowhere else but from the U. S., and we must be ready to supply that food.

After the war? What do we want? Can we get it? No one wants an explosion like this war. Shall we plan a kind of world we want to live in?

Right now, let's stick to our guns in school and get ready for what's ahead. We have a big job to do. NOW—and after the war.

And we are elected to do it!

Bailey who stated, "one of our first duties is to so equip ourselves that, in later times, we may make the best of ourselves." Bradley, executive secretary of the Council for Social Action of the Congregational and Christian Churches, stated that we are living in a period of great human revolution and that we should get our roots down in the ethics of the Christian religion to be prepared to plan what kind of a world we want to live in after this war.

January 14. Valdimar Bjornson, who is in charge of the KSTP News Bureau, told of the role radio had had at the outbreak of the war in keeping listeners informed, but, because censorship of news over the radio and in newspapers has been clamped down, both agree that it is just and necessary.

January 23. Mrs. Raymond Sayre, Chairman of the Women's Committee of Iowa Farm Bureau Federation, told of her experiences in getting people to become leaders. She reminded her hearers that if you don't accept the leadership yourself, someone else will come in from the outside and do it.

January 24. Besides the Movietone News picture, the feature, "Glacier Trails," was shown.

January 27. The Brewster Booster Band played "Vienna Forever" and "Innocence Waltz." Then Miss Dorothy Cochran, student of the University of Minnesota, explained the culture and farming practices of her home in Northern Persia.

January 28. Reverend Paul S. Rahneff of Sofia, Bulgaria, related some of his experiences with Gypsies, who according to legend developed from birds that filled up in a grain field.

January 30. Helen Fick played a piano selection, "The Largo" from the New World Symphony by Dvorak. Then Dr. N. Haydak of the Department of Economic Zoology presented a picturesque example of Ukrainian life and culture. He was assisted in several colorful dances by the Misses Lomary Procai, Olga Pastushenko, and Mr. Myron Pastushenko. Mr. Frank Lauryk accompanied the group on the piano and also played an original composition of his own.

Debaters Organize Club

Members of the class in advanced debating organized a debating club on Tuesday evening, January 13, when officers were elected.

Charles Hay was chosen president; John Wagner, vice president; Ruth Lieske, secretary; and Alvin Luhman, treasurer.

The club will meet regularly on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. It is divided into four teams. On the "A" team are Lester Wheelock, Alan Stevermer, Marcella Padrnos, and Gertrude Lieske. This team will represent the School in interscholastic debates.

All of the teams will have no-decision debates with teams from Twin City High Schools and the triangular debates with Morris and Crookston will be held early in March.

Catholic Digest Editor Addresses Confraternity

The Catholic Confraternity group swung into action on the first Sunday of the winter term, January 11. New students were introduced to the group and welcomed by Father Guinney, pastor of the Corpus Christi Church.

A Communion breakfast was served on Sunday, January 18, after the Communion Mass. The school and college students alike partook. Father L. A. Gales, managing editor of the Catholic Digest magazine, addressed the group.

Tomhave Is Honored

Paid tribute by a battery of breakfast spokesmen that included one of his early day professors, Andrew Boss, Senator Simon E. Lantz and others, Secretary Tomhave's response not only was a warm expression of appreciation but a tribute itself to others, as well as a word picture of the ever-changing American agricultural scene.

The lad who one day boarded the train at Fergus Falls, Minn., headed for the school of agriculture at St. Paul, and with $25 in his pocket, had in another pocket a Testament, and thus began the career that brought him to the seat of honor at the testimonial breakfast.

"In these troublesome times, when it seems that the energies of the world are directed toward the destruction of mankind, it is deeply satisfying to be connected with agriculture, the oldest and most essential industry, whose entire effort is directed toward the welfare and preservation of the human race," the agriculturist said in his response at the breakfast.

Exploding the saga of the self-made man, he declared that, "no man is self-made, no matter how hard he has struggled or how single the struggle has seemed. Heredity, environment, friendship and events have made indelible imprints which consciously and unconsciously mold, direct and determine each individual's course." He paid tribute to his forbears, his wife and others.

To three men, whose portraits also hang on the Saddle and Sirloin Club walls, the speaker acknowledged indebtedness for inspiration. He mentioned James J. Hill, the empire-building railroad man, whose early distribution of purebred livestock gave to him "unconsciously an interest in livestock." He cited Prof. Andrew Boss, a "lover of boys and maker of men." The other figure was Dr. H. P. Armsby, scientist and inventor of the Calorimeter, "from whose work most of the knowledge on balanced rations and nutrition has grown." As head of the department of Animal Husbandry at Penn State the agriculturist was associated with the illustrious Dr. Armsby.

For the past 16 years Secretary Tomhave has been identified with the black cattle breed, as secretary-manager of the Aberdeen-Angus registry association. Its expansion in the beef cattle world in recent years, greater than that of any other beef cattle, according to registry records, has created a wide acclaim.

What was Vincent Dooley thinking about the day he left his trousers at the photographer's? Did he give Cecilia Hagel a reward for recovering them?

The race for that certain blonde seems to be about neck and neck between John Schwartzanu and Herb Hoverstad.

Most fellows agree on Bernice Heinbuch as Sweetheart of the Campus. My! My! What a shame there's that big cave-man of a wrestler!

Inside dope on the basketball team: several of the fellows are seriously "family-type" men.

Ah! And everyone can identify a boy taking "Home Problems" by the way he "plays up his beauty spots."

What girl have Omar and Howard been interested in lately?

Styles are changing: it seems the girls are dating the boys and it isn't leap year either.

New Girls Are Initiated At Brewster Hall Party

Brewster Hall reverberated with cheers when the girls chose teams at the Get-Acquainted Party which was held on Tuesday evening, January 6. Mary Ann Dankers captained the 1942'ers and Hazel Augustson lead the 1941 team.

Edna Talbert was the jolly mistress of ceremonies. Numbers were drawn and each girl performed some stunt which brought on cheers and laughter from the team.

The most clever stunt was presented by Bernice Heinbuch and Ardis Hemmingsen when they strutted and crowed like roosters.

Berneace Huper, Irene Zavoral, and Joyce Molenaar judged the stunts and Alice Mae Barthelemy and Geraldine Langer were the score keepers. Nelva Loughrey assisted in conducting the entertainment. Violet Mussmann accompanied the girls in singing popular songs. She also played solos, including the famous "Midnight Fire Alarm."

Ice cream and cake were served by the refreshment committee, which consisted of Leona Flohr, Hazel Parker, Virginia Schiltgen, Vera Misfeldt, Marguerite Wendt, and Ruth Lieske.

What Pep Is

Vigor, vitality, vim and punch—
That's pep;
The courage to act on a sudden hunch—
The nerve to tackle the hardest thing,
With feet that climb, and hands that clutch—
And a heart that never forgets to sing—
That's pep;
Sand and grit on a concrete base—
That's pep;
Friendly smile on an honest face—
That's pep;
The spirit that helps when another's down—
That knows how to scatter the black frown,
That loves its neighbor and loves
town—
That's pep;
To say "I will"—for you know you can—
That's pep;
To look for the best in every man—
That's pep;
To meet each thundering knockout blow—
And come back with a laugh, because know
You'll get the best of the whole darn show—
That's pep!

January Passes Buck To Frigid February

Just why January had to act like March puzzled the skaters who saw a sea of soupy ice where they looked for a hockey rink and a social skating pond out on the athletic field. Both had been flooded in the opening week of school.

Mr. Ryman and his rink crew had everything under control (except the thermometer) but January sun and January moon, and the rink flood lights alike shone not on crisp blue sheets of ice covered with swooping, gliding, racing skaters.

January was fickle when she turned on the heat, but who doubts that she can open wide her refrigerator and let February in to repair the damage.

Alumni Reminisce

About 120 alumni enjoyed a cafe supper together at the Party Dining Room on Tuesday, January 20, during Farm Home Week. Mr. L. B. Bassett, alumni secretary, was in charge and Dr. Will Dankers, alumni president, presided. Announcements of reunions were made. A get-reminiscent hour followed.

Miss Eunice St. Martin, student '38-'39, and George Garin were married January 7, at Assumption Church in Minneapolis.

B.B. Team Wins Handily From Once Great Alumni

Loss of veterans from last season continues to handicap the basketball team. Capt. Keith Miller is the only member of the 1940-41 squad who is now playing. But on January 20, veterans E. Meschke, H. Sorensen, W. McGrew, N. Monsen, A. Schultz, H. Pinke, H. Carlin, J. Kohler, G. Grant, G. McCallum, A. Hanson, and F. Anderson reunited to play the locals off their feet. The resulting score, 33 to 21, was in favor of the latter. Many alumni and former students, attending Farm and Home Week, augmented the audience and shared good natured rivalry with student rooters.

At the Dec. 13 game with Bethel Jr. College, here, K. Miller, O. Seath, and R. Hendricks, each netted 5 points. The final score was 38 to 15 in favor of the visitors.

Macalester Freshmen at Macalester on Dec. 17 took the Aggies into camp, 69 to 25. K. Miller with 15 points, and O. Seath, 5 points, were high scorers for the Aggies.

In the return game with the Macalester Freshmen, here on Jan. 16, K. Miller, with 19 points, and R. Hendricks, 12 points, did yeoman work for the Aggies. The final score was 40 to 33, in favor of the visitors.

A score of 40 to 34 in favor of Breck School in the game played here on Jan. 9 does not tell the story of the comeback the team staged in the second half when they tied their opponents. Hendricks, 13 points and L. Wahlberg, 10 points found the basket oftenest for the Aggies.

When the squad, with coach Ryman, travelled to Morris to meet the West Central Aggies, they gave as good as they got. The score at the half was 10 to 10, but the final score was 25 to 24, in favor of Morris. Wahlberg netted 6 points and was the highest Aggie scorer.

Men who made the trip were K. Miller, R. Hendricks, E. Staloch, H. Bakken, L. Wahlberg, H. Stewart, V. Pommeranz, O. Hanson, W. Titus, V. Mussmann, and G. Johnson.

Crookston Aggies evened up their score with St. Paul Aggies on Jan. 31 when they matched a defeat in wrestling with a win in basketball. The final score was 35 to 24. Coach Rufus Christgau, '21, brought a smooth team onto the floor where, as a student in the School of Agriculture, he had been a basketball great.

Gyles Wade was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Randall (nee Norma Poppe '40) of Rochester, Minnesota, on January 3. Mr. Randall graduated in 1939.

Girls May Turn Trick in Field Meet Final Score

Since January 19, Miss Eibner has been conducting organized practice for Field Meet, which is to be held February 7. Final candidates are being selected by process of elimination. There'll be keen competition, girls, so do your best for your class.

Four new sports representatives chosen for this quarter are Violet Mussmann, table games; Arlene Wojahn, skating; Ethel Kuhnly, skiing; and Margaret Held, Field Meet.

If and when there is snow on the ground, Miss Eibner will take the girls out ski journeying. Several pairs of skis are available at the Gymnasium.

Again this quarter Miss Cloonan is teaching social dancing at the Gym. Beginners' class is from 6:15 to 7:00 p.m. on Wednesdays; and for those who are more advanced, the time is from 7:00 to 7:45 p.m.

"Watch Your Personality Grow" is the name of a graph that Miss Eibner has prepared. It checks points on health, grooming, and social relations. The girls rate themselves three successive times. By the end of this quarter we should all show improvement.

"Aggie Bombers," "Brewster Blondes," "Frenchy's Fighters," "Aggie Basketeers"—What's this we hear up at the Gym on Fridays, ninth hour? It's a new idea for the girls' intramural basketball games. Four teams were organized and these distinctive names chosen. The respective captains are Ione Jacobson, Alma Jensen, Alice Mae Barthelemy, and Vera Poppe. Six games are scheduled, one for each Friday from January 16 to February 20.

Girls' B.B. Team Scores

The S.A.U.M. girls' basketball team won their game with the College W.A.A. on January 14 with a score of 22-7. They also trounced Bethel Junior College, 12-11, in their game January 20. The score was tied at 11 near the end of the game, when Anne Kanduth made the decisive point with a free throw. Anne was highest scorer in the game. Maxine Halland and Leona Flohr were the other forwards. Guards were Elaine Markwardt, Bernace Huper, and Gertrude Lieske. Substituting were Thelma Brugman, Marcella Padrnos, Hazel Augustson, Marie Alberts, and Virginia Buscho. On January 28, the team went to St. Columba in St. Paul to play.

Ag Wrestlers Muscle Their Way to the Top

Winning 19 dual meets in succession is the record in wrestling at the School of Agriculture to date.

The 19th meet was won on Saturday, January 31, here, when the local mat men turned in the score 27 to 6. The Crookston Aggies were their vigorous opponents.

L. Paschke (121 lbs.), Didier (128 lbs.), E. Sandager (145 lbs.), A. Luhman (135 lbs.), won by decisions; and W. Frank (165 lbs.), H. Schmidt (175 lbs.), and C. Goiffon (heavy-weight) pinned their men. H. Gans (155 lbs.) lost to his opponent by a fall.

The wrestling season began with a meet, here, with the St. Paul Y. when the final score, 24 to 8, favored the Aggies. Paschke, Didier, W. Frank won decisions, and M. Judes pinned his man.

E. Sandager lost by a fall and N. Boyce by decision. Goiffon and Sandager earned their points by defaults.

When the Aggies met the St. Paul Y's on January 22, on their floor, only three contenders showed up. Paschke won a decision and Luhman a fall. H. Gans lost by a fall, the rest of the team won by defaults. The final score was 33 to 3.

When the Aggies went to Macalester College on January 20, they met a well knit team but the final score was 15½ to 12½ in favor of the Aggies. George Heikes, Capt. of the 1940-41 wrestling team, was present and acted as scorer. Paschke, Gans and Frank won by decisions and Luhman pinned his man. Didier and Schmidt lost by decisions and T. Stafford by a fall.

Coach Bjorlaug was lost to the wrestling team when he accepted a position with the Du Pont industries in New Jersey as a chemist. This was a blow to the team, though not a surprise. Bjorlaug was doing advanced work toward an advanced degree in chemistry and expected to go into a position in industry as soon as that was completed. Until the position with the team is filled, Marsh Ryman will act as coach.

Plain Facts and Faces

Once upon a time in the Little (Robert) country of Halland (Maxine) there were some Little (Harold) Dutch boys, Herbert Krause and Lerry Peichel. Both of these Boyce (Ned) were in love with a little Dutch girl whose name was Bernice Heinburch.

It so happened that Lerry was from a rich family and had a beautiful Gray (Glenn) Otto (Florian), while Herbert was from a poor family that had to wear Patchen (Elsie) on their breeches as well as not having any Moore (Wallace) to eat than a few crusts of bread with Laufenburger (Arthur) cheese.

Early (Robert) on a beautiful Sunde (Burnell) in June (Molenaar), Lerry Wendt (Marguerite) through the Barnard (Harry) and to the garage to get Old-faithful. There was a trifling matter of getting the Carlock (Walter) unlocked. His key wouldn't work so he used a Boldt (Ralph) and a Hamre (Edwin) and finally opened the lock. Lerry got in and tried to

Send in Soldier Addresses

Christmas cards have been received from Lloyd Miley at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Lt. W. B. Bianchi '34, Camp Limay, Philippine Islands. It is hoped that more from them will follow the bad news of December 7.

Roy Christianson has been called by Snelling but we have no address from him. The Agreview goes to each Aggie in the cities of the United States where we have an address. We should appreciate hearing from their friends when Aggies volunteer or of the draft.

Beck (John) out; but took a corner of the garage along.

His cousin, Alvin Obermoller, was waiting for him at the gate, so Lerry paid the Brakke (Allen) and stopped. Alvin Rudlong (Thelmer) as far as the village. Brandenburg (Vernon), while Lerry drove on to the Heinbuch residence. To be frank (Wesley) about it, Lerry was so bashful that he tooted his horn, which sounded like a Gannon (John).

Bernice couldn't come until she had finished Bakken (Halver) a cake. Soon she was ready and the couple went for a drive. My, but it was a beautiful day! All sorts of flowers were in Blohm (Henry) and an occasional rose Bosch (Allison) brightened the drive.

Since it had Reindal (Ralph) of the previous week, it was not an uncommon sight to see the farmers raking up the Hay (Charles).

It was a grand day! Romance was in the fresh summer air! They Held (Virginia) hands until Bernice convinced him that he should maintain control of the steering apparatus, so he Held (Margaret) the wheel for the rest of the time.

They told jokes, one of which began with Lerry saying, "Didier (Alexander) the Scotchman?" She hadn't.

After driving around for a while, they decided to go to a carnival in the Urdal (Leola) district of Wahlberg (Lee). The car was parked near the carnival, but before getting out, Bernice had to Padua (Marcella) and put some powder on her face that it wouldn't shine.

They had a glorious time. They threw a ball and hit a Bell (Harvey) and won several prizes. There were thousands of people there, but a man from Franz (Bernard), a couple of Normans (Joan and Edwina) and a good old Russian (Robert Guelker) were among the few that interested.

Happiness could not last forever. Herbert appeared, selling his cakes so that a few meager cents could be made; and upon seeing Bernice at one of the stands he went over to talk a bit. Lerry with nose to the air, exclaimed, "Oh, look the boy with the Patchen (John)."

Herbert, his good Dutch blood rising, replied, "Take that Beck-man (Ruth), I'll Poppe (Vincent) you one."

So the ensuing clash came about; the blow by blow detail is not especially interesting when we know that the result was, six good men had to Carey (John) Lerry to his home.
