Dormitories Organize Self Government Association

The first meeting of the Dormitory Self-Government Association was held Wednesday evening, October first. Principal D. D. Mayne presided over the meeting and reviewed the work accomplished by the association and set a yet higher standard for achievement.

Miss Hognason also addressed the meeting after which the officers for the coming year were elected.

The officers elected were: President, Reginald Van Voorhis; Vice President, Arvid Sponberg; Secretary, William Danckers.

The boys in Pendergast Hall elected as their officers: Stephen Harvey, Head Monitor, and Eugene Guggemos, Clayton Winzer, Herbert Hawkins, and Roy Haybarger, floor monitors.

Ed Bremer was elected head monitor of Dexter Hall and Errol Anderson, Oliver Thormodson and Roy Oby, floor monitors.

Executive Committee Meets

The executive committee of the D. S. G. A. met with Miss Hognason in one of the committee rooms of the cafeteria for dinner, Thursday evening, October second. Dormitory policies were discussed and plans made for hikes and excursions.

Miss Matson was introduced to the dormitory boys at a party given them by Miss Hognason, Friday evening, October third, at the Club room in Pendergast Hall. She also presided over the refreshment table. Music and games provided entertainment for the group.

A pretty dinner party was given by Miss Matson to the dormitory girls after the house meeting, Monday evening, October sixth. Several girls entertained with songs, instrumental music and readings, in an informal program. Frappe, cakes, and wafers were served from a prettily appointed table.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON HIKES

The Y.M.C.A. is sponsoring the Sunday afternoon hikes until the season forbids outside activities.

The first hike was taken over the route from the Farm to Como Park, around its lakes, over the hills, by its game preserve, and back to the dormitories.

Minnehaha Park and the Longfellow gardens were visited the second Sunday. "It ain't gonna rain no mo'" scared away the rain that threatened.

The St. Anthony Boulevard, the newest of Minneapolis' park ways, was the scenic feature of a long hike to Broadway, to Cleveland, and to the University Woods. In the University Woods a blazing camp fire awaited the hikers—but they did not find it—so they built another. Here they roasted weiners and feasted on the generous lunch provided by the dining hall. The builders of the first camp fire were the best scouts—for they found the second fire before all the refreshments were consumed.

Kodak pictures of these hiking parties are choice souvenirs and are in demand by the "Agrarian" editors.

DINING HALL UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Miss Catherine McFarland and Francis Dunning assumed charge of the dining hall and cafeteria, September fifteenth.

Together with a student committee, they formulated a code to be observed in the dining hall. A head table became again a feature of the dining room. Miss Hognason and Miss Matson are seated at this table and to it are welcome all students and their visitors.

FELLOWSHIP

Under the leadership of the new Y. M. C. A. secretary the weekly Fellowship meetings are attracting a large attendance. Mr. Ray Cunningham plans to bring live speakers to these meetings. He addressed the first meeting of the year himself, and outlined the plans for the year.

Mr. Joe Smith spoke to the students October ninth, on the theme, "Quit ye like men, be strong." He is a fine exponent of his theme. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the Agricultural School and College at Brookings, South Dakota, and is preparing to enter the foreign mission field.

Mr. Paul Bremicker was the speaker at the October 16th meeting. He is the Executive Secretary of the North East Branch of the Minneapolis Y. M. C. A. Mr. Bremicker talked on things consistent with a Christian life.

FRESHMAN GET ACQUAINTED

Because the freshmen did not know each other well enough to elect class officers and representatives, a "get acquainted" party was held by them at the Girls Dormitory, Tuesday evening, October seventh, after supper.

Interesting games introduced Mary and John and the other boys and girls. They became better acquainted while toasting marshmallows and snapping apples. Finally, and with assurance, they elected Julia Erickson and Emil Johnson as their class reporters for the News of the School of Agriculture.

Y. M. AND Y. W. MIXER

One of the most looked-forward-to events of each fall is the Y.M.-Y.W. mixer, the reception to all students of the School of Agriculture.

Saturday evening, October fourth, was the date chosen for the party, this fall.

The gymnasium was beautifully decorated in maroon and gold and brightly colored autumn leaves.

A program of contests, stunts, and games provided entertainment until a late hour, when frappe and cookies were served.

Much appreciation is due Miss Phillips, who made the plans for the party and carried them out.

STAG MIXER

The Y. M. C. A. entertained all the boys of the school at a lively mixer at the gymnasium, Tuesday evening, September 30th, at six fifteen o'clock.

The new Y. M. C. A. secretary, Ray Cunningham; gave a short talk after which the classes competed in stunts and games. The party ended in a merry scramble for apples.

School Orchestra

Boys' and Girls' Quartette Chosen

"The man who hath no music in himself,
Nor is not moved by concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treason, stratagem and spoils."

No better place than the music department is open to school students who are at all musically inclined to test their talents and ability. Here one is given the chance to take part in any form of music he desires. The mixed chorus, the men's chorus, the men's and girls' quartettes, the girls' chorus, the orchestra, and the band, all furnish splendid chances for instruction along musical lines.

After much consideration on the part of Mrs. Larson, the boys' and girls' quartettes have been picked. The men in the first quartette are: Otto Hjermstad, Clifford Haugen, Wallace Larson, and Ray Cline. The second quartette is composed of John Fell, Abdon Lager, Lester Schwartz, and Cecil Churchward. Alice Sheldon, Mabel Draeger, Helen Clark and Dora Newbauer were chosen to make up the girls' quartette.

The mixed chorus is putting on the operetta, "Paul Revere," next semester. This is another splendid chance to get training along musical lines. What more could a student of the School of Agriculture wish for than such chances as these for musical advancement?

FACULTY NEWS

There have been a number of changes in the faculty this year. Some of the new members are Forrest Immer, Mathematics; Alice Berry, American History; Hazel Johnson, Stenography; H. A. Rohenhiser and Paul Peterson, Botany; Lenore Andrist, English; Sherman Johnson, Farm Management; Captain Rehm, Military Drill; Robert C. Wall, Animal Biology; and Bernice Dickerman, Music.

Professor Gilbert, formerly of the Botany department, has gone to a new position in Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert traveled the entire distance by car.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hause was absent from her classes at the opening of the term but is now back at work. She was injured in an automobile accident.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Daniels (nee Marion Brimhall), October first, a daughter. Mrs. Daniels was a member of the class of 1918. Mr. Daniels is instructor in horticulture and orchard fruits.

Professor G. A. Lundquist writes from Cornell

University, New York, that he and his family are happily situated. Mr. Lundquist is taking his graduate work in Marketing and Rural Education.

Professor W. B. Combs, former head of the famous dairy products division at the Pennsylvania State College has been made head of a like division at University Farm. Professor Combs specializes in research work in the manufacture of ice cream. He has published numerous articles on scientific subjects in various trade and scientific journals. "He comes to Minnesota with an enviable record as an efficient and successful teacher," Dr. Eckles, head of the department says, "and we are fortunate in securing his services."

Miss Hognason and Miss Fisher entertained at tea in compliment to Miss Matson, Tuesday afternoon, October 21st, in Sunset Parlor. Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Andrew Boss and Mrs. Fisher presided at the tea table. Dahlias and chrysanthemums in yellow and maroon decorated the room.

FOR THOSE WHO KNOW

Another opportunity is offered to students in the School of Agriculture to win distinction and to earn money in a state contest.

The terms of this contest can be met by many school students and the News hopes to print their names as winners in its next issue.

These are the requirements:

"The Minnesota Realty Association is offering a first prize of $25.00, a second prize of $15.00, and a third prize of $10.00, for the best essay of not over two thousand words on 'What Constitutes An Ideal Minnesota Farm?'"

"Each contestant is privileged to specify the county or section of the state that his article applies to, for we realize that an ideal farm in southern Minnesota might not be an ideal farm in northern Minnesota, neither as to acreage or equipment.

"The essay should cover the ideal acreage, the manner in which this acreage should be divided into fields, and the kind and number of acres of various crops. For instance, the number of acres of pasture, clover, timothy, or alfalfa, the number of acres in grain or corn, and the number of acres to be used for buildings and stock lots, etc.

"The location of the buildings on the farm, the kind of house, barn, granaries, etc., and the amounts that should be invested in these buildings.

"The number of horses, cattle, hogs, poultry, and kinds. The amount invested in equipment, and the kind of equipment, the location of this farm relative to roads, cities, etc. The writer of the article should denote the size of the family from which he is basing his article. The cost of help, etc., would enter into this situation.

"This contest shall close at midnight, October 31st."

A SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

How shall recognition be given to those who rank high in scholarship? Caleb Dorr prizes have been given to a limited number for excellence in scholarship. But how shall the larger number be recognized for work that is nearly as good?

The new Honor Scholarship Society was organized last spring in answer to that question. The elections were made by a faculty committee but it was not until this month that Professor Andrew Boss, chairman of the committee, announced the names of those who were selected.

These students were selected on the basis of high scholarship, character, and service to the school body. Membership in the society is limited to five per cent of the freshman class, ten per cent of the junior class, and fifteen per cent of the senior and intermediate classes.

Membership is not permanent, for elections to the society from all the classes are made at the close of school each year. But all who have once been elected to the society cannot afford to give up their membership by lowering their own records.

Every student in school is eligible to a place in this honor society. President Coffman encouraged the students to believe that industry and character were fully as important as intellect. Who will be elected next spring? The decision must be made now.

THE SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE

There is nothing that promotes harmony within a group of people as does singing.

The Sunday morning song service does more than that. It puts the participants in tune with the great Guiding Power.

This service has been an institution for many years and is long remembered as one of the most inspirational features of the school week.

The attendance at the service is very gratifying, this fall. Mr. Ray Cunningham, the new Y. M. C. A. secretary, conducts the service with enthusiasm and understanding.

THE HEALTH SERVICE

The students have all had their physical examinations and the doctors pronounce them a healthy lot. The doctors and nurses mean to help keep them so.

Dr. Cady, Miss Shefveld and Miss Momsen request the students to observe their office hours. The office is open from 7:45 to 10:00 a.m. daily except Sunday, and from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. except Saturday and Sunday. Emergency calls will receive attention at any time.

The Y. M. C. A. has kindly loaned their radio set to the hospital while school is in session. It will be good entertainment for shut-ins but we hope radio fans will not stub their toes in order to lie abed in the hospital and listen to "Susanna."

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

The seniors are looking forward to commencement, and have already elected their commencement speakers. Subjects have been chosen by the speakers and they have begun work on them in an effort to excel all previous commencement performances.

Those representing the class will be Ferris Clampitt, Arvid Sponberg, Clarence Riley, William Dankers, Dora Neubauer, and Constance Swenson.

Word has been received at University Farm, of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lambert, at Chatfield, Minn. Mr. Lambert is a member of the Class of 1916. Mrs. Lambert (Olive Bernard) is a member of the class of 1918.

Tryouts Reveal Promising Material—Seniors Win in Baseball—Bremers Cop First in Cross Country

Erhardt Bremer

Although the School of Agriculture is somewhat handicapped by the short season for outdoor events, the boys are making up for their lack of time by intensive training and are now showing very creditable form.

Coach Thompson has planned an extensive athletic program for the coming term.

The cross country running tryout, which was held Thursday, October 16th, brought out some promising material, notably the Bremer boys, Erhart and Ed, who won first and second place respectively. The squad will include fifteen members, ten of which have already been selected. They are Erhart Bremer, Ed Bremer, Mendon Tapping, Alvin Reinecke, Fred Halstead, Arnold Cook, Maurice Mills, George Hafstead, Albert Lunde, and Errol Anderson. Interest is keen in cross country running this year as well as in the shorter distance races. Almost every evening the various teams are in training and having tryouts. These teams will compete for honors in the outdoor track and field meet. This will include the 50 yard dash, 440 yard, half mile, one mile, 100 yard dash, shot put, high jump, standing broad jump, and running broad jump. The schedule is so arranged that each competitor will have an opportunity to prove what he can do.

The first inter-class baseball game resulted in a nine to five victory for the Seniors. Elmer Bean and Bert Sandberg composed the battery for the Juniors while Erwin Michaels and Robert Daily helped the Seniors win their victory.

A horse shoe tournament will be held within the next few weeks. In this event the faculty will be given a chance to show their "stuff."

The tennis tournament will complete the outdoor athletic program and if the weather man continues to be a sport, prospects are good for some real competition in that line.

When, with the arrival of cold weather, we are compelled to take our "daily dozen" indoors, the boys will be given a chance to show their proficiency with the handballs. Wrestling, swimming, indoor baseball, and volley ball will arouse their interest, with basketball occupying the center of the athletic stage.

Let's all work together and make 1924-25 a record year in athletics. Let's go.

AGGIES BEAT MECHANIC ARTS, 57 TO 34

On your marks! Get set! Go! Thirteen Aggies and thirteen Mechanic Arts runners left the tape over the cross country course Wednesday afternoon, October twenty-second.

The dope was in favor of the Mechanic Arts star, McEchran, when the teams left the field. The return to the campus was spectacular. Four of the men, two Bremers, McEchran and Captain Sandquist were closely bunched. Ed Bremer and McEchran were running neck and neck. Ed Bremer was the first man to touch the tape. After him came McEchran of Mechanic Arts, Erhardt Bremer, Aggie, Captain Sandquist of Mechanic Arts, four Aggies, Maurice Mills, Errol Anderson, Alvin Reinke, and Arnold Cook, then Meyers, Hammer and Etronne of Mechanic Arts, and George Hafstead and Alton Hanson, both Aggies.

Over a heavy course Ed Bremer made the run in twenty-one minutes thirty-three and three fifths seconds. The final score was 57 to 34 in favor of the Aggies.

ORGANIZATION

"In union there is strength."

Thus in the organization of the student body into four distinct class organizations we have four classes, each one a union of individuals. Through these organizations comes school pep and spirit. 1924-1925 will not be lacking in this school spirit as is already shown in the keen competition between the various classes.

The aim of every individual should be "Loyalty to my class." These are the officers elected for the year.

Assembly Offers Balanced Ration—Coffman—Coffey, Music—Plow—Philippine Independence—Indian Bishop

Dankers Describes Webster's Plow

DEAN COFFEY WELCOMES STUDENTS

Dean Coffey welcomed the students, old and new, to the School of Agriculture at the first School assembly, Tuesday, September thirtieth.

He spoke at length on the opportunities that we as students have, putting especial stress on using our heads and doing our best under all circumstances. He also emphasized the idea that this school should be as one family with co-operation as its highest ideal.

RAY CUNNINGHAM SPEAKS

Wednesday, October first, Ray Cunningham gave a very interesting address on selecting our goal and aiming straight for it. He used the Big Bertha that shelled Paris as an example.

He held the attention of the assembly from the first and one could not help but feel the spirit of co-operation and friendliness that makes him so popular wherever he goes. Mr. Cunningham is a good mixer and the attitude of the students proves they want him here as "One of the Gang."

THE CHILD LABOR AMENDMENT

On the third of October, Mr. William Hodgson, chief of the Department of Legislation of the Russell Sage Foundation, spoke on the proposed Child Labor Amendment at assembly.

This amendment would allow Congress to pass laws protecting minors, who heretofore have been forced to work in mines, shops and factories. Mr. Hodgson stated that he believed it the duty of the states to enact and enforce such laws, but when all the states do not have uniformly good laws for protecting children, the national government must take the required steps.

MUSIC AND A PLOW

The school orchestra made its first appearance in chapel Saturday, October fourth. The orchestra deserves praise for the good showing made so early in the term. Leonard Langard contributed a clarinet solo that was very well rendered.

Thru the efforts of Mr. Bassett and the courtesy of the Oliver Chilled Plow works at Elkhart, Indiana, the plow Daniel Webster once used was exhibited on the stage. It is only the second exhibition of the plow, the first being at the World's Fair at St. Louis, Missouri. The plow is valued at $2 000.00 by its owner. Its wooden moldboard and knife colter furnish sharp contrasts with those of modern plows. William Dankers told the story of Daniel Webster's life.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

"An apple a day keeps the doctor away." Everyone is looking for the means of keeping well. Every newspaper tries to tell how this may be done.

Dr. Cady's talk on this subject in the October eighth assembly was interesting as well as helpful. He emphasized the necessity of personal good health for the good of the whole campus and urged co-operation of every student in living up to health regulations.

OUR PRESIDENT SPEAKS

On October 10th the students had the privilege of listening to President Coffman in assembly.

Our President gave a wonderful address on the breadth of the University proper, of the advantages offered to all kinds of people of all kinds of wants. He spoke of how many sacrifice in order to get their education. The fact was very strongly emphasized that though one was not the most brilliant scholar he might be a very useful citizen.

The continued applause showed that the address was very much appreciated.

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE

Max Abasolo, a Philippino and a graduate of Macalester College, gave an address here, Tuesday, October 14th. The text of his address was, "America Must Not Forget."

His talk was convincing and one could not help but feel as he feels, that the Philippines should have their independence as was promised them.

Mr. Abasolo is now a student of the College of Medicine at the University of Minnesota.

BISHOP BRADLEY OF INDIA

Wednesday, October 15th, Reverend Rising, pastor of the St. Anthony Park Methodist Episcopal Church, introduced as the assembly speaker Bishop Bradley of India. In the course of his talk many interesting things were brought out regarding the people of India and their devotion to the idea of sacrifice.

BROTHERHOOD

Tuesday, October 7th, in assembly we had the privilege of listening to Reverend Jennings, pastor of the University Baptist church. His theme was "Unselfish-

NEWS OF THE ALUMNI

The Visitors' Book in Principal D. D. Mayne's office is the Mecca for all who are interested in the alumni and their doings. The reporter gleaned these items from its pages.

Patrick A. Estes, 1918, is living at 120 Tenth Avenue, South St. Paul. He is employed by Swift and Company.

Phillip E. Schwab, 1922, of St. Cloud, is a salesman for the James Manufacturing Company.

Walter J. Christgau, 1920, raises Holsteins at his home in Dexter.

Mrs. J. A. Flack (Christina Baeker), 1919, makes her home in New Ulm.

Ernest Enright, 1920, is farming in Edgewood.

Magnus K. Granaas, 1922, and Mrs. Magnus Granaas (Lillian Johnson, 1923) are making their home near Veteransville.

The Daggett twins, Ione and Irene, 1919, visited the campus recently. Miss Ione has been practicing nursing as her profession and Miss Irene is a dental assistant in St. Anthony Park.

Mildred Edstrom, 1921, is now an oral hygienist in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Arthur Herum, 1911, of River Falls, Wis., is farming.

Eugene D. Stone, class of 1923, is farming near Spring Lake.

Mr. F. M. Cleater, 1907, of 346 N.E. 55th, Portland, Oregon, is employed in the Forest Service. Mr. Cleater recently visited his old school chum, D. J. Lane, 1907. Mr. Lane is engaged in poultry farming in Hopkins.

Catherine Mallery Bain, 1920, is teaching at Onamia.

Floyd Bemis, 1920, and Elsie Adolphson were married Saturday evening, October twenty-fifth. They will make their home at Jewett, Wisconsin.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lerberg (Esther Head, 1920) a son, June 20, 1924. Mr. and Mrs. Lerberg live in Larimore, North Dakota.

A. T. Sampson, 1913, is now managing a co-operative merchandising enterprise at Motley, Minnesota.

Fred Ehlers, 1909, is interested in farming and insurance at Des Moines, Iowa.

George M. Briggs, 1909, is field crop specialist of the Experiment Station of Wisconsin University. Mr. Briggs says he is coming to the reunion next spring.

Ruth Holmberg, class of 1904, now Mrs. Thompson, is teaching chemistry in the High School in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. Her husband is employed in the Navy Department. Mrs. Thompson spent the summer in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sheldon, class of 1904, have two daughters, Alice and Hazel, attending the School of Agriculture. With their daughters, Lois and Helene, they visited the Farm, October 18th and 19th, and renewed old acquaintances. Mr. Sheldon gave a talk at his old literary society, the S. A. U. M.

Earl Jewell, of Madison, Wisconsin, says he is now wrestling champion of the state.

Henry G. Schwer of Olivia is farming.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Grace Molebaar, 1920, to Mr. Carter Show has been received.

A letter from Mrs. A. Fredrickson, class of 1921, states that since she has married Mr. Frederickson, she wishes to have "The News of the School of Agriculture" sent to Shafer, Minnesota, instead of to Esther T. Anderson of Forest Lake, as she enjoys hearing from the students.

Pearl Fondell, 1921, now Mrs. C. N. Bergman, is living at 3819 Ninth Avenue South, Minneapolis.

A notice of the death of J. W. Danford, class of 1890, was received by Mr. R. S. Mackintosh.

The following graduates of the School of Agriculture are now freshmen in the University: Vincent Bailey, Agnes Morell, Zelotes Cutter, John M. Larson, Mathew Moore, Dayton Kirkham, Fred Zehnder, Rhys Haight, Beulah Stephens, Harry Ukkleberg, all of 1923, Einar Aamodt of 1922, Chester Christgau and Irving Van Stone of 1920, and Edwin Erickson of 1913.

Rufus Christgau is a member of the University football team and captain of the University baseball team.

Arthur True, 1924, has accepted a position as county agent of Lincoln county. His headquarters are at Ivanhoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lightly and their two sons of Austin visited Herbert and Nina Lightly on the campus, October 18th and 19th. Mr. Lightly was an Aggie himself and is a loyal booster.

Silas Olson, 1923, and William Olson, 1924, with two friends, toured the West in an auto this summer. They visited the Bad Lands, Glacier Park, Yellowstone Park, Seattle, Portland and Denver.

The members of the class of 1923 sympathize with their godparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Field, in their sorrow at the death of their older boy, Rodney. Rodney was run over by an automobile and killed while caddying on the golf links near his grandmother's home, in Wisconsin, last August. Rodney was a promising boy, being just ready to enter the University High this fall.

ness." That is, that we should pray for others not for ourselves, and that we should all be a united "Brotherhood." His closing remarks about the "man with the hoe" were very forceful and to the point.

"GETTING OUT THE VOTE"

Friday, October 17th, we had the privilege of hearing Mrs. A. J. McGuire, godmother of the class of 1918. The theme of her talk was "Getting Out the Vote." She explained that this government is fast becoming one of the minority rather than of the majority, because so many people do not vote. As long as we have a government of freemen why not put an earnest effort into keeping it so, rather than letting it fall into the hands of a few politicians? Every student who can should vote.

VOTES AND MUSIC

Saturday, October 18, Mr. Mayne spoke in assembly on voting, giving instructions as to where and how the school students could vote without going home. Then Mrs. Larson announced the members of the girls' quartette.

The following musical program was then given: Piano duet—Frieda Kording and Constance Swenson.

Vocal duet—Otto Hjermstad and Lester Schwartz.

Violin solo—Miss Schaettgen.

Song—Double Male Quartette.

CADY SCHOLARSHIP FUND ESTABLISHED

LeRoy Cady

The memory of a man may be preserved in the minds of people in various ways. Of these the least enduring is stone. The Minnesota Garden Flower Society has chosen one of the more enduring ways of keeping fresh the memory of an honored alumnus of the School of Agriculture, Le Roy Cady.

It is fitting that the members of this society have chosen to memorialize his life on the campus where he worked and in the group which he loved. The campus is already eloquent in its expression of the care and thought he bestowed on it. The School of Agriculture was ever the object of his unswerving loyalty.

But neither the campus nor the School bounded his interests and activities, and it is one of the many outside organizations which enjoyed his constructive enthusiasm that chooses to remember him by endowing a scholarship fund in the School of Agriculture.

The Minnesota Garden Flower Society raised by popular subscription the LeRoy Cady Scholarship Fund of $1500, the interest from which is to be used to aid deserving students who are pursuing courses in horticulture.

Dean Coffey sees deep significance in this memorial. He says:

"It is a permanent expression of appreciation of a faithful worker who served unobtrusively and never for personal gain or glory.

"It is an expression of encouragement and faith in the young who gather in our halls to prepare themselves for useful and happy living.

"It is an expression of confidence in agricultural education in Minnesota and in us to whom it is entrusted.

"It is an acknowledgment of kinship thru blood, and common aspiration with those who live in the open country and who have the sacred duty of cultivating and preserving the soil, a God given resource without which human existence and progress are impossible."

LITERARY SOCIETIES

No matter what walk in life we expect to tread, our education is, or should not be, complete without a goodly amount of training in public speaking. We are very fortunate at the School of Agriculture that we have a large number of well organized literary societies all of which are doing good work in giving the students experience in appearing in public. Any individual having special talent here has a chance to improve. Everyone, not already a member of one of these societies, should join and take an active part, for his or her own good and for the benefit of the literary society.
