

DULUTH--UMD's hockey boosters will see a full-scale UMD intra-squad scrimmage and hold their annual meeting at 8 p.m. Monday (Dec.2) in the downstairs club rooms of the Duluth Curling club. The session will be open to all interested persons.

Hockey coach John "Connie" Pleban will discuss UMD's hockey development and prospects for the coming season.

UMD representatives, Reidar Lund, executive sports editor of the Duluth Herald and News-Tribune, and James Claypool, Duluth, newly elected head of the Minnesota Amateur Hockey association, also will appear. A box lunch will be served.

Prior to the meeting, at 7 p.m., the group will watch a full-scale scrimmage between the Whites and the Golds, made up from 1957-58 hockey candidates. It will be the only chance to see the squad in full action prior to its Dec. 7 home opener against the Minneapolis Bungalows.

The program will launch the annual Bulldog season ticket drive. More than 1,000 season tickets are on sale. Tickets will sell for $12.50 for 11 home games.

Reservations for tickets may be made through the UMD Athletic department, RA 4-8801, Ext. 220, Physical Education Building 184, or members of the UMD Hockey Boosters organization.
