

DULUTH--UMD campus intramural champions will go up against the best in the MIAC in the annual MIAC extramural finals Saturday (March 22) at St. Thomas College.

Dr. Ward Wells, head of the Men's Physical Education Division and director of the Intramural program on the UMD campus, said today:

"Although our program is still growing, and we are still developing some of the events offered, we intend to have a team in every event."

Eleven events are scheduled. Among UMD league champions participating will be: basketball, the Satellites; volleyball, Laulunen's, and the bowling team.

Bob Hatten, a member of the varsity tennis team, will play in the badminton singles. Bob Anderson and Dick Weld will compete in the doubles. All were winners in the badminton intramural league this winter.

Mort Engstrom is entered in the handball singles.

Representatives in table tennis, singles and doubles, and ^{fu}suffle-board singles and doubles are being selected.

Winners of the Kirby Student center table tennis tournament will be the UMD table tennis entries.

Last spring UMD entered only four teams in the 11 events and finished last in school totals with 45 points. St. Mary's copped the event with 122½ points.

Bulldog entrants picked points in basketball, volleyball, badminton and table tennis.
