DULUTH--Miss Ruth van Appledorn, UMD assistant professor of music, will appear on a panel on composition at the National Federation of Music Clubs' Minnesota state convention Thursday through Saturday (March 27-29) in Minneapolis.

She will appear with Peter Mennin, New York, Juilliard School of Music composition department, and Russell G. Harris, St. Paul, Hamline university music department director.

Mr. Mennin, one of America's outstanding young men in composition today, will conduct the panel. His works are performed by major orchestras, choral groups and string quartets of the county.
