DULUTH--Criticisms of American education and salary schedules will be discussed at a meeting of the Northeastern Minnesota Education association, district 1, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday (May 1) in the UMD Science auditorium.

Speakers will be Gordon Mork, Minneapolis, MEA president, and A. L. Gallop, St. Paul, MEA executive secretary.

Mr. Mork will speak on "The Attacks on American Education," and Gallop, on "Salary Schedules and the Recession."

NEMEA members and potential members are invited to attend, according to Valworth R. Plumb, chairman, UMD division of education and psychology and district secretary.
