

For release on receipt
Tribune only

UMD News Service
May 23, 1958

Double cast in the leading role in the Robert Louis Stevenson thriller, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," which UMD Laboratory school students will present Wednesday (May 29) are Jeff Long and Gregory Anneke. Mary Hunner and Rosann Timpone share the role of Miss Harriet Utterson, a lady lawyer and close friend of Dr. Jekyll. Coralie Bergquist and Barbara Daugherty are double cast as Diana Carew, Dr. Jekyll's sweetheart. The play will be presented at 7:30 p.m. A dress rehearsal is scheduled at 2 p.m. Both performances in Main auditorium will be open to the public without charge. UMD Laboratory instructor Richard Lidberg is directing the production.