

UMD's library was richer by two new books on accounting yesterday following presentation by the Duluth chapter, National Association of Accountants.

The gift was presented at a luncheon meeting of the UMD Accounting club at which honorary club memberships were given to Richard O. Sielaff, John A. Dettmann, Philip L. Friest and Frank W. Jones, faculty members in the department of business and economics, social science division. Professor Sielaff is division chairman.

Club officers are ~~Thomas J. Dugan, Duluth,~~ Donald Peterson, Duluth, president; Donald Hempel, St. Paul, vice president, and Robert Trushenski, Duluth, treasurer. John Dettmann, professor of business and economics, is adviser.

Officers of the Duluth chapter are H. F. ~~Johnson~~ Jeronimus, president; Robert Kern, secretary, Anthony Adamio, Jr., director of publications, and V. O. Youngdahl, national director.