

End copy of International
Falls Journal
WVCB - Radio
KQAT - TV
WDSM - TV

Boris Pasternak's "Dr. Zhivago" will be discussed by UMD faculty and student panelists at a UMD International club meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday (April 30) in Kirby Student center lounge.

Panelists will be Thomas C. Sturgeon, associate professor of English; Ruth Kent, Duluth, history and English major; Moses Passer, associate professor of chemistry; Wilfred O. Sweeney, International Falls, English and French major, and Arthur J. Larsen, associate professor of history.

The discussion will be open to the public without charge. A question and answer period will follow the opening presentations.

Warren Mason and William Westin, both of Duluth, are co-chairmen of arrangements. The program is one of a series sponsored by the club to explore international problems and issues.

Other club activities scheduled this spring are a dance May 2 in cooperation with the American Field service, a picnic and a banquet. Officers are Vlasie Solon, Duluth, president; Young Jim Kim, Soonchun, Korea, vice president; Nora Kelly, Duluth, ~~xxxx~~ secretary-treasurer, and Jack Eckholm, Duluth, program coordinator.