

*-Lamont
B. List*

DULUTH--Awards for outstanding campus service and leadership were presented to three UMD faculty members, 44 students and two organizations at the fourth annual UMD recognition dinner last night in Kirby Student center.

Faculty-staff awards for outstanding contributions to student life went to Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin, John A. Dettmann, professor of business and economics, and Armas W. Tamminen, assistant professor of psychology.

Top student awards, the Sieur du Lhut citation, went to Glenn R. Simmonds, Helen L. Edman, Richard M. Miller and James D. Staudohar.

The student organization awards went to the International club and Sigma Tau Kappa, social fraternity for men.

Fourteen Bulldog awards were presented. Recipients were:

Michael S. Berman, Janet N. Betty, Richard J. Falk, Richard A. Ferrera, Ellsworth G. Johnson, Nancy L. Juneo, W. James LeBorious, Nancy I. Peterson, Ann L. Ransom, Lauren A. Sandquist, Karen L. Skoglund and Vlasie Solon, all of Duluth; Alden C. Lindgren, Orr, and Perry H. Lueders, Canby.

Twenty six Arrowhead awards went to the following:

Marilyn Abalan, Susan Barber, Nancy Dillon, Clifford Engels, Marilyn Jensen, Thomas Kraus, Marion Kyrola, Kenneth Mæckelbergh, David Mattson, Gretchen Myers, Dennis Nylander, Donald M. Phillips, Robert J. Pike, John R. Reed, Patrick J. Rooney, Margaret M. Ruikka, Russell V. Schoumaker, John C. Seely, Bradley K. Sheeks, Diane H. Smith and Bruce A. Torp, all of Duluth; Patricia Bergquist, Fargo, N. D.; Alice Craig, Two Harbors; Esther Korpi, Chisholm; Anne Lindholm, Two Harbors, and Gerhardt E. Schmidt, Clarissa.