

For release on receipt

UMD News Service
May 25, 1959

TUs, Herald-Trib Hills, Va.

Sigurd F. Olson, Ely, noted Canadian guide, wilderness authority, author and conservationist, will speak on "A Book is Born" at a meeting sponsored by Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary UMD journalism fraternity, at 8 p.m. Thursday (May 28) in Kirby Student center. Open to the public, his talk will follow a dinner at which outstanding contributions to campus journalism will be recognized. Olson, author of "Singing Wilderness" and "Listening Point," will be introduced by Orville E. Lamoie, executive editor of the Duluth Herald and News-Tribune.