DULUTH. . . The annual spring conference for school superintendents from northeastern Minnesota will be held Thursday (May 5) on the UMD campus. Cooperating with UMD in the project is the Education and Special Welfare committee of the Duluth Chamber of Commerce.

Following a 9:45 a.m. coffee hour in the Kirby Student Center ballroom, Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin will speak on the subject "Inside UMD," outlining current developments on the campus and future plans.

Dean A. Crawford, head of the department of secondary education, will talk on "A Map for the Educational Crossroads."

The superintendents will be luncheon guests in Kirby of the Duluth Chamber of Commerce with the program by chamber personnel.

Superintendents who hope to interview teaching candidates during the afternoon are being urged to make arrangements in advance by contacting Willard Johnston, director of placement, Kirby center.
