

Release on receipt

UMD NEWS SERVICE
RA 4-8801 Ext 210
June 10, 1960

DULUTH--Registration for the first term of summer session classes at UMD will take place all day Monday(June 13) at the Office of Student Personnel Services at Kirby Student Center.

Valworth R. Plumb, chairman of the Duluth summer session committee of the University, said classes will begin on Tuesday. Seventy-four graduate and 158 undergraduate courses along with 15 institutes and workshops are being offered UMD summer session students this year.

The first term runs through July 16; the second term starts July 18 and ends August 20.

Last year, 1839 persons attended UMD's summer classes... 1,029 the first term, 810 the second term.

Provost Raymond W. Darland will join other UMD staff members in welcoming the new students at a convocation at 3 p.m. Wednesday in Kirby center.

A variety of recreational activities including swimming, golf, bridge, lectures, free films, an art show and reception, baseball games, Duluth city and harbor tours have been lined up for the first week by Jeanette Bruce, director of special summer events.