DULUTH--The Circle Dancers---two men and four women--- will perform in UMD's Kirby ballroom at 8:00 p.m. Thursday(July 21), sponsored by the UMD Convocation and Lectures committee.

Organized by the famous dancer, Drid Williams, the troupe will perform a variety of numbers based on the primitive dances of Africa, the West Indies, the East Indies, and Eastern cultures. Selections of contemporary dances as well as ballet also will be represented. All of the dances will be performed in colorful, authentic costumes.

Williams, himself, will join the company in many of the numbers.

The UMD appearance is part of a tour of the Upper Midwest arranged by the University of Minnesota Program Service, a division of the University's Department of Concerts and Lectures.
