

Release on receipt

UMD NEWS SERVICE
RA 4-8801 Ext 210
Sept. 29, 1960

DULUTH--Lip reading and stuttrer's classes will begin at UMD Tuesday, October 4.

The lip reading class will be held from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. each Tuesday with Dr. Robert F. Pierce, head of UMD's speech department, giving the instruction.

The class for stuttrers will be held from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. the same evening with Pacy Friedman, assistant professor in speech, instructing.

Both classes will meet in room 130 Humanities building. The instruction is free and open to anyone. It will continue throughout the academic year. Further information can be had by calling UMD, Randolph 4-8801, extension 369, 374.

-0-

Mrs. Helen Trader, instructor in home economics at UMD, will give a demonstration and talk on "Tailoring Tips" to the home economics section of the North Central Teachers Association meeting at Ashland, Wisconsin October 6.