DULUTH--A UMD student and the mayor of Meadowlands present views on "Conservatism and the 'Right Wing'" Thursday (April 5) in Kirby Student Center Ballroom at 8 1/2 p.m. University convocation.

Ralph Doty, Duluth, a political science major at UMD, and Mayor Paul Sramek will cover such subjects as the John Birch Society, federal aid to schools, communism and the national debt.

The two-man presentation follows an earlier assembly at which liberal views were expressed by the Rev. Thomas Smith of the First Unitarian Church and UMD student Jan Dizard, Duluth.

Sramek and Doty will conclude the convocation by accepting questions from the floor.
