The "Ugliest Man on Campus" at UMD is a woman. "George OBrien" won the title and the election with 1,328 votes after two days of student balloting. But George O' Brien turned out to be 19 year old Linda Makinen, a blonde junior from Keewatin, Minnesota. She was sponsored by Gamma Omicron Beta sorority and dressed up and made up like a man to vie with five other "male" candidates during International Fellowship Week. Containers with pictures attached were distributed on campus and each penny donated to World University Service--- which aids needy students overseas---counted as one vote. Linda was crowned "Ugliest Man on Campus" at the International Costume Ball Saturday night (Apr 7) at Kirby Student Center.
