DULUTH—Four UMD debaters, selected by Dr. Harold Hayes, an associate professor of speech, journey to Rapid City, S. D. for the annual Phi Kappa Delta Provincial Speech Tournament Wednesday(April 18) at the Rapid City School of Mines.

Gerald Nyquist, sophomore from Duluth, and Peter Kitchek, a Duluth junior, will act as Hayes' debaters. The topic:"Resolved That Labor Unions Should Come Under Federal Anti-Trust Legislation."

Karen Hallback, a Cloquet freshman, and John L. West, senior from Duluth, will take part in the discussion, extemporaneous and oratorical sessions.

Tournament participation is one of the requirements UMD must fulfill for having an Iota Chapter of the national speech fraternity on campus.
