DULUTH--Representatives of the 1930 Duluth State Teachers College football team will be on hand Saturday night(Oct.27) at the UMD Alumni Association's Homecoming dinner at the Duluth Athletic Club to honor their coach.

Frank J. Kovach, the first head of industrial education and coach of that first DSTC team, will be saluted for 33 years athletic and academic service.

Bob Sorensen, Duluth---a member of the 1930 squad---will join Professor Gordon Voss, current head of industrial education at UMD, Provost Raymond W. Darland, and Alumni president Bob Murray, Duluth, in paying tribute to Kovach's contributions to DSTC and UMD.

Following the 7:00 o'clock dinner program, alumni are invited to gather at the Hi-Fi Lounge at Kirby Student Center to take part in the UMD Homecoming dance.

Reservations for the Kovach dinner should be called in to the UMD alumni office before 5:00 p.m. on Friday(Oct.26).
