Duluth --- Richard H. Carlson, a UMD sophomore from Duluth, has achieved "advanced standing in performance" in baritone horn, according to Dr. Robert W. House, head of the Department of Music.

Carlson is a music major and a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity.

To achieve "advanced standing" a student must pass rigid tests in sight-reading, play compositions of various stylistic periods, present a self-prepared work, and give evidence of superior knowledge in general performance techniques.

Carlson graduated from Central High School in 1955, where he was a member of the band and ski team. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson live at 4405 Vermilion Rd. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Carlson, live in Brainerd, Minn.
