

DULUTH --- UND athletics will participate in the annual Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Extramural Meet in the Twin Cities Saturday (March 7).

The basketball, volleyball and bowling teams were chosen through the campus' intramural program under the direction of Craig Peterson, an instructor in physical education.

The other competition will be in physical fitness and badminton. George Moore, Duluth, will represent UND in badminton singles. Mike Johnson and Gary McManus, both Duluthians, head Peterson's physical fitness team.

The Bulldog basketball squad, captained by Ray Norsted of Cambridge, recently finished first in a round-robin intramural tournament. Other squad members: Bill Kast and Chuck Lyons, Aitkin; Roger Halverson, Braham; Steve Joseph, Cloquet; Bill Kuusisto, Edina; Dean Heglund, Dwaine Norman and Jim Foley, all of Cambridge.

PENN's (Physical Education Majors and Minors) were the intramural volleyball champions. The squad includes Jack McDowell, Silver Bay; Dan Merton, Lloyd Korhonen, Al Halfaker, Ron Hanson, Bob Gernander, Murray Peterson and Wally Larson, all of Duluth.

Bob Murphy, Jim Matthews and Harry Zabrocki, Duluth; Ronald Hill, Oak Park, Ill.; and John Newstrom, Aitkin, will make up the bowling team.

Roger Tostrup, Duluth, will be entered in the basketball spot shooting contest.

All competition begins at 10 a.m. with basketball at Augsburg, volleyball at Hamline, bowling at Midway All-Star Lanes and badminton and physical fitness at Macalester.
