Duluth--- "A world of Your Own" will be the theme of the 22nd annual Engagement Ball at UMD. The event, sponsored by Alpha Nu Omega, men's social fraternity, will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Nov. 17 in Kirby Ballroom.

Jody Dickman, co-chairman for the Ball, stated that the decorations will include boxes hanging from the ceiling, op art decorations on the walls and two ultra violet lites on the band. Music will be provided by King James and His Disciples, a 9 piece group from Minneapolis.

Dickman said that the traditional kissing ring will also be included. There the man will present his date with a ring and a corsage and the couple will receive an engagement certificate before they enter the Ballroom.
