Duluth -- Baked goods and gift items for Christmas will be on sale between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Wednesday (Dec. 6) at the annual UMD Home Economics Club Bazaar in Kirby Student Center. The sale is open to the public.

All the items on sale have been made by Club members and include hand-made yarn toys, children's clothing, aprons, doll wardrobes and Christmas decorations and corsages. The baked goods will be pre-cut and boxed.

Co-chairmen for the Bazaar are Connie Kratzke, sophomore from Vergas, and Kathy Tuura, junior from Esko. Mrs. Eleanor Collins, home economics instructor, is the adviser to the 65-member club.
