Duluth--- "The Privileges and Responsibilities of Being a Federation Member or an Association Member" will be debated at 7:30 p.m. Thursday (Nov. 10) in UMD's Education Auditorium.

The debate and the discussion period following will be part of the regular meeting of the UMD chapter, Student NEA (National Education Association).

Supporting the "association" view will be Patrick G. Churchill, St. Paul, director of student programs for NEA. The "federation" side will be taken by Henry B. Winkels, St. Paul, assistant executive secretary for the Minnesota Federation of Teachers.

The public and all area teachers are invited to attend the meeting.

Joy Manzer, Silver Bay, is president of Student NEA at UMD; Mrs. Donna Wolean, assistant professor of elementary education, is chapter adviser.
