DULUTH --- Two firsts will be involved when the 15th annual UMD Art Auction is held from 7:30-10 p.m. Nov. 21.

It will be the first time the auction has been held in Tweed Gallery rather than Kirby Student Center. And it will be the first time the event has been held in the fall rather than in the spring.

The auction is sponsored by the UMD Art Students Guild and Kappa Pi, national honorary art fraternity chapter at UMD.

The art objects to be auctioned in the evening will be on display in Tweed Gallery from 8 a.m. so that prospective buyers can view the pieces well in advance of sale.

More than 100 paintings (oils and watercolors), prints and drawings, and ceramics already have been entered for the auction. Most of them were created by UMD students in art classes, with a few faculty pieces due to be sold.

Proceeds of the auction go to UMD art scholarships. An original print by Paris artist, Marc Chagall will be given away as a door prize.

Co-chairmen of the auction are Fred Gustafson, an art senior from Northfield, and John Anderson, an art senior from Two Harbers.
