

FORESTRY
FACT SHEET No. 14-1979
CHRIS OLSON and LEW HENDRICKS

This fact sheet tells you where you can get answers to your questions regarding selection, care, preservation, and use of wood. Some of the publications listed can be obtained free from one of the six information sources below. Publications that are not free may be available at your local library, can be obtained from your librarian, or can be purchased from the source indicated. Since publication prices range from 10¢ to $10, you may want to check on price before ordering.
