Welcome back to UMD! We hope your summer was enjoyable and productive.

Women's Coordinating Committee presents its Brown Bag series on Mondays at noon in Kirby 355-357. Sept. 13: Take Back the Night; Sept. 20: Aerobics; Sept. 27: UMD--Sexual Assault & Harassment; October 4: Women as County Commissioners; October 11: Image of Women in Kabuki Theatre. See you then!

ISSUES IN FEMINISM, a PHILOSOPHY-WOMEN'S STUDIES COLLOQUIUM SERIES will be held on Wednesday noon in Kirby 311. Sept. 15th: Elizabeth Bartlett, Political Science, "Sorority: Key Concept in Feminism;" Sept. 29th: John Hamlin, Sociology, "The Relationship Between Capitalism and Patriarchy."

ASHES, ASHES, WE ALL FALL DOWN, Tuesday, Sept. 21 and Wednesday, Sept. 22 at 8 PM in Marshall Performing Arts Center; tickets $3.00. Ashes, is a ritual drama about nuclear madness and our cultural denial of death. Ashes is produced by At the Foot of Mountain, a professional women's company based in the Twin Cities.

The 1982 "Take Back the Night" march and rally will begin at Leif Erickson Park, 7 PM, Sept. 11th. This event demonstrates women can, and indeed will, be safe to walk at night. We will "Take Back the Night" as our own and will walk on the streets without fear of rape or assault!

The UMD Health Service is expanding its primary outreach efforts to include a Sexual Assault/Sexual Harassment program. Lectures include but are not limited to: Date Rape, Incest, Sexual Assault (Laws, Issues, Degrees), and Sexual Harassment. Contact Peg Mold, Outreach Coordinator, 726-8155.

Recruiting women and minorities into science and math fields will be the topic of a talk by Rena Lindstrom, Director of Counseling at North Carolina Schools for Science and Math, on Oct. 4 at 4 PM in LSci 175.

The Second Annual North Central Women's Leadership Conference will be held Nov. 5-7 at UM-Morris. Students are encouraged to attend. Some financial aid will be available. Contact Women's Studies for details.

"WISE WOMEN RADIO" WANTS NEW VOICES! This weekly music and public affairs program produced by a small, devoted group of women is heard on KUMD (103.3 FM) Sundays, 6-9 PM and Tuesdays at 1:30 PM. They are looking for more participants to become involved on any level--by producing a public affairs program (with assistance) on a topic of interest, by doing music programs, or joining the group of regular producers. For more information, contact Jean Johnson at 726-7181.

The North Central Region of the Soroptimist International of the Americas is offering a fellowship to an outstanding woman who has her bachelor's degree, and who has ambition and ability to do advanced work in the graduate school of her choice. Application blanks may be obtained at the office of the UM Graduate School or by writing to Dean Nancy Parlin, Chairperson, Awards Committee, Moorhead State Univ., Moorhead, MN 56560 or (218) 235-2762.
