

the woman's page

112 Social Science
Duluth, Minnesota

Volume 4, No. 1
September 16, 1983

The editor of this year's Woman's Page is Jayne Kulus. Jayne is a Communications major-Women's Studies minor who has an internship in the Women's Studies office. Announcements for the Woman's Page and questions about particular items should be addressed to her c/o Women's Studies, 112 SS.

WOMEN'S COORDINATING COMMITTEE up-coming Brown Bag Series, Mondays at noon in Kirby 355-357:

Sept. 19--"Equal Employment Opportunity," Deborah Taran, EEO officer, City of Duluth

Sept. 26--"Women Against Military Madness: Women, Power, and Peace," Jeanie Brooke & Connie Hickok, co-chairpersons WAMM

Oct. 3--"Nurse Mid-Wifery: Another Choice in Family Birth," Helena Saarion, Cert. Nurse Midwife

WCC invites you to drop by the office, Library 113. Notice board, info on women's groups/services, and informal lending library is available. Volunteers needed to keep the place open. INTERESTED?? Call Jean Johnson (726-7181) or the WCC Office (726-8509).

WISE WOMEN RADIO (KUMD 103.3 FM) upcoming programs: Sept. 18, 20: Interview with Connie Kaldor and Beverly Cotton at Winnepeg Folk Fest; Sept. 25, 27: Look at traditional women's work, gardening and harvesting; Sundays 8:30 (women's music, 6-8:30) & Tuesdays 1:30. Interested in working on a program? Contact Jean Johnson, 726-7181.

"WOMEN AND THE WAGE GAP," a national call-in radio program Sat., September 24th, 11:00-2:00 on KUMD 103.3 FM. Give it a listen and call in collect! (212) 279-3400.

NOW Potluck and Membership Meeting: Tuesday, Sept. 20 at 6:30 at Nancy Pigman's home, 1401 Vermillion Road. For more information, call 728-4536.

MARK CALENDARS: November 7th Sharon Leigh, editor Today's Chicago Woman speaking on "New(?) Views of Women in the Workforce," and "Negotiating Your Salary: Tips for Women." More details later.....

Nurse-Midwifery offers an alternative for a safe, family-centered experience in pregnancy, birth and post-partum. Call and they'll visit you. Community Health Center, Two Harbors (218) 834-2171 or Silver Bay Clinic (218) 226-4431.

"A Tale of 'O'", an innovative 18-minute presentation is now available in the Learning Resource Center. It explores common issues facing individuals who must work and live with others from whom she or he is different. Several groups, including Women's Studies, contributed toward its purchase.

DISTINGUISH BETWEEN SEXUAL ATTRACTION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT: M.I.T. is conducting a survey involving student-student sexual harassment; 15 page survey. Address in Women's Studies office, SS 112 or by calling (726-7953).

Publications of special interest: "An Annotated Bibliography on Sexual Harassment in Education;" "Opportunities for Women's Studies Publication in Language and Literature." Addresses for this and other journals in Women's Studies office.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS (Details in Women's Studies office, 112 Social Science, 726-7953)

Fulbright Grant applications for 1984-1985 overseas studies due Sept. 30th; contact Don Pearce in Library 248.....Ten $1,000 scholarships (1983-1984) through Lake Superior Basin Studies Center; applications in 417 Darland Administration Bldg. due Sept. 30th.....Rhodes Scholarships now open to women! requires academic achievement, leadership, sportsmanship, and concern for others. See Don Pearce, Library 248; applications due in October.....Bunting Fellowship Program at Radcliffe College* supports research by professional women; deadline October 7, 1983.....

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS CONTINUED...

Alice Glover $1500 Fellowship for Women* to encourage capable women to prepare for careers in public service or international affairs... POST DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS at Brown University -- Theme for 1984-1985 is "Production, Reproduction, and Constructions of Sexual Differences;" application deadline December 16, 1983.

WORKSHOPS, CONFERENCES, CALL FOR PAPERS, JOBS.....(Contact Women's Studies, 112 Social Science)

Minnesota State Affirmative Action Assoc. holding a workshop to share professional tips and exchange ideas, Thurs., Sept. 29 at Spirit Mt. Lodge. Call Deb Taran at 723-3368.
A Conference for Women and Minorities--"The Entrepreneurial Spirit," Fri., October 7, Green Room in Duluth Public Library. Discussion about starting businesses.
1983 Roundtable Conference for Professional Women--Oct. 21-23, at Chatham Bars Inn on Cape Cod. Theme--"Courage: The Struggle Between Corporate Cultures and Woman Consciousness."
THE GLOBAL HOUSEHOLD--U of M conference on various roles of women and resources in the household economy. A forum of humanists, natural scientists, social scientists, October 21-22.
The Black Women's Caucus of Northeastern Illinois University announces a national conference on "Black Womanhood: A New Ideology," Oct. 27-29, McCormick Inn, Chicago, Illinois.
National Women's Studies Association's Sixth Annual Convention. Theme: "Steering Our Course: Feminist Education in the 80's," with emphasis on the diversity of Women's Studies, June 24-28, '84 on Rutgers Campus of New Brunswick. Deadline for proposals, October 1, 1983.
WOMAN CHURCH CONFERENCE, Nov. 11-13th, O'Hare/Kennedy Holiday Inn, Chicago for women of Catholic heritage and diverse racial and ethnic heritage.
Woman's Place: A Research Conference hosted by the U of South Dakota at Vermillion, Apr. 12-14, 1984 featuring Elizabeth Janeway. Paper deadline, November 1, 1983.
The 14th Annual Popular Culture Association and 6th Annual American Culture Association Convention is holding Women's Caucus Sponsored Panels, March 29-April 1, 1984 in Toronto, Canada. Abstracts for presentation and publication deadline is Oct. 15th; applicants must be either PCA or ACA members.
POSITION AVAILABLE at Univ. of Minnesota -- Director, Program in Continuing Education for Women. Application deadline October 15th; date of appointment as soon as possible.

Students interested in attending conferences should check with Women's Studies, Women's Coordinating Committee and/or Student Association for help with expenses.

WORK-STUDY STUDENTS still needed in Women's Studies and Women's Coordinating Committee. Contact Susan Coultrap-McQuin (726-7953) or Jean Johnson (726-7181).

Details on a Women's Studies minor are available in 112 Social Science.

RECENT ACQUISITIONS IN LIBRARY:

Reason's Disciples: 17th Century English Feminists, Smith, Hilda
Women's Legacy: Essays on Race, Sex, & Class in American History, Aptheker, Bettina
Our Blood: Prophecies & Discourses, Dworkin, A.
Sexism and Society, Reed, E.
Selected Political Writings of Rosa Luxemburg, Luxemburg, R.
Together Black Women, Reid, Inez
Women and Labor, Schreiner, Olive Essays in Feminism, Gornick, V.
Women and the Military, Binkin, M.

DO WE HAVE YOUR CURRENT ADDRESS? If you anticipate a change of address, please let us know!
Deadline for October newsletter items: Tuesday, October 4th, Women's Studies office, 112 SS.

During Students Activities Week in Kirby Ballroom, September 19-30th, drop by the Women's Coordinating Committee booth for information regarding events and groups for women.