

ADVERTISE WITH US!

NEWS OPINION SPORTS ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT MULTIMEDIA ABOUT LAKE VOICE NEWS THE FEED

Grad Fair 2016: If you weren't planning on it, go.

MARCH 3, 2016 BY HANNAH BROADBENT

LEAVE A COMMENT

BY SUMMER HARRIS | the Statesman

With spring break around the corner and second semester flying by, many of us are staring down our next milestone before finally entering life after college: graduation.

This Thursday, UMD will be hosting its annual Grad Fair from 10 a.m to 5 p.m in the Kirby Ballro om, where students can purchase caps, gowns and hoods at discounted rates. Information about financial aid exit interviews, resume evaluations and job search assistance are just a few other things they will have access to.

MSA Grad Cap. From wikimedia.com

"It's good for people who don't really know what's going on – a good check-up point for graduation," senior Chelsea Egwim said, who plans on attending the event.

The Grad fair isn't just for undergraduates.

"I'm mostly going because I don't know what I need and it's easier to just ask someone instead of searching online," graduate student Brooke Vetter said.

Regardless of your stage in the graduation process the Grad Fair is a good place to start (or finish) your graduation shopping and get yourself on track before the semester is over.

Share this:

Comments

comments

FILED UNDER: NEWS

WELCOME!

The official site of the University of Minnesota Duluth student news. The Statesman is UMD's official student newspaper. LakeVoice features community news from Duluth. Both news organizations are run by students and open to the public.

Search this website ...

LAKE VOICE COMMUNITY NEWS

The business of going green: the Lincoln Park Shines project

A Kid's Club and parents' time out

Train-hopping and Hitch-hiking

Lake Voice News

YOUTUBE

Hidden Gems of Duluth: Congo...

PODCAST: CHANCELLOR CHAT

“