

Annual Weather Summary 2010
West Central Research and Outreach Center
Morris, MN

2010 calendar year precipitation totaled 31.73 inches, 7.56 inches above normal. Snowfall totaled 45.6 inches, approximately 5 inches above normal. In 2010, 107 of 365 days recorded 0.01 inches or greater of precipitation. In 2010 there were 6 days of 90°F or greater daily maximum temperatures and 44 days of 0°F or lower daily minimum temperatures. The warmest day in 2010 was 93°F, occurring 3 times, and the coldest was -31°F, also occurring 3 times. Annual mean temperature was 42.8°F, which was 0.7°F above normal.